GNAC RED LION PLAYER OF THE WEEK: David Arnold, MSU Billings (G, 6-2, 195, Sr., Highlands Ranch, CO) scored 46 points, including 35 in a 83-78 win over Central Washington Saturday. Arnold made seven of 11 three-pointers and all eight of his free throw attempts against the Wildcats. Including Thursday's 87-63 win over Northwest Nazarene, Arnold made 10 of 17 three-point shots. He also had seven rebounds and six assists in the two victories as the Yellowjackets moved into fifth place in the GNAC standings.

HONORABLE MENTION: David Downs, Seattle Pacific; John Allen, Western Washington; Teancum Stafford, Alaska Anchorage.

STREAKS AND MARGINS: Western Washington, which has won 30 straight games, hasn't been seriously challenged much of late. Since edging Central Washington 86-85 Jan. 10 at Bellingham, the Vikings have won 10 of their last 11 games by double-digit margins. The lone exception was a 83-76 overtime home victory against Seattle Pacific Feb. 2. That win kept alive the Vikings' home win streak, which is now 23, two shy of the GNAC record.

BEST IN THE GNAC: Western Washington needs just one victory in their final three conference games to match the GNAC single-season record for most conference victories of 16. WWU takes a perfect 15-0 conference record into its road trip this weekend to Alaska. The trip begins Thursday night in Fairbanks then continues Saturday in Anchorage. The Vikings then conclude their regular-season Saturday, Mar. 2 hosting Simon Fraser in a nationally televised game. Three GNAC teams have previously posted 16-2 records in GNAC play – Alaska Anchorage (2007-08), Central Washington (2010-11) and Western Washington (2011-12).

MILESTONES: David Downs of Seattle Pacific has 999 career points and is on the verge of become the 54th player in GNAC history to score 1,000 points. Chris Mitchell of Western Washington needs one rebound to become the 32nd player in GNAC history to haul in 500 career rebounds.

TEAM NOTES

Alaska Anchorage: Teancum Stafford scored 18 points and Kyle Fossman and Abebe Demissie had 16 each as the Seawolves edged Alaska Fairbanks 71-69. Stafford made seven of nine free throws, including three with 48 seconds left to give UAA a 70-69 lead.

Alaska Fairbanks: Ronnie Baker led the Nanooks with 20 points in their narrow loss at Anchorage. Sergej Pucar had 12 points and Zach Ngawaka had 11 points in the contest.

Central Washington: Jordan Coby scored 38 points to lead the Wildcats in their road contests at Seattle Pacific and Montana State Billings. Coby, who also had 11 rebounds, made 14 of 27 field goal attempts, including eight of 16 three-pointers. Mark McLaughlin, who leads the GNAC in scoring averaging 22.5, had just 24 points in the two contests, including four against MSUB where he sat out the second half due to a coaches' decision.

Montana State Billings: In addition to Arnold (See Player of the Week notes), the Yellowjackets were also led by Jarrell Crayton with 34 points in its two home victories last week. Crayton made 12 of 21 shots. Sam Johnson had 29 points and a team-high 13 rebounds. MSUB shot 85.0 percent from the free throw line (51-60) in the two contests. Kalob Hatcher had 11 of MSUB's 30 assists.

Northwest Nazarene: Kevin Rima paced the Crusaders with 31 points and 13 rebounds in losses at MSU Billings and Seattle Pacific. Kenny Jones added 23 points and tied Matyas Hering for most assists with seven.

Saint Martin's: Roger O'Neill led a balanced attack with 26 points as the Saints split two games with Western Washington and Simon Fraser. Five players averaged in double figures including O'Neill (13.0), Will Bond (12.5), Eric Taylor (11.0), Rei Jensen (11.0) and Lucas Shannon (10.0). Jensen had 18 rebounds and Shannon had 10.

Seattle Pacific: David Downs scored 38 points on 11 of 19 shooting, including five of 10 from the arc as the Falcons outscored Central Washington 113-75 and Northwest Nazarene 63-52. Thursday's win against the Wildcats' was SPU's largest victory margin in 120 series meetings between the two schools. Andy Poling had 28 points in the two contests.

