Bond nets career-best 16 points at Life

Sophomore DeQuan Bonds hit three 3-pointers and netted a career-high 16 points last Friday at Life University. The Antioch, Tenn., native recorded 13 of his 16 points in less than four minutes of the second half during a 15-5 CU spurt that pulled the Bulldogs within four points with just over 10 minutes to play. He had an old-fashioned 3-point play as well as a pair of trifectas during the stretch. Bond set career-bests in points and 3-pointers made and tied career-highs for field goals made (6) and 3-pointers attempted (3) in the contest. It was just the second double-figure scoring outing of the season for Bond as well.

Frazier likes playing the Running Eagles

Senior DeMario Frazier led the Bulldogs with 19 points and eight rebounds last Friday at Life University, hitting 6-of-9 field goals and 7-of-8 at the foul line in 28 minutes of action. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native registered a career-high 22 points along with six boards in the first meeting this season with the Running Eagles, making 9-of-10 from the field. Frazier's season has been one of ups and downs. He started the campaign quickly, netting double figures in five of the first seven games and 7-of-12 contests through December 13, but he scored just 29 combined points in seven outings from December 17-January 17. He posted 12 points against Indiana-Southeast and Fisk University to start the year and recorded 18 points at Georgetown College. Frazier hit 7-of-11 at the foul line and finished with 15 points at Lindsey Wilson on Jan. 22 before recording his second double-double of the year versus Fisk with 17 points and 12 boards. He posted 13 points and nine rebounds, both team-highs, versus the University of Pikeville as well. He struggled over the four outings before the Life contest, posting a combined 16 points against St. Catharine College, Campbellsville University, Shawnee State and Georgetown. Frazier is averaging 8.5 points and 6.4 rebounds per game this season, leading the club in rebounding and ranking second in scoring.

J. Wilkerson breaks out of shooting slump

Senior Josh Wilkerson has been the team's most consistent performer in 2014-15 and is the only Bulldog player averaging in double figures. The Memphis, Tenn., native has scored in double-digits in 19 of the club's 28 outings and netted nine points in four others. He is shooting 36 percent to finish the regular season on Thursday. The Bulldogs have not fared well against the Blue Raiders under head coach Lonnie Thompson, losing 13 straight overall. Seven of those 13 outings have been decided by nine points or less, including both meetings last season. D'on Hall hit five 3-pointers in the second half and scored 20 points overall, leading LWC to a 76-60 victory over Cumberland in January. The Blue Raiders used an 18-6 spurt over the last seven minutes of the first half to break open a close game and then Hall nearly single-handedly shot the Bulldogs out of the gym in the second half, hitting 5-of-7 attempts from behind the arc.

Prather keeps knocking down 3-pointers

Redshirt junior Cameron Prather scored a career-high 16 points in a 79-67 victory over Fisk University on January 24. The Nashville, Tenn., native hit 4-of-7 attempts from the field with a pair of 3-pointers. He was also 6-of-6 at the foul line and grabbed a career-high six rebounds as well. His deep 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired with just under three minutes to play all but sealed the victory for the Bulldogs. Prather netted 13 points versus Campbellsville University in December and 10 against Life University in November. He has also scored nine points twice this season. Prather has been especially hot from behind the arc over the last eight games, making 11-of-19, including a 2-for-4 effort and 13 total points at St. Catharine College. His 3-pointer from the corner plus the foul were his only points last Friday at Life University, but the four-point play pulled CU within one with 4:50 remaining. He is shooting 48 percent (21-for-44) from behind the arc this year, averaging 5.6 points in 13.2 minutes per outing.

Hickerson's three forces OT

Sophomore Marquel Hickerson, who has been plagued by injury, suspensions and inconsistency for most of this season, hit four 3-pointers, including a triple with 2.9 seconds remaining to force overtime, on February 14 versus Georgetown College. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native added four rebounds and five assists in a career-high 41 minutes. He made 4-of-8 from behind the arc, including 3-for-4 in the first half.

Hickerson played perhaps the most complete game of his career earlier this month at St. Catharine College. The sophomore guard posted his first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds and added five assists in almost 35 minutes. He committed just two turnovers in the contest as well. Hickerson made 4-of-8 from the field and connected on four free throws in the final 20.1 seconds to seal the win. He was also 6-for-6 at the foul line in the final two minutes to help the Bulldogs defeat Shawnee State on Feb. 12. Hickerson averaged 11.0 points over four outings from Feb. 5-14 after scoring just 38 total points over an 11-game stretch from December 17-January 31. He has missed seven contests this season due to various reasons and has been extremely inconsistent even when playing, scoring in double figures just four times and shooting only 34 percent from the field and 29 percent from 3-point range. Hickerson is currently netting 7.4 points with 1.48 assists in 21.8 minutes per game this season.

Bulldogs fall short in close games

Cumberland has lost 14 of its last 19 contests this season, with eight of those defeats by eight points or less. The eight losses have come by a grand total of 40 points. The Bulldogs dropped a pair of games to Martin Methodist – 66-64 in Lebanon and 59-52 in Pulaski – as well as a two-point loss at Bethel University on a last-second shot. CU lost 53-47 at Dalton State College and 51-48 to Concordia College-Selma (also in Dalton) just before Christmas and dropped a 67-59 decision at Freed-Hardeman on January 12. Against Georgetown College, the Bulldogs led by 14 in the second half before the comeback by the Tigers. CU forced overtime with Marquel Hickerson's 3-pointer with 2.9 seconds remaining but lost in the extra period, 91-87. The Bulldogs trailed by 13 at the half last Friday at Life University but pulled within one twice in the second period before dropping a 102-94 decision.

Early turnovers plagued Bulldogs

Cumberland ranks 66th out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through 28 games this season, with CU committing 15.50 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 449 points in 27 outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 16.63 per contest. Life University netted 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers in November and posted 34 points on 23 CU miscues last Friday in Marietta. Five other teams have posted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's early-season M-O was a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent took advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses in November followed that pattern. Since mid-December Cumberland has averaged just 13.90 turnovers over the last 21 contests with just four outings over 15 miscues (21 at Indiana-Southeast on Jan. 3, 20 versus the University of Pikeville on Jan. 29, 17 at Pikeville on Jan. 17, 23 at Life on Feb. 20).

Bulldogs post rare road conference victory

Cumberland picked up a rare road Mid-South Conference win on February 5 at St. Catharine College, 77-70. The Bulldogs are now 2-6 away from home in league games this season, including a victory at Shawnee State in November. Since rejoining the MSC in 2012-2013, CU has registered a 6-21 mark overall (3-9 in 2013-2014, 1-9 in 2012-2013) on the road. Marquel Hickerson registered 13 points, 11 rebounds and five assists for his first double-double of the year and Telvin Wilkerson added 18 points in the win. Cumberland put together a 21-8 run in the first half to take the lead and never relinquished it, fending off the Patriots in the closing minutes.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
