Prather enjoys career-best game

Redshirt junior Cameron Prather scored a career-high 16 points in a 79-67 victory over Fisk University this past Saturday. The Nashville, Tenn., native hit 4-of-7 attempts from the field with a pair of 3-pointers. He was also 6-of-6 at the foul line and grabbed a career-high six rebounds as well. His deep 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired with just under three minutes to play all but sealed the victory for the Bulldogs. It marked the third double-figure scoring game of the season for Prather, who netted 13 points versus Campbellsville University in December and 10 against Life University in November. He has also scored nine twice this season and is shooting 41 percent from behind the arc this year, averaging 5.3 points in just over 12 minutes per outing.

J. Wilkerson team's most consistent scorer

Senior Josh Wilkerson has been the team's most consistent performer so far in 2014-15 and is the only Bulldog player averaging in double figures. The Memphis, Tenn., native has scored in double-digits in 15 of the club's 21 outings and netted nine points in two others. He is shooting 35 percent (25-for-71) from 3-point range this season with five contests with three trifectas, including versus Indiana-Southeast, Shawnee State, Martin Methodist, Dalton State College and Concordia-Selma. Wilkerson posted 19 points versus Freed-Hardeman, 20 in the first meeting with Martin Methodist, 18 against St. Catharine College and 17 at Indiana-Southeast. He added 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting in the first meeting at the University of Pikeville. Wilkerson has struggled from behind the arc over the last six outings, hitting just 4-of-15, but has been driving to the basket more, averaging 10.2 points per game during that stretch. He ranks second on the club with 1.71 assists per game and is tied for the second-most steals on the team this season with 18 while averaging 11.9 points per outing.

Frazier gets back into form

Senior DeMario Frazier started quickly this season, netting double figures in five of the first seven games and 7-of-12 contests through December 13, but the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native scored just 29 combined points in seven outings from December 17-January 17 but registered back-to-back double-digit outings last week. He posted 12 points against Indiana-Southeast and Fisk University to start the year and registered a season-high 22 points versus Life University as well as 18 points at Georgetown College. He averaged just 5.0 points over 12 outings from November 22 until mid-January with two double-figure contests (11 points versus St. Catharine College and Bethel University). Even his rebounding numbers took a tumble in recent outings, with eight contests of seven or more rebounds in the first 13 games of the year (including 12 versus IUS and 11 against Oakwood) but only 33 total boards in seven contests from Dec. 19-Jan. 22. Frazier hit 7-of-11 at the foul line and finished with 15 points last Thursday at Lindsey Wilson before recording his second double-double of the year on Saturday versus Fisk University with 17 points and 12 boards. He is averaging 8.7 points and 6.6 rebounds per game this season, leading the club in rebounding and ranking second in scoring.

Cumberland hits home stretch

The Bulldogs have lost five straight in the series, including a 72-59 defeat in Pikeville just 12 days ago, with four of those losses by 14 points or more. Pikeville scored the final eight points of the first half and started the second half with a 23-7 spurt, running away from Cumberland for a 72-59 victory on January 17. Two years ago the Bears gave head coach Lonnie Thompson the worst loss of his career, 105-56. CU's last win in the series was an 81-63 triumph in Lebanon on December 5, 2003.

Bulldogs fall short in close games

Cumberland has lost nine of its last 12 contests this season, with six of those defeats by eight points or less. The six losses have come by a grand total of 28 points. The Bulldogs dropped a pair of games to Martin Methodist – 66-64 in Lebanon and 59-52 in Pulaski – as well as a two-point loss at Bethel University on a last-second shot. CU lost 53-47 at Dalton State College and 51-48 to Concordia College-Selma (also in Dalton) just before Christmas and dropped a 67-59 decision at Freed-Hardeman on January 12. Cumberland trailed by a point in the second half at the University of the Cumberlands on Jan. 15 before a 9-0 spurt by the Patriots helped the home team pull away.

Poor starts also leading to losses

Four times in the last eight games Cumberland has fallen behind by double figures in the first half thanks to poor shooting and sometimes bad decisions. The Bulldogs trailed 16-0 and 18-2 at Dalton State College, missing its first nine shots and committing seven turnovers. CU trailed by three at the half thanks to a pair of runs and got as close as one midway through the second period before losing by six. Cumberland trailed 9-0 against Concordia College-Selma, going 0-for-4 with three turnovers in the first four minutes of the contest, and 28 percent shooting put the club down 15 points late in the opening half. CCAL led by 15 again early in the second period before CU finished the game with a 21-4 spurt, falling by three. In a January 12 loss at Freed-Hardeman, the Bulldogs made just 2-of-14 shots from the field and committed six turnovers in the first 11 minutes of the contest, allowing the Lions to take a 17-point advantage. CU's 13-3 spurt cut into the deficit but the club still trailed by 12 at the break. Cumberland pulled within six with just over two minutes to play, but that was as close as they would get in an eight-point defeat. Fisk University used a 14-2 run to take a 12-point lead midway through the first half, with CU hitting 1-of-6 shots and committing three turnovers during the stretch. The Bulldogs answered with an 18-2 spurt to retake the lead and post the victory, ending a four-game losing streak.

