Around The GNAC

HUNGRY LIKE THE WOLF: Western Oregon won both of its games last week to maintain their No. 1 ranking in both the NABC and D2SIDA Division II national polls, but it was not as easy as they would have liked it to be.

The Wolves received quite the scare in their first game as the top team of the land as Western Washington shot 60 percent in the first half to take a 44-34 lead on Thursday at the New P.E. Building. Western Oregon made a spirited comeback in the second half, shooting 56.7 percent from the field and outscoring the Vikings 56-41 to take the 90-85 come-from-behind victory. Andy Avgi led the comeback with a monster double-double of 34 points and 14 rebounds.

Western Oregon pulled away late in the first half of their game with Simon Fraser, building up to a 16-point halftime lead in Saturday's game, 46-30. The Clan did not back down, though, coming back to within five points with 2:41 left before the Wolves cruised to the 76-67 victory. While Simon Fraser succeeded in shutting Avgi down (eight points), Tanner Omlid stepped up to lead four WOU players in double figures with 17 points and nine rebounds.

Already assured of a spot in the GNAC Men's Basketball Championships, a combination of two wins and an Alaska Anchorage loss will assure the Wolves the No. 1 seed for the second straight season. The Wolves enter the week leading the GNAC in scoring margin (+10.8), steals (8.75 per game), turnover margin (+5.25) and assist/turnover ratio (1.58) and are second in scoring defense (68.6 points allowed per game). Among Division II teams, the Wolves are second in turnover margin (5.3) and turnovers per game (9.0), third in fewest turnovers (216), seventh in assist/turnover ratio, 23rd in steals per game and 26th in scoring margin.

Individually, Avgi enters the week ranked second in the GNAC in scoring, averaging 22 points per game. Julian Nichols leads the league in assist/turnover ratio and is ranked seventh in Division II in assists per game (5.00) and Omlid is second in the GNAC and 16th in Division II in steals per game (2.18).

A BETTER EXCHANGE RATE: Simon Fraser's Oregon road trip last week yielded the long awaited first GNAC victory for first year head coach Virgil Hill.

After a number of near misses throughout the conference season, the Clan hit their stride in a big way with a 90-70 victory at Concordia on Thursday. Simon Fraser shot 49.3 percent from the field for the game and went 9 for 15 from three-point range. Oshea Gairey came off the bench to lead the Clan with 22 points on 8 of 15 from the field to go along with six assists. He led three SFU players to score in double figures, including three with 15 or more points.

Simon Fraser also performed well on Saturday night at No. 1 Western Oregon, coming back from a 16-point first half deficit to come back within five with 2:41 left before WOU claimed the 76-67 victory. Michael Harper led the way with 18 points, making 7 of 14 from the field and 10 rebounds.

The win over Concordia snapped a 17-game losing streak that dated back to a 92-89 win over Colorado Christian on Nov. 21. The skid was unofficially snapped with a 79-72 exhibition win over Univ. of Victoria on Dec. 29, a game which was played under Canadian Interuniversity Sport rules.

THAT ONE STINGS: Montana State Billings was a less than hospitable host to Alaska Anchorage on Tuesday, putting on a first half clinic en route to a big 90-71 win over the Seawolves.

The Yellowjackets blistered the nets to shoot 63.3 percent from the field (19-30) in the opening 20 minutes and 68.8 percent from three-point range (11-16). The MSUB defense was just as effective as UAA shot just 31 percent from the field and 3 of 10 from three-point range in the stanza. Preston Beverly lead the Yellowjackets with a double-double of 25 points and 13 rebounds while making 5 of 8 from three-point range. he led five MSUB players to finish in double figures.

Despite taking a 66-61 loss to Alaska on Saturday, the Yellowjackets find themselves mathematically in the hunt for the sixth and final GNAC Championships spot. They are tied with Saint Martin's for seventh at 6-10.

Around The GNAC

KEEPING PACE: Despite each taking a loss last week, Alaska Anchorage and Seattle Pacific did their part to keep pace in the GNAC standings and secure their spots in the GNAC Championships.

After their loss at Montana State Billings, Alaska Anchorage returned home to score a 76-71 victory on Thursday against in-state rival Alaska. Neither team led by more than nine points and the Seawolves excelled at the free throw line, shooting 23 of 27. Brian McGill led UAA with 28 points on 8 of 16 from the field and 9 of 10 from the free throw line. The win allowed UAA to improve to 12-4, second place in the GNAC.

Seattle Pacific opened the week with a solid 81-71 win at Northwest Nazarene on Thursday. The Falcons finished the night shooting 50 percent from the field (31-62) and 52.6 percent from three-point range (10-19), led by 27 points and seven rebounds from Mitch Penner. Seattle Pacific engaged Central Washington in a close battle on Saturday, but the Wildcats made 7 of 8 free throws in the final minute to take the 71-68 victory. Penner again led the Falcons with 21 points.

With the split, Seattle Pacific enters the week tied with Alaska for third place in the GNAC at 11-5.

ALSO KEEPING PACE: A loss to in-state rival Alaska Anchorage did little to dampen Alaska's spirits. The Nanooks came back from their loss to the Seawolves on Thursday with a 66-61 win at Montana State Billings. Travante Williams led the Nanooks in both games, earning his second GNAC Men's Basketball Player of the Week award of the season. He scored 22 points and grabbed seven rebounds in Thursday's loss at Alaska Anchorage and then scored 26 on 9 of 18 from the field in the win at Billings. The split allowed the Nanooks to maintain a third place tie with Seattle Pacific at 11-5.

TOURNAMENT FIELD SHAPING UP: Western Oregon (15-1), Alaska Anchorage (12-4), Seattle Pacific (11-5) and Alaska (11-5) have all clinched berths into the GNAC Men's Basketball Championships, which take place Mar. 3-5 in Lacey, Wash.
