UPPER IOWA PEACOCKS VS. BEMIDJI STATE

THIS WEEKEND IN PEACOCK FOOTBALL... Upper Iowa will celebrate Homecoming weekend in Fayette with a home game against the Beavers of Bemidji State University. The Peacocks are coming off a great, complete-game victory at Minot State University last Saturday. UIU performed in all three phases of the game and dominated the contest for their second win. The Beavers are receiving votes in the latest AFCA Division II poll after scoring a 25-21 win over the University of Sioux Falls last Saturday. The only blemish on BSU's record this season is a 26-19 loss at the No. 6 University of Minnesota Duluth. Fans that can't make it back for Homecoming Weekend in Fayette can watch live on KCRG-TV 9.3, listen on AM 950 KOEL, follow the game online through live stats and a webcast at UIUPeacocks.com/Live, or stream the game live through the Stretch Internet app on Roku, Amazon Fire, Apple or Android TV.

The NSIC football schedule is broken into two eight-team divisions (North/South). Each team plays eleven conference games that count towards the NSIC Overall Champion as well as seven divisional games that count towards the NSIC North/South Champions. In all, three league championships will be awarded (Overall Champion, North Division Champion, South Division Champion).

THE SERIES... The Beavers and Peacocks renew their series this Saturday with BSU holding a 6-1 mark in meetings. Bemidji State won the first five games played including two in the HHH Metrodome as part of the NSIC Dome Classic. Upper Iowa broke the streak four years ago in Fayette with a 47-30 victory over the Beavers. The Peacocks scored 27 points in the fourth quarter to rally from a ten-point deficit. Chris Smith led UIU with 247 rushing yards and 3 touchdowns, while Cole Jaeschke threw for 259 yards, 3 scores and added a rushing touchdown as well. Shay Gutman recorded 170 receiving yards and two scores in UIU's win. Two years ago, the teams kicked off the 2016 season next to the lake in Bemidji. The Beavers led by twenty at halftime, but Upper Iowa fought back in the third and early fourth quarters to cut the margin to just six points, 30-24. Turnovers in the fourth quarter slowed the comeback as Upper Iowa dropped the season opener 38-24.

SCORING ON DEFENSE... Upper Iowa's defense has scored a pair of touchdowns this season thanks to a 20-yard sack fumble return by Christian Ruff at home against Augustana University and a 26-yard interception return by Mitchel Siech on the road last Saturday at Minot State University. The two scores leads NSIC defenses and is the 14th most in the nation.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS... In football, as in life, nothing is more important than your first impression. The Peacocks have been successful gaining first downs on offense, but opponents have also enjoyed success racking up a new set of downs. Upper Iowa is ranked 22nd in the country and 3rd in the conference with 138 first downs on offense. Unfortunately, UIU's opponents have also moved the chains 138 times, which ranks the team's first down defense 14th in the NSIC.

STICKY HANDS... Upper Iowa's defense has been a menace to opposing quarterbacks when it comes to interceptions. The Peacocks have nine interceptions this season led by Mitchel Siech's three and Daniel Ruffin Jr.'s two. UIU's nine picks rank 21st in the nation and 3rd in the Northern Sun. With the team's five fumble recoveries, Upper Iowa has 14 turnovers gained this season, which ranks 19th in NCAA Division II and 4th in the country.

GROUND ASSAULT... Upper Iowa used a constant ground attack last Saturday to push the Beavers back on their heels. The Peacocks rushed for a season-high 290 yards on 52 carries featuring seven different ball carriers. Ryan Parmely led the way in his first game back with 81 yards and a touchdown on 12 attempts. Jon Deprey carried 10 times for 73 yards and Matt McDonald picked up 56 yards on 6 attempts including a 38-yard run. The big day on the ground improved UIU's rushing yards per game average from 88.2 to 121.8.

