Hickerson finds the range

Sophomore Marquel Hickerson led the Bulldogs in scoring last season, netting 12.4 points per game with 13 double-figure scoring outings and eight contests with 19 or more points. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native did not practice much during the preseason because of a lingering knee injury and missed the first three games of the season with the ailment. He was averaging just 4.6 points while shooting 23 percent from the field before Thursday's game against St. Catharine College, but busted out of the scoring slump with 22 points on 6-of-13 shooting with a pair of 3-pointers. He also made 8-of-10 shots at the foul line, handed out two assists and snatched four steals in the victory. His best previous performance this season came November 24 against Martin Methodist when he posted eight points and five rebounds in 22 minutes. He is averaging 7.5 points and 2.2 assists per game this season.

Josh Wilkerson hitting three-balls

Senior Josh Wilkerson is shooting 38 percent from behind the arc through 10 games this season and is the only Bulldog player with more than 10 3-pointers made this year. The Memphis, Tenn., native hit just 19 trifectas as a junior but has already connected on 14-of-37 attempts in 2014-15. He currently leads the Bulldogs with 12.9 points per game, scoring in double figures in eight of the 10 contests with nine points in another game. Wilkerson made three 3-pointers in the season opener against Indiana-Southeast and had three in consecutive games at Shawnee State and versus Martin Methodist. He netted 19 points against Freed-Hardeman, posted 20 at Shawnee State and added 18 versus Martin Methodist, all in an eight-day stretch.

Frazier making most of final season

Senior DeMario Frazier ranks second on the team with 10.8 points and leads the Bulldogs with 7.4 rebounds per game this season. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native netted double figures in five of the team's first seven contests, shooting 75 percent (39-of-52) from the field during those outings. He collected 12 points and 12 rebounds in the season opener against Indiana-Southeast and registered 12 at Fisk University before recording 15 points with 11 boards at Oakwood University. Frazier netted a career-high 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting versus Life University and was 8-for-11 from the field for 18 points at Georgetown College. He also hit a desperation 3-pointer just before the buzzer.

CU welcomes No. 19 Tigers

Cumberland takes on 19th-ranked Campbellsville University at home this Saturday. The Tigers lead the series 10-7 since 1998-99 and are 5-2 in Lebanon during that span. Campbellsville has won three straight and five of the last six meetings in the series, including two victories last season. Eric Gaines hit a layup with four seconds left to give the Tigers a 69-68 win in Lebanon last season after Lamar Brinkley made two free throws with 18.9 seconds remaining to give the Bulldogs the lead. Gaines also made a runner off the glass from just inside the 3-point line to give the Tigers a 42-39 lead at the half.

Telvin Wilkerson is up-and-down

Junior Telvin Wilkerson has scored in double figures three times this season and has eight or more points in six of the team's 10 outings, but the Memphis, Tenn., native has struggled with his midrange jumpers thus far. He is shooting just 35 percent from the field despite taking a large amount of good shots, driving to the basket but fading away on the 15-to-18 footers. Wilkerson played more consistently over three outings from November 20-24, hitting 15-of-35 shots (.429) while averaging 12.7 points per game. He netted 10 points with a pair of 3-pointers at Georgetown College and collected nine points at Shawnee State. Wilkerson posted a season-best 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting with two more trifectas versus Martin Methodist. For the season he is averaging 7.9 points and 3.3 rebounds per contest.

Owens shows flashes

Junior guard Tylor Owens has shown flashes of his play-making ability, handing out four assists at Oakwood University and three apiece versus Life University and at Georgetown College. The Carbon Hill, Ala., native also scored 11 points at home against Oakwood and 12 versus Freed-Hardeman, hitting three 3-pointers against FHU. Owens' biggest problem has been a propensity for turnovers this season. He has 21 turnovers in nine games, including eight against Life and three each at Fisk University and Shawnee State and against Freed-Hardeman. Owens missed Thursday's game against St. Catharine College with concussion symptoms. He is averaging 4.2 points and 1.7 assists per game this season.

Cumberland ranks 64th out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through 10 games this season, with CU committing 18.3 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 177 points in nine outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 19.7 per contest. Life University scored 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers and four other teams netted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's M-O this season has been a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent takes advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses have followed that pattern and the Bulldogs led by four at the break before being outscored, 46-22, in the second half at Georgetown College. Cumberland has done a much better job with turnovers in the last three outings, committing 12 in a victory at Shawnee State, 14 in a two-point loss to Martin Methodist and 15 in Thursday's win over St. Catharine College.

CU missing Gaston's versatility

Senior Jerrod Gaston played all three guard spots in the first six games of the season, starting three contests and scoring 10.0 points per game. The Murphysboro, Ill., native netted double figures in the first three contests of the year, scoring 15 points against Indiana-Southeast, 16 at Fisk University and 13 at Oakwood University. He added eight points at home versus Oakwood and recorded 10 points against Freed-Hardeman. Gaston also grabbed six rebounds at Fisk and at Georgetown College but has missed the last three games with ankle and thigh injuries suffered in the second half at Georgetown. His injury has changed the guard rotation for the club and put more of the scoring burden on Josh and Telvin Wilkerson as well as Marquel Hickerson.

Bulldogs looking for consistent post play

Head coach Lonnie Thompson has few options on the frontline this season and needs consistent play from sophomore Uros Benacek and senior Moritz Dern for the club to be successful. Benacek started quickly, netting 11 points in the season-opener versus Indiana-Southeast and posting 14 points and 10 rebounds at Fisk University, but has averaged just 4.6 points in the last eight outings. The Maribor, Slovenia, native is shooting 61 percent from the field and 58 percent from 3-point range but has had few chances to score of late. Dern's play was almost nonexistent in the early going this season but has improved of late, with the Marburg, Germany, native posting eight points and four rebounds at Shawnee State. He has netted 23 points on 10-of-15 shooting with 16 rebounds over the last four games. Benacek and Dern are combining for 9.7 points and 6.4 rebounds in 32.9 minutes per outing.

Flagler's play erratic to this point

Junior Alex Flagler has been erratic at best on the court to this point in the season, committing almost twice as many turnovers as assists

(14 assists, 25 turnovers) and missing a pair of games, one to suspension. The Atlanta, Ga., native scored 17 points with four assists but also five turnovers in the season opener versus Indiana-Southeast and posted nine points at Fisk University, but again with four turnovers. He has produced more turnovers than assists in six of his seven contests, but is the club's best ball handler. Flagler collected nine points with three steals at Shawnee State and had seven points and five rebounds but also five turnovers against Martin Methodist. For the season he is averaging 7.1 points and 2.0 assists per game.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