Bulldogs plagued by turnovers

Cumberland ranks 60th out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through 21 games this season, with CU committing 15.95 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 320 points in 20 outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 16.0 per contest. Life University netted 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers and five other teams posted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's early-season M-O was a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent took advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses in November followed that pattern. Over the last four weeks

Cumberland has gotten off to several terrible starts shooting and with turnovers, falling into big holes before fighting back and then falling short at the end. The Bulldogs have averaged just 13.8 turnovers over the last 14 contests with just two outings over 15 miscues (21 at Indiana-Southeast on Jan. 3, 17 at Pikeville on Jan. 17), including nine on January 15 at the University of the Cumberlands.

Williams finding more scoring

Redshirt junior Paul Williams posted perhaps his best two games of the season this month for the Bulldogs, scoring in double figures for the first time this year in both outings. The North Chicago, Ill., native posted 10 points and six rebounds at Indiana-Southeast on January 3 and followed that with 11 points and six boards at Freed-Hardeman. He combined to make 6-of-14 shots and was a perfect 9-for-9 at the foul line in the two outings, which were also the first two starts of the season for Williams, who missed all of 2013-14 with a knee injury. He added nine points at the University of the Cumberlands, seven at the University of Pikeville and nine versus Fisk University. Williams scored eight points against Campbellsville University in early December but did not score in the next three outings, playing just 16 total minutes in the three games. He is averaging 4.8 points and 2.4 rebounds in 14.9 minutes per game this season.

Gaston's versatility missing with injuries

Senior Jerrod Gaston played all three guard spots in the first seven games of the season, starting three contests and scoring 10.0 points per game. The Murphysboro, Ill., native netted double figures in the first three contests of the year, scoring 15 points against Indiana-Southeast, 16 at Fisk University and 13 at Oakwood University, and recorded 10 points against Freed-Hardeman. He added eight points at home versus Oakwood and grabbed six rebounds at Fisk and at Georgetown College. He missed three games in late November and early December with a knee injury and has not been the same player since returning, averaging just 4.8 points on 31 percent shooting (15-for-49) from the field. He netted eight points at Martin Methodist on Dec. 17 and collected a team-best 12 points at the University of the Cumberlands. Gaston is averaging 6.9 points and 2.6 rebounds per game this season in 17 contests, playing 18.6 minutes per game.

Dern scores in return to starting lineup

Senior Moritz Dern has struggled through his final campaign with the Bulldogs, failing to score in double figures and averaging just 3.3 rebounds per game. The Marburg, Germany, native started the first three games of the season and then four contests in mid-December, enjoying one of his best outings of the season at Martin Methodist with six points and 10 boards. He netted a combined 10 points in six outings after the MMC contest before returning to the starting lineup last week. Dern registered nine points against both Lindsey Wilson and Fisk University, connecting on 6-of-9 field goal attempts and hitting 5-for-6 at the foul line. He also grabbed eight combined rebounds in the two outings. Dern is averaging 3.6 points in 17.9 minutes per game this season.

Men's basketball selected eighth in MSC Coaches' Poll

Cumberland was picked eighth in the Mid-South Conference Men's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll announced in early November by the league office. The Bulldogs and 13th-year head coach Lonnie Thompson return seven letterwinners along with two redshirts from last season's squad that finished 14-13 overall. Sophomore Marquel Hickerson started 20 contests and senior Josh Wilkerson had 15 starts while senior Moritz Dern and sophomore De-Quan Bond each collected 12 starts last year.

The University of Pikeville was the preseason favorite according to the coaches, receiving three first-place votes and 58 total points. Georgetown College got two first-place votes and 54 total points, while Campbellsville University also received three first-place votes and 52 points for third place. The University of the Cumberlands was selected fourth and Lindsey Wilson was fifth, picking up the remaining first-place vote. Newcomer Life University was sixth, followed by St. Catharine College, Cumberland and Shawnee State.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
