Benacek enjoys career day at Campbellsville

Sophomore Uros Benacek posted consecutive double-digit scoring efforts for the first time this season in two games last week. The Maribor, Slovenia, native hit 3-of-4 field goals and all five attempts at the foul line, netting 11 points at St. Catharine College. He followed that with his best effort of the season last Saturday at Campbellsville University, connecting on 6-of-10 shots with a pair of 3-pointers for a season-best 15 points. Benacek scored eight straight points during a 19-8 run to end the first half against the Tigers. He is averaging 5.2 points and 2.0 rebounds this season while shooting 47 percent (15-for-32) from behind the arc.

T. Wilkerson looks like the player CU hoped for Junior Telvin Wilkerson posted one of his best games of the season in last Thursday's victory at St. Catharine College, recording 18 points and tying a season-high with six rebounds. The Memphis, Tenn., native netted 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting in the first half, slashing to the basket for layups and runners and adding a 3-pointer within the framework of the offense. He added a couple of key buckets in the final six minutes of the game as well after the Patriots cut the deficit to one. It marked just the seventh double-figure scoring outing of the season for Wilkerson and his first back-to-back double-digit outings of the year after posting 10 points against the University of the Cumberlands. He added 11 points at Campbellsville University last Saturday, his best three-game stretch of the season. Wilkerson is averaging 7.3 points and 2.9 rebounds in 26.8 minutes per game this season and is now the club's third-leading scorer.

Hickerson plays one of most complete games of his career at SCC

Sophomore Marquel Hickerson, who has been plagued by injury, suspensions and inconsistency for most of this season, played perhaps the most complete game of his career in last Thursday's victory at St. Catharine College. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native posted his first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds and added five assists in almost 35 minutes of action. More importantly, he committed only two turnovers in just his seventh start of the year. He made 4-of-8 from the field, running the offense and not forcing shots, and connected on four free throws in the final 20.1 seconds to seal the win. He was also 6-for-6 at the foul line in the final two minutes to help the Bulldogs defeat Shawnee State on Thursday this week. Hickerson has missed seven contests this season due to various reasons and has been extremely inconsistent even when playing, scoring in double figures just three times and shooting only 33 percent from the field and 25 percent from 3-point range. This after a freshman campaign in which he averaged 13.5 points, shot 41 percent from behind the arc and scored in double-digits 10 times in the first 16 games of the year before a knee injury derailed the rest of the season. He hit just 28 percent from 3-point range in his last nine outings last year and that carried over to 2014-15. Hickerson is currently netting 7.1 points with 1.32 assists in 21.2 minutes per game.

Bulldogs post rare road conference victory

Cumberland picked up a rare road Mid-South Conference win last Thursday at St. Catharine College, 77-70. The Bulldogs are now 2-5 away from home in league games this season, including a victory at Shawnee State in November. Since rejoining the MSC in 2012-13, CU has registered a 6-20 mark overall (3-9 in 2013-14, 1-9 in 2012-13) on the road. Marquel Hickerson registered 13 points, 11 rebounds and five assists for his first double-double of the year and Telvin Wilkerson added 18 points in the win. Cumberland put together a 21-8 run in the first half to take the lead and never relinquished it, fending off the Patriots in the closing minutes.

J. Wilkerson team's most consistent scorer

Senior Josh Wilkerson has been the team's most consistent performer in 2014-15 and is the only Bulldog player averaging in double figures. The Memphis, Tenn., native has scored in double-digits in 17 of the club's 25 outings and netted nine points in four others. He is shooting 33 percent (28-for-85) from 3-point range this season with five contests with three trifectas, including versus Indiana-Southeast, Shawnee State, Martin Methodist, Dalton State College and Concordia College-Selma. Wilkerson posted 19 points versus Freed-Hardeman, 20 in the first meeting with Martin Methodist, 18 against St. Catharine College and 17 at Indiana-Southeast. He added 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting in the first meeting at the University of Pikeville and 14 points at home against the University of the Cumberlands. Wilkerson has struggled from behind the arc over the last 11 outings, hitting just 7-of-29 (.241), but has been driving to the basket more, averaging 10.0 points per game during that stretch. He ranks second on the club with 1.62 assists per game and has the second-most steals on the team this season with 23 while averaging 11.5 points per outing.

