WESTERN OREGON MOVES INTO NO. 1 POLL

POSITION: For the first time in conference history, a Great Northwest Athletic Conference team sits at the top of both the Division II men's and women's basketball polls in the same week.

The Western Oregon men, meanwhile, rose to the No. 1 poll position for the first time in school history and took the top spot in both Division II polls. The Wolves are No. 1 in this week's National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division II Men's Basketball Rankings, earning 11 of 16 first place votes and 394 total points. Western Oregon also assumed the No. 1 spot in the D2SIDA Division II Media Poll, earning nine of 14 first place votes and 335 total points.

The Wolves took over the No. 1 spot in both polls from Augustana (S.D.), who saw a 17-game win streak snapped on Friday by Northern State.

Alaska Anchorage's women returned to the top spot for the second time in three weeks, ascending to No. 1 in the latest USA Today/Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division II Women's Basketball Coaches Poll. The Seawolves picked up nine of a possible 22 first place votes and 580 total points, one point more than No. 2 Lubbock Christian.

Western Oregon, the defending GNAC regular season champion, is riding an 11-game win streak. The Wolves picked up two road wins last week in the Puget Sound region, scoring a 74-62 win over Saint Martin's on Thursday before edging out Seattle Pacific in overtime on Saturday, 84-82. Western Oregon enters the week with a 20-2 overall record and 13-1 conference mark. They are ranked second in Division II in turnovers per game (9.4), third in turnover margin (5.4), fifth in fewest turnovers (206), ninth in assist/turnover ratio (1.52) and 19th in steals per game (9.0).

AN EPIC BATTLE: While many expected Thursday's game between Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington to be a hard-fought contest, no one expected it to become an epic battle that lasted two overtimes.

Down by as much as 17 points with 9:28 left in regulation, Western Washington charged back to come within three points in the final five seconds. An Alaska Anchorage foul resulted in three made free throws by Kyle Impero to tie it at 83-83 and force overtime.

Alaska Anchorage again held the lead for much of the first overtime period, but again Western Washington tied the game on Jeffrey Parker's three-pointer with six seconds left, forcing the second overtime period. The Vikings took a 101-99 lead with 2:59 left in the second extra period, but the Seawolves went on a 9-4 run over the final four minutes to secure the 108-105 victory.

The game yielded three 30-plus point scorers. Western Washington's Impero led all scorers with 37 points, connecting on 12 of 21 from the field and 10 of 12 from the free throw line to go along with six rebounds and five assists. Alaska Anchorage's Sekou Wiggs scored 33 points, which included 15 of 20 from the free throw line, to go along with 10 rebounds, four assists, three steals and two assists. Brian McGill contributed 31 points and made an impressive 15 of 15 from the free throw line. On the night, UAA shot 39 of 45 from the charity stripe (86.7 percent).

The double overtime battle was the 19th in GNAC history and the first since Western Oregon beat Seattle Pacific, 94-84, on Jan. 31, 2015.

Around The GNAC

OVERTIME NO. 2: Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington were not the only teams to engage in an overtime battle on Thursday. Montana State Billings overcame a 49-32 halftime deficit to force overtime, outscoring Central Washington 42-25 in the second half. The Wildcats held the lead until a Marc Matthews lay-up with 1:07 left knotted the game at 74-74. Neither team would score again before time expired.

Central Washington kept easy control in the extra period, outscoring the Yellowjackets 14-5 to secure the 88-79 victory. The Wildcats' defense played a lockdown overtime, limiting the Yellowjackets to 1 of 4 from the field and three free throws.

Gary Jacobs led the way for Central Washington with 20 points and 14 rebounds, which included a perfect 9 of 9 from the free throw line. Preston Beverly led Montana State Billings with 21 points, connecting on 7 of 13 from the field to go along with nine rebounds.

OVERTIME NO. 3: The GNAC's third overtime game of the week came on Saturday with the conference's top team battling at a team that was looking to stake their claim to second place in the standings.

Like the Central Washington/Montana State Billings game on Thursday, the battle between Western Oregon and Seattle Pacific was a tale of two halves. The Falcons fed off the home crowd to take a 49-35 halftime lead, shooting 63 percent from the field (17-27) and 70 percent from three-point range (7-10) in the opening 20 minutes.

The momentum swung the Wolves way in the second half, with the visitors outscoring the home team 41-27. Western Oregon shot 51.7 percent from the field as Andy Avgi's three-pointer with 43 seconds left tied things up at 76-76 to force overtime.

Things stayed close in the overtime period, but Jordan Wiley's three-pointer with 3:33 left gave WOU the lead for good as the Wolves edged out the 84-82 victory. Avgi led all scorers with 29 points, connecting on 10 of 15 from the field and 5 of 7 from three-point range. Mitch Penner led Seattle Pacific with 23 points and eight rebounds. Most of his points came from the free throw line, hitting 13 of 15.

NANOOK, NANOOK: With Seattle Pacific taking their Saturday loss to Western Oregon, Alaska's road sweep allowed the Nanooks to keep pace with the Falcons for third place in the GNAC standings.

Alaska succeeded in holding off Simon Fraser in a game that was closer than they would have liked, pulling away late for the 78-68 victory. The Nanooks led by just a 36-33 margin at the half, but used a late run to take a 17-point lead with 2:42 left in the game. Almir Hadziseovic led Alaska with 24 points, hitting 9 of 12 from the field and 6 of 9 from three-point range. The Nanooks finished the night shooting 50.8 percent from the field (30-59).

Alaska made a solid first half performance hold up at Western Washington on Saturday as they beat the Vikings 78-64. The Nanooks had another strong shooting night, connecting on 55.4 percent from the field (31-56). Travante Williams had the hot hand for the Nanooks with 29 points, connecting on 10 of 16 from the field, to go along with eight rebounds, four assists and three steals.