NSIC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK... The Northern Sun awarded two NSIC Player of the Week honors to Peacock football players this week. Junior linebacker Mitchel Siech was named the NSIC Defensive Player of the Week and freshman kicker Jonathan Argueta-Herrera earned the NSIC Special Teams Player of the Week award. Siech intercepted two passes in UIU's 44-9 win at Minot State. The second interception came at the end of the third quarter and the junior returned it 26 yards to the end zone for a Peacock touchdown. Siech recorded 3 tackles in the game with two tackles for loss, including a sack. Argueta-Herrera scored 14 points for the Peacocks with three field goals and five extra points on Saturday. The field goals came from 40, 35 and 44 yards as the freshman improved to 6-for-6 on the year. He also recorded 543 yards on 10 kicks for a 54.3-yard average and 122 yards on 4 punts for a 30.5-yard average.

BEMIDJI STATE STORYLINES...

Bemidji State earned its first win after trailing at halftime since 2016 with a 25-21 win against (RV) University of Sioux Falls. The Beavers came back from a 21-3 deficit with 8:30 left in the third quarter for their first win against the Cougars since 1983. The Beavers secured their ninth straight Homecoming victory in the win, the longest Homecoming winning streak in program history.

- Bemidji State received votes in the AFCA Top 25 Coaches Poll for the first time since Week Three of the 2017 season.

- Senior defensive back Gunner Olszewski earned NSIC Special Teams Player of the Week after totaling 118 return yards (64 kickoff/54 punt) in Week Five at Wayne State, including a 38-yard punt return that he pitched to junior defensive back Michael Junker who ran 56 yards for a touchdown. The special teams award is Olszewski's fifth overall Player of the Week honor.

- Junker has now single-handedly or combined for two 94+ yard touchdowns this season after returning a 100-yard interception for a touchdown against University of Minnesota Crookston.

- Olszewski ranks third in the nation with a 20.9 punt return average and three punt returns of more than 35 yards on the season.

- Olszewski ranks second in BSU history with 884 career punt return yards and fifth with 11 interceptions. He also ranks tied for ninth all-time at BSU in total tackles, coming into Saturday's game against Upper Iowa with 293.

- Olszewski was selected as the NSIC North Division Defensive Player of the Year and BSU's Defensive Player to Watch for the second consecutive season. He has previously earned three All-NSIC Defensive First Team honors, All-NSIC Special Teams Honorable Mention, NSIC Newcomer of the Year, Lindy's Sports Magazine Preseason All-Division II Second Team, Football Gameplan's 2016 Preseason All-American Team, Conference Commissioner's Association (CCA) All-Super Region

Three Second Team Defense, three NSIC Player of the Week accolades and D2Football.com Defensive Player of the Week, after tying a program single-game record of three interceptions Oct. 31, 2015 at Minot State University.

- The Beavers had a miscue in the red zone for the first time this season against the Cougars, but rank third in the nation with a red zone offense of 96.2 percent. BSU has scored 19 touchdowns and six field goals in 26 red zone trips.

- BSU's red zone defense leads the nation with a 45.5 percent red zone defense. The "Gang Green" defense ranks within the top 10 nationally in scoring defense (12.3), interceptions (11) and passing efficiency defense (89.33).

- Senior running back Andrew Lackowski topped 100 yards rushing for the first time since Week One, finishing with a team-high 126 yards against Sioux Falls. He added two rushing touchdowns and totaled 35 carries, the most for a BSU running back since 2013.

- Henning and Ogden continue to rank as one of the nation's top 15 passing efficiency offenses, ranking 14th with a 161.98 passing efficiency. BSU's quarterbacks have only thrown one interception in 127 pass attempts.

- The Beavers entered the 2018 season ranked 5th in the overall NSIC Preseason Coaches' Poll and 2nd in the North Division for the third consecutive season.

- Head Coach Brent Bolte currently holds the program's highest winning percentage at .759 (22-7). His 22 wins in 29 games is the most among all BSU coaches over their first 29 games.
