Around The GNAC

BREEN BREAKS GNAC FREE THROW RECORD: With her third free throw make at the 1:11 mark of the third quarter against Alaska on Saturday, Montana State Billings senior forward Alisha Breen became the GNAC's all-time leader with 474 made free throws. She surpassed the previous record of 472, held by Erin Chambers of Simon Fraser.

Breen has made a living at the charity stripe this year. Not only does she shoot well from the line, but she gets there often. The senior leads the GNAC in both free throw attempts and makes this year. Through 24 regular-season games, she has attempted 153 free throws and knocked down 131 for a .856 percentage.

SEAWOLVES, NIGHTHAWKS FIRST TO JOIN THE PARTY: One-third of the 2017-18 GNAC Women's Basketball Championships' field has been set. With a 73-63 win over Montana State Billings on Thursday, No. 6 Alaska Anchorage clinched a GNAC postseason berth at 13-1. The Seawolves are quite familiar with action beyond the regular season, as they have qualified for every GNAC tournament since 2010-11.

With a 74-71 win over Central Washington Tuesday night, Northwest Nazarene not only snapped the Wildcats' six-game win streak, but booked its third-straight trip to the GNAC postseason. At 13-2, Northwest Nazarene is the hottest team in the conference right now, winning its last eight games. The Nighthawks' streak began with a 66-52 win over MSUB on Jan. 11, who they will play on Saturday.

LAST SPOT UP FOR GRABS: Conference play is heating up as we edge closer to the GNAC Championships. Entering last week, Concordia was one win above Simon Fraser for the sixth seed. Now, a Cavs' and Clan weekend split paired with a Western Washington sweep sees the Vikings and Cavaliers in a two-way tie for sixth place at 6-8.

Don't count out Western Oregon, as it sits in ninth place at 4-10. Western Washington enters the week winning its last three contests while Concordia has won just one game in its last seven following its 5-1 start to GNAC play. Simon Fraser has also been in the mix all season and will next face a Seattle Pacific team coming off of two-straight losses.

Concordia, Simon Fraser and Western Washington all have six games remaining. The Cavaliers, who have been tougher to play at home, play three-straight home games before ending the season on a three-game road trip. Simon Fraser finishes its road slate this week before ending the regular season with four-straight games at home. The Vikings have a key matchup upcoming, visiting Simon Fraser on Feb. 20.
