Back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in program history.

Three five-set matches this season. Last year the team played a total of six five-setters in 35 total matches.

Led conference in five major categories last season

Seven freshmen. Only the fourth time in 15 years the program has had seven freshman (2011, 2012, 2015).

Eight home games throughout the season. The Bucs are the only team in the SoCon who have not played at home yet.

28 wins last season, second most in program history (1978-32).

The Bucs finished 33rd in the RPI rankings last season.

- Won last six regular season matches to climb to tie for second place in SoCon
- Lost in first round of conference tournament 3-0 to Western Carolina
- Katie Muey won Libero of the Year in SoCon
ETSU LAST TIME OUT
The Bucs are coming off of a 2-1 weekend at the Tennessee Classic. The Blue and Gold fell to the Lady Vols in three sets on Friday night before defeating North Dakota State (3-1) and Georgia Southern (3-2) on Saturday. The weekend marked the first time the Bucs were swept this season.

PRESEASON ALL-SOCON
ETSU was ranked fifth in the SoCon preseason poll. Samford, who was crowned Conference Tournament Champions was slated as the favorite. Marija Popovic was the named to the Preseason All-Conference Team.

FOUR FIRST-TIME OPPONENTS
ETSU played four first-time opponents throughout the 2018 season; ETSU finished 4-0 in those matches. All of these opponents came from ETSU’s pre-season tournaments. The first-time opponents are Alcorn State, North Dakota State, Jacksonville State and Southeastern Louisiana.

REMATCH VS. TENNESSEE
After ETSU’s upset against the Vols last year at home on Sept. 4, the Blue and Gold improved to 3-11 all time against Tennessee. The Bucs are looking to defeat Tennessee in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history.

LUCKY NUMBER SEVEN
The squad has seven freshman, which is the most of an incoming class for the program since 2011-12. That season they went 15-16 and 7-6 in the conference (ASUN).

CHERNING THE TABLES
Sydney Cherney got her first test as a college starting libero last weekend at Tennessee. She had started one match previously, but this was her biggest test. She finished the weekend averaging five digs per set and was tabbed the SoCon Defensive Player of the Week.

PRODUCTIVE POPOVIC
Marija Popovic, the reigning two-time SoCon Libero of the Year is back for her third season. The junior led the SoCon with 648 digs and was named the September and October defensive player of the month. She tallied double-digit digs in all but two matches and had 20+ digs in 14 contests.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT - FURMAN
Furman is still looking to get their first win of the season after starting 0-11 in non-conference action. The Paladins have gone to five sets twice this season and have been swept six times. They are 0-1 at home. Furman’s strength of schedule is the hardest in the SoCon with their opposition throughout the season holding a .511 winning percentage.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT - UNCG
UNCG sits at 6-8 overall as they enter conference action. The Spartains host a 2-3 record in Greensboro. UNCG is led by junior Maria Esch who is fourth in the conference with 3.52 kills per set.

WHO LED THE BUCS?
STANDING OUT IN THE SOCON
The Bucs currently sit atop the SoCon in non-conference play hosting a 9-3 record. Samford finished second-best in preseason action with a 6-5 record.

FIRST YEAR HEAD COACH
Benavia Jenkins is serving as the program’s fourth head coach in the last 20 years and the eighth overall. Throughout the program’s history, first-year head coaches combined for a record of 71-80.

JENKINS COLLEGE EXPERIENCE
Jenkins at UF was an All-American middle blocker totalling over 1,000 kills and 600 blocks (most in program history when she left). As a Gator, her squad won four SEC titles and went to back-to-back Final Fours. Jenkins was inducted into the Florida Hall of Fame in 2017.

THE LONE SENIOR
Kaela Massey will be the only senior on the roster this season. This marks the second time in the last three years there has been one senior on the squad (2017-18). Last season, the Brentwood, Tenn. native finished with a .254 hitting percentage and 1.87 kills per set. She currently is 18 block assists away from moving into the top five in program history.

