Hickerson's three forces OT against Georgetown

Sophomore Marquel Hickerson, who has been plagued by injury, suspensions and inconsistency for most of this season, hit four 3-pointers, including a triple with 2.9 seconds remaining to force overtime, this past Saturday versus Georgetown College. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native added four rebounds and five assists in a career-high 41 minutes. He made 4-of-8 from behind the arc, including 3-for-4 in the first half. Hickerson played perhaps the most complete game of his career two weeks ago at St. Catharine College. The sophomore guard posted his first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds and added five assists in almost 35 minutes of action. More importantly, he committed only two turnovers in just his seventh start of the year. He made 4-of-8 from the field and connected on four free throws in the final 20.1 seconds to seal the win. He was also 6-for-6 at the foul line in the final two minutes to help the Bulldogs defeat Shawnee State last Thursday. Hickerson has averaged 11.0 points over the last four outings after scoring just 38 total points over an 11-game stretch from December 17-January 31. He has missed seven contests this season due to various reasons and has been extremely inconsistent even when playing, scoring in double figures just four times and shooting only 34 percent from the field and 28 percent from 3-point range. This after a freshman campaign in which he averaged 13.5 points, shot 41 percent from behind the arc and scored in double-digits 10 times in the first 16 games of the year before a knee injury derailed the rest of the season. Hickerson is currently netting 7.6 points with 1.50 assists in 22.2 minutes per game.

J. Wilkerson breaks out of shooting slump

Senior Josh Wilkerson has been the team's most consistent performer in 2014-15 and is the only Bulldog player averaging in double figures. The Memphis, Tenn., native has scored in double-digits in 18 of the club's 27 outings and netted nine points in four others. He is shooting 36 percent (32-for-89) from 3-point range this season with five contests with three trifectas, including versus Indiana-Southeast, Shawnee State, Martin Methodist, Dalton State College and Concordia College-Selma. Wilkerson struggled from behind the arc over an 11-game stretch from January 3-February 12, hitting just 7-of-29 (.241), but the senior guard hit all four attempts last Saturday against Georgetown

Benacek enjoys career day at Campbellsville
 Sophomore Uros Benacek posted consecutive double-digit scoring efforts for the first time this season in two games earlier this month. The Maribor, Slovenia, native hit 3-of-4 field goals and all five attempts at the foul line, netting 11 points at St. Catharine College. He followed that with his best effort of the season at Campbellsville University, connecting on 6-of-10 shots with a pair of 3-pointers for a season-best 15 points. Benacek scored eight straight points during a 19-8 run to end the first half against the Tigers. He added nine points and six rebounds in 27 minutes last Saturday versus Georgetown College as well. Benacek is averaging 5.3 points and 2.2 rebounds this season while shooting 46 percent (16-for-35) from behind the arc.

T. Wilkerson looks like player CU hoped for Junior Telvin Wilkerson posted one of his best games of the season two weeks ago at St. Catharine College, recording 18 points and tying a season-high with six rebounds. The Memphis, Tenn., native netted 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting in the first half, slashing to the basket for layups and runners and adding a 3-pointer within the framework of the offense. He added a couple of key buckets in the final six minutes of the game as well after the Patriots cut the deficit

Bulldogs post rare road conference victory
 Cumberland picked up a rare road Mid-South Conference win on February 5 at St. Catharine College, 77-70. The Bulldogs are now 2-5 away from home in league games this season, including a victory at Shawnee State in November. Since rejoining the MSC in 2012-13, CU has registered a 6-20 mark overall (3-9 in 2013-14, 1-9 in 2012-13) on the road. Marquel Hickerson registered 13 points, 11 rebounds and five assists for his first double-double of the year and Telvin Wilkerson added 18 points in the win. Cumberland put together a 21-8 run in the first half to take the lead and never relinquished it, fending off the Patriots in the closing minutes.