Simon Fraser: Anto Olah had 40 points in home losses to Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. Olah made 18 of 35 shots, 16 of 23 inside the three-point arc. He also led SFU in rebounds with 12. Ibrahim Appiah had 11 rebounds.

Western Oregon: Andy Avgi scored 34 points and Tyler Funk had 31 points and 10 assists as the Wolves split two games, defeating Simon Fraser by 35 (89-54) before losing at Western Washington by 27. Funk made nine of 15 three-point shots in the two games.

Western Washington: John Allen had 42 points in wins over Saint Martin's (76-60) and Western Oregon (105-78) increasing his career point total to 1,308 points. Allen made 17 of 32 shots, five of 10 from the arc. He also led WWU with 12 assists. WWU was also led by Paul Jones with 30 points and 18 rebounds. Chris Mitchell had 25 points and 16 rebounds. Austin Bragg had 22 points and 18 rebounds. Cameron Severson netted 24 points in the two wins.

PERFECT STARTS: Western Washington is just the second team in GNAC history to complete the first half of its conference season unbeaten. Alaska Anchorage accomplished that feat in the 2007-08 season. Only two teams have gone 9-0 in the second half – the 2001-02 Western Washington team which didn't qualify for the playoffs and the 2007-08 Central Washington squad. WWU's women also finished the first half 9-0, the first time men's and women's teams at the same school had been unbeaten at the midway point of their conference schedules.

GNAC FINISHES AT .726: GNAC teams completed the non-conference portion of their schedules with a .726 winning percentage (61-23), the second best mark in the 12-year history of the conference. Conference teams were 36-20 in Division II contests, including 25-14 in regional counters (16-12 against the PacWest, 2-1 against CCAA teams and 7-1 in games against schools that count as regional counters due to the NCAA "contiguous" state rule). Nine of the 10 conference teams posted winning records in the non-conference portion of their schedules. The 10th school – Saint Martin's – finished with a .500 non-conference record.

GNAC (2) vs. CCAA (1): UAF 1-0, SPU 1-1. CCAA (1) vs. GNAC (2): San Francisco State 1-0, Chico State 0-1, CSU Monterey Bay 0-1.

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Week of Nov. 5-11: David Downs, Seattle Pacific (G, 6-2, Jr., Kirkland, WA – Bellevue Christian) was named the Most Valuable Player leading the Falcons to the team title in Sodexo Tip Off Classic at Brougham Pavilion. Downs scored 31 points and also had a team-high nine assists as SPU debuted with 20- and 19-point victories. Downs made eight of 14 shots, including four of eight treys. He also led SPU with three steals and had just two turnovers.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Pat Voeut, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-11, Jr., Bellingham, WA – Whatcom CC) scored 46 points and also had 19 assists, nine rebounds and five steals leading the Nanooks to the team title in the GCI Alaska Invitational at Fairbanks. Voeut, who was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player, made 17 of 26 shots, including three of six three-pointers.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Andy Avgi, Western Oregon (F, 6-5, Fr., Woodburn, OR) scored 52 points and also had 15 rebounds in earning MVP honors in the Capital City Classic. Avgi, who leads the GNAC in field goal percentage shooting 71.0 percent (44 of 62), made 20 of 25 shots (including 10 of 11 against Corban), including his only three-pointer. He also blocked two shots and had three steals.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Devon Alexander, Western Oregon (G, 6-1, Fr., Fontana, CA) came off the bench to score 48 points, including 28 in a 118-113 triple overtime win over Central Washington Saturday as the Wolves extended their win streak to six games with a pair of home victories. Alexander scored nine of WOU's 13 points in the decisive third overtime period. He also had 13 steals, including a GNAC-record tying eight (for conference contests) in a 92-84 win against Northwest Nazarene Thursday. In the two contests, Alexander made 16 of 29 shots, including four of six three-pointers. He also converted on 12 of 13 foul shots, grabbed eight rebounds and had four assists.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Kenny Jones, Northwest Nazarene (G, 6-2, Sr., Los Angeles, CA) scored 43 points in wins over College of Idaho and New Hope Christian. Jones had 27 against the Coyotes, making nine of 16 shots as NNU extended its win streak over its county rivals to seven. He then netted 16 points and had four steals in a 20-point win over New Hope Christian.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Jarrell Crayton, MSU Billings (F, 6-7, Sr., Bellevue, NE – Boise State) had 14 points and 14 rebounds accounting for 23.0 and 36.8 percent of team totals in a 71-61 loss at Grand Canyon. Crayton made seven of 13 shots and also had a pair of steals. Crayton's rebound total was the most for a MSUB player since Robert Mayes grabbed 15 against SPU on Feb. 18.