Frazier gets back into form

Senior DeMario Frazier started quickly this season, netting double figures in five of the first seven games and 7-of-12 contests through December 13, but the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native scored just 29 combined points in seven outings from December 17-January 17 before registering back-to-back double-digit contests. He posted 12 points against Indiana-Southeast and Fisk University to start the year and registered a season-high 22 points versus Life University as well as 18 points at Georgetown College. He averaged just 5.0 points over 12 outings from November 22 until mid-January with two double-figure contests (11 points versus St. Catharine College and Bethel University). Frazier hit 7-of-11 at the foul line and finished with 15 points at Lindsey Wilson before recording his second double-double of the year versus Fisk University with 17 points and 12 boards. He posted 13 points and nine rebounds, both team-highs, versus the University of Pikeville as well. He has struggled in the last three games, though, posting a combined nine points against St. Catharine College, Campbellsville University and Shawnee State. Frazier is averaging 8.2 points and 6.3 rebounds per game this season, leading the club in rebounding and ranking second in scoring.

Prather keeps knocking down 3-pointers

Redshirt junior Cameron Prather scored a career-high 16 points in a 79-67 victory over Fisk University on January 24. The Nashville, Tenn., native hit 4-of-7 attempts from the field with a pair of 3-pointers. He was also 6-of-6 at the foul line and grabbed a career-high six rebounds as well. His deep 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired with just under three minutes to play all but sealed the victory for the Bulldogs. It marked the third double-figure scoring game of the season for Prather, who netted 13 points versus Campbellsville University in December and 10 against Life University in November. He has also scored nine points twice this season. Prather has been especially hot from behind the arc over the last six games, making 8-of-14, including a 2-for-4 effort and 13 total points at St. Catharine College last Thursday. He is shooting 46 percent (18-for-39) from behind the arc this year, averaging 5.5 points in 13.2 minutes per outing.

Bulldogs take on Georgetown

Cumberland hosts Georgetown College for Senior Day on Saturday. The Bulldogs are just 2-10 against the Tigers since 1998-99 and have lost four of the five meetings since rejoining the Mid-South. In this season's earlier meeting, Georgetown outscored CU, 46-22, in the second half in a 74-54 victory. The Bulldogs led 32-28 at the break but Georgetown began the second half with a 16-4 spurt, as CU committed seven turnovers in the first six minutes of the period. The Tigers never looked back after that, stretching the lead to as many as 22 points en route to the win.

Lebanon and 59-52 in Pulaski – as well as a two-point loss at Bethel University on a last-second shot. CU lost 53-47 at Dalton State College and 51-48 to Concordia College-Selma (also in Dalton) just before Christmas and dropped a 67-59 decision at Freed-Hardeman on January 12. Cumberland trailed by a point in the second half at the University of the Cumberlands on Jan. 15 before a 9-0 spurt by the Patriots helped the home team pull away.

Poor starts also leading to losses

Five times in the last 12 games Cumberland has fallen behind by double figures in the first half thanks to poor shooting and sometimes bad decisions. The Bulldogs trailed 16-0 and 18-2 at Dalton State College, missing its first nine shots and committing seven turnovers. CU trailed by three at the half thanks to a pair of runs and got as close as one midway through the second period before losing by six. Cumberland trailed 9-0 against Concordia College-Selma, going 0-for-4 with three turnovers in the first four minutes of the contest, and 28 percent shooting put the club down 15 points late in the opening half. CCAL led by 15 again early in the second period before CU finished the game with a 21-4 spurt, falling by three. In a January 12 loss at Freed-Hardeman, the Bulldogs made just 2-of-14 shots from the field and committed six turnovers in the first 11 minutes of the contest, allowing the Lions to take a 17-point advantage. CU's 13-3 spurt cut into the deficit but the club still trailed by 12 at the break. Cumberland pulled within six with just over two minutes to play, but that was as close as they would get in an eight-point defeat. Fisk University used a 14-2 run to take a 12-point lead midway through the first half, with CU hitting 1-of-6 shots and committing three turnovers during the stretch. The Bulldogs answered with an 18-2 spurt to take victory, ending a four-game losing streak.

Early turnovers plagued Bulldogs

Cumberland ranks 62nd out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through 26 games this season, with CU committing 15.35 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 398 points in 25 outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 15.92 per contest. Life University netted 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers and five other teams posted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's early-season M-O was a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent took advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses in November followed that pattern. Over the last six weeks Cumberland has gotten off to several terrible starts shooting and with turnovers, falling into big holes before fighting back and then falling short at the end. The Bulldogs have averaged just 13.53 turnovers over the last 19 contests with just three outings over 15 miscues (21 at Indiana-Southeast on Jan. 3, 20 versus the University of Pikeville on Jan. 29, 17 at Pikeville on Jan. 17).

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