Frazier back on the down swing
 Senior DeMario Frazier started quickly this season, netting double figures in five of the first seven games and 7-of-12 contests through December 13, but the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native scored just 29 combined points in seven outings from December 17-January 17 before registering back-to-back double-digit contests. He posted 12 points against Indiana-Southeast and Fisk University to start the year and registered a season-high 22 points versus Life University as well as 18 points at Georgetown College. He averaged just 5.0 points over 12 outings from November 22 until mid-January with two double-figure contests (11 points versus St. Catharine College and Bethel University). Frazier hit 7-of-11 at the foul line and finished with 15 points at Lindsey Wilson before recording his second double-double of the year versus Fisk with 17 points and 12 boards. He posted 13 points and nine rebounds, both team-highs, versus the University of Pikeville as well. He has struggled in the last four games, though, posting a combined 16 points against St. Catharine College, Campbellsville University, Shawnee State and Georgetown. Frazier is averaging 8.1 points and 6.3 rebounds per game this season, leading the club in rebounding and ranking second in scoring.

Prather keeps knocking down 3-pointers

Redshirt junior Cameron Prather scored a career-high 16 points in a 79-67 victory over Fisk University on January 24. The Nashville, Tenn., native hit 4-of-7 attempts from the field with a pair of 3-pointers. He was also 6-of-6 at the foul line and grabbed a career-high six rebounds as well. His deep 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired with just under three minutes to play all but sealed the victory for the Bulldogs. It marked the third double-figure scoring game of the season for Prather, who netted 13 points versus Campbellsville University in December and 10 against Life University in November. He has also scored nine points twice this season. Prather has been especially hot from behind the arc over the last seven games, making 10-of-18, including a 2-for-4 effort and 13 total points at St. Catharine College. He is shooting 47 percent (20-for-43) from behind the arc this year, averaging 5.7 points in 13.1 minutes per outing.

Bulldogs head to Life University

Cumberland plays its final road Mid-South Conference game of the season on Friday at Life University in a game rescheduled because of weather. The Bulldogs and Running Eagles have met just one time previously, an 87-70 Life victory in November in Lebanon. Life broke open a close game with a 19-5 run in the second half. The Bulldogs overcame a 13-point first-half deficit to take the lead but trailed by seven at the break. CU was down just 54-48 after a DeMario Frazier layup with 13:42 remaining, but Life ran away from Cumberland over the next five-plus minutes, with consecutive 3-pointers from Jonathan Beausejour the real back-breakers. Caleb Hayes began the run with two field goals and Travien Geter finished the spurt with another trifecta for the Running Eagles. The Bulldogs were 2-for-7 from the field with five turnovers

Bulldogs fall short in close games

Cumberland has lost 13 of its last 18 contests this season, with seven of those defeats by eight points or less. The seven losses have come by a grand total of 32 points. Poor starts also leading to losses

Five times in the last 13 games Cumberland has fallen behind by double figures in the first half thanks to poor shooting and sometimes bad decisions. The Bulldogs trailed 16-0 and 18-2 at Dalton State College, missing its first nine shots and committing seven turnovers. CU trailed by three at the half thanks to a pair of runs and got as close as one midway through the second period before losing by six. Cumberland trailed 9-0 against Concordia College-Selma, going 0-for-4 with three turnovers in the first four minutes of the contest, and 28 percent shooting put the club down 15 points late in the opening half. CCAL led by 15 again early in the second period before CU finished the game with a 21-4 spurt, falling by three. In a January 12 loss at Freed-Hardeman, the Bulldogs made just 2-of-14 shots from the field and committed six turnovers in the first 11 minutes of the contest, allowing the Lions to take a 17-point advantage. CU's 13-3 spurt cut into the deficit but the club still trailed by 12 at the break. Cumberland pulled within six with just over two minutes to play, but that was as close as they would get in an eight-point defeat. Fisk University used a 14-2 run to take a 12-point lead midway through the first half, with CU hitting 1-of-6 shots and committing three turnovers during the stretch. The Bulldogs answered with an 18-2 spurt to take victory, ending a four-game losing streak.

Early turnovers plagued Bulldogs

Cumberland ranks 63rd out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through 27 games this season, with CU committing 15.22 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 415 points in 26 outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 15.96 per contest. Life University netted 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers and five other teams posted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's early-season M-O was a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent took advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses in November followed that pattern. Over the last six weeks Cumberland has gotten off to several terrible starts shooting and with turnovers, falling into big holes before fighting back and then falling short at the end. The Bulldogs have averaged just 13.53 turnovers over the last 19 contests with just three outings over 15 miscues (21 at Indiana-Southeast on Jan. 3, 20 versus the University of Pikeville on Jan. 29, 17 at Pikeville on Jan. 17).

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