WE’RE COMING HOME
The Bucs are the only team in the SoCon to not have a home match yet this season. The Blue and Gold return home on Oct. 11 when they host Wofford. The only matches played at home this season are conference matches for ETSU.

RETURNING SOPHOMORE CLASS
In addition to the upperclassmen on the roster, ETSU returns Sara Esposito, Alyssa Hatley, Abbie Trantham and Mary Catherine Smith. The majority of them did not see much playing time in their freshman season.

INTERNATIONALLY REPRESENTED
The Bucs have two players represented internationally. Marija Popovic is from Belgrade, Serbia and Sara Esposito is from Venzia, Italy.

RAISING AWARENESS IN OCTOBER
ETSU will raise awareness for breast cancer on Oct. 25 against Furman. The first 100 fans in attendance will receive a pink shirt sponsored by Pepsi.

CRAZY CUNNINGHAM
Olivia “Betty” Cunningham has shined as a freshman with double-digit kills in 7 of the 8 matches she’s played in. The newcomer has 110 kills and set a team-high with 23 kills vs Georgia Southern, the most by a Buc this season.

FIVE SET FRENZY
The Bucs have played in four five-set matches this season, they are 2-2 in those games. The first was a loss to Coastal Carolina. The next tournament they beat Georgia State before losing to UAB. Most recently, they defeated Georgia Southern 3-2 on Sept. 21.

Jenkins recorded her first collegiate head coaching victory with a 3-1 win over Jacksonville State University on Aug. 30, 2019. She is the second coach

During her time at USF, Jenkins made an immediate impact coaching the middle blockers and outside hitters. Jenkins saw outside hitter Jac' cara Walker and middle blocker Clara Payne receive All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2018. Walker totaled 375 kills, which ranked third among AAC outside hitters, and also recorded 14 double-doubles. Payne, who finished her career fifth all-time in USF history in block assists (360) and eighth in hitting percentage (.282), posted 280 kills, 115 blocks and 29 service aces this past season.

As a team, USF won 20 matches in 2018, and made its first postseason appearance since 2002. The 20 wins were also the most by a Bulls team in over 15 years. The 2018 squad ranked third in the conference in blocks and fourth in hitting percentage, while Jaeden Brown finished the year ranked 32nd nationally in total blocks with 146.

In her first season at USF, the Bulls posted an eight-win improvement from the previous year as they totaled 19 victories. USF ranked in the top-5 among conference leaders in hitting percentage, with middle blocker Joli Holland (.337) and Payne (.321) both ranking in the top-10 in the statistical category. Over her career, Holland ranked fifth all-time in program history with a .302 attack percentage.

Prior to USF, Jenkins spent the 2015 season at Coastal Carolina where the Chanticleers went 29-5 overall, 14-0 in the Big South and went to the NCAA Tournament. Coastal Carolina won 18 straight matches during the year, while the Chanticleers boasted the ninth-best hitting percentage in the country. Jenkins made an impact on the Coastal Carolina hitters as Eszter Nagy ranked 12th nationally with a .417 hitting percentage and Annayka Legros finished 55th with a .364 clip. Both Nagy and Legros earned all-Big South honors, while Jenkins also saw Leah Hardeman earn Big South Player of the Year and AVCA All-Region accolades.

Jenkins began her coaching career at Lincoln Park Academy from 2010-12, and was the founder of the A-Vaneb Volleyball Academy in Fort Pierce, Fla. Following her three-year stint as head coach at Lincoln Park Academy, Jenkins took over as an assistant coach at Santa Fe College. In 2014, their first year of competition, the Saints went 31-7 and won a share of the Mid-Florida Conference title.

Jenkins was an All-American middle blocker at Florida where she totaled over 1,000 kills and 600 blocks. The Fort Pierce, Fla. native became the first Gator to finish with 600 career blocks, and was a three-time AVCA All-American and four-time all-SEC performer. During her four years in Gainesville, Florida won four straight SEC championships and advanced to back-to-back Final 4 appearances, while reaching the championship game in Jenkins’ senior season. Jenkins was inducted into the Florida Hall of Fame in 2017.