Week of Dec. 17-23: John Allen, Western Washington (G, 190, Sr., Brier, WA – Mountlake Terrace) scored 47 points leading the Vikings to wins over 14th ranked Drury (72-69) and Central Oklahoma (103-74) in the South Point Holiday Hoop Classic in Las Vegas. Allen, who was named the tournament's MVP, made 14 of 28 shots, including nine of 17 three-point shots. He also had six assists and three steals. The two wins extended WWU's win streak to 15, matching the second longest in school and GNAC history.

Week of Dec. 24-30: Paul Jones, Western Washington (F, 6-4, Sr., Kent, WA – Whatcom CC) scored 26 points and also had six rebounds and a pair of blocks to lead Western Washington to a 98-62 win over Thompson Rivers Sunday as the Vikings extended their win streak to 16.

That is the second longest win streak in GNAC history and is also the second longest in WWU school history. The Vikings have also won 15 straight home games, which equals the sixth longest streak in conference history.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: Pat Voeut, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-11, 170, Jr., Bellingham, WA – Whatcom CC) and Roger O'Neill, Saint Martin's (F, 6-5, Sr., Edmonds, WA - Meadowdale) ... Voeut scored 31 points in a pair of road wins as the Nanooks snapped a 17-game losing streak on opponents' home courts with victories at Central Washington (82-75) and Northwest Nazarene (74-55). Voeut converted on 12 of 20 shots and also led his team in assists (8) and steals (6). O'Neill tied his career high with 24 points in a 71-59 home win against Western Oregon Saturday. He scored SMU's first nine points of the game and finished the first half with 16 points as the Saints built a 39-23 lead at the break.

Week of Jan. 7-13: Dominique Brinson, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 6-2, 180, Sr., Juneau, AK – College of the Redwoods) scored 44 points, including 28 in a 89-56 win over Western Oregon, as the Nanooks ran their win streak to six games with a pair of home victories. Brinson blistered the nets for a 61.5 percentage (16 of 26) converting on nine of 17 treys. He made six of eight from the arc against the Wolves while also adding seven rebounds and six assists in Saturday's victory.

Week of Jan. 14-20: John Allen, Western Washington (G, 6-1, 190, Sr., Brier, WA – Mountlake Terrace) scored 46 points including 38 in the Vikings' 91-81 road win at Western Oregon Thursday. His 38 points against the Wolves was most by a GNAC player in nearly two years. In the two games he made 17 of 29 field goals attempts, including 6 of 10 three-pointers. He also had 10 assists, eight rebounds and three steals.

Week of Jan. 21-27: Jobi Wall, Seattle Pacific (W, 6-6, 215, Jr., Arvada, CO) scored 43 points, acquiring all but four from the arc where he made 13 of 19 (68.4 percent). Wall had a career-high 28 points in Thursday's 78-72 overtime win over Western Oregon, connecting on eight of 10 treys, one shy of the school-record. He made five of nine three-pointers and had 15 points in Saturday's 82-54 rout of Saint Martin's.

Week of Jan. 28-Feb. 3: Kyle Fossman, Alaska Anchorage (G, 6-0, 180, Jr., Haines, AK) and Austin Bragg, Western Washington (F, 6-8, Jr., Longview, WA – Mark Morris) ... Fossman scored 41 points, leading the Seawolves to wins over Central Washington (98-69) and Northwest Nazarene (73-72). He made 14 of 28 shots, including seven of 13 three-pointers extending his string of games with a three-pointer to 27. He also had 12 rebounds, posting a career-high nine against the Wildcats, and a team-best four steals. Fossman currently ranks 37th in GNAC history in three-pointers made (134) and sixth in three-point percentage (46.0) ... Bragg, who leads the GNAC in double-doubles with five, scored 20 points and had 11 rebounds in Saturday's overtime win over Seattle Pacific. On Thursday, he blocked four shots to key WWU's