Following an illustrious collegiate career, Jenkins played professionally from 2005-14. competed professionally for teams in Spain (2005-06, 08-10), Austria (06-07), Turkey (07-08), Switzerland (12-14) and Florida (12-14). Her accomplishments include winning the Austria Cup with Vienna (06-07), being a Swiss Cup finalist for Koniz (2007), and finishing in the top 10 in Spain for blocking and attacking (09-10).
ETSU volleyball head coach Benavia Jenkins announced the hiring of assistant coach/recruiting coordinator Giovanny Delevry to the Buccaneer staff.

Delevry has coached at all levels, including two Division I programs, one Division II program, and at the JUCO level.

Delevry joins the ETSU staff after serving a year as an assistant coach at Marshall University. During his stint at Marshall, Delevry helped Marshall defeat ACC opponent Georgia Tech at the Hampton Inn Bama Bash. As the middle blocker coach in charge of team blocking schemes, he played an active role in Lauren Mattmuller recording a career high in kills, blocks, digs, aces, and assists in her final season. He coordinated the logistics for Herd camps and clinics, and also has experience using VolleyMetrics and opponent scouting.

Prior to Marshall, Delevry spent a year at Winthrop University, where he served as the passing and defensive coach. He was in charge of developing and coordinating block and floor defense, solidifying serve receive and getting passers passing to their strength. He was also in charge of clinics and opponent scouting. Delevry helped Winthrop to a Big South Conference All-Tournament appearance and three Big South All-Conference Regular Season Honors.

Before joining Winthrop, Delevry spent three years as an assistant coach of Florida Institute of Technology. He coached the setters, middle blockers, and pin hitters. Delevry was the recruiting coordinator and camp coordinator. Under his guidance, Florida Tech had an All-SSC Honorable Mention Senior middle blocker and a Freshman middle blocker that were named to the All-Newcomer Team. Florida Tech defeated #17 ranked Florida Southern in 2015.

Delevry began his volleyball coaching career in 2010 at Indian River State College, working with all athletes to develop skills, as well as strength and conditioning. He started the programs first social media accounts and handled the recruiting efforts. He led his team to 24 All-Conference selections, three All-State selections, and one All-American, which was the first in 13 years. Indian River State also had two state appearances in four years and a 21-win season in their first year, sending five players to play at the Division I level.

Delevry has been a head coach for 11 years between Club and High Performance. Prior to coaching in the NCAA, Delevry worked privately with several Division I players, one of which led the nation in blocking during her time at the University of Louisville, three professional players, and one national team player.

Delevry graduated in May 2015 from Warner University with a degree in Business Administration.

Pile comes to the Bucs after six years of coaching experience at the Division III level. He served as the assistant coach at Muhlenberg College from 2013-14 and the head coach at Dickenson College from 2015-18. Pile became the first full-time head coach in Dickenson’s program history in 2016.

At Dickenson, Pile helped his athletes make their way into the record books with two players setting a single-season and career records in digs. Throughout his tenure, the Red Devils were represented in the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll and recognized by the American Volleyball Coaches Association as All-Academic Team.

At Muhlenberg, he helped the Mules to an overall record of 45-20 and 16-4 in the Centennial Conference during his two seasons. Pile helped guide six All-Conference selections and the 2013 conference 2013 Rookie of the Year.

Pile graduated from Limestone (S.C.) College in 2013 where he played four seasons as a setter and right-side hitter for the Saints men’s volleyball team. He currently is second in their program history with 2543 career assists and 521 career digs.

Pile served as team captain for the Saints all four years and helped them reach their first-ever conference championship match during his senior season (2013).

In addition to coaching, Pile will be pursuing a master’s degree in Sports Management at ETSU.
