● Cumberland plays five of its last eight conference games at home beginning Thursday against Campbellsville University. The Tigers leads the all-time series, 31-4, since 1992-93 and has posted 11 straight victories in the series. The Phoenix won the first three meetings after rejoining the Mid-South Conference in 2012-13 but none since then, with eight of the 14 contests decided by nine points or less, three of those in overtime or double OT.

● The Phoenix have played just five home games this season, posting a 2-3 mark. Cumberland defeated Oakwood University and Fisk University and lost to Talladega College (now ranked 13th nationally), then 18th-ranked Lindsey Wilson and Life University. CU did not play a home game from November 20 until a January 2 contest with Fisk but five of the last eight games of the year are home contests.

● With 11 new players on the roster at one time or another this season and no starters returning from last year's 20-12 squad, the Phoenix have played a daunting schedule with 15-of-20 games (including exhibitions) away from home as well as four games with ranked opponents with at least four more league contests versus ranked foes. CU opponents currently own a 251-111 (.693) combined record with eight teams that are 10 games or more over .500, including Campbellsville University (21-2), Talladega College (21-3) and College of the Ozarks (20-3) along with Marian University (18-5), Bethel University (19-3) and Georgetown College (18-4).

Codner-Pinto leading Phoenix in scoring

Senior Carli Codner-Pinto leads Cumberland in scoring with 13.6 points per game, including 10 double-figure outings, while shooting 33 percent (41-for-124) from 3-point range. The Columbus, Ohio, native has registered four contests with 20-plus points, posting 26 at Talladega College, 21 at Oakwood University and 27 versus Fisk University and at the University of Pikeville. She struggled to begin Mid-South Conference play, missing all eight shots versus Lindsey Wilson, hitting just 1-of-5 at Campbellsville University and starting the game 0-for-9 at Georgetown College before hitting three straight 3-pointers in the final three minutes, helping CU to the one-point victory. Codner-Pinto netted 19 of her 27 points at Pikeville in the first half, connecting on 6-of-10 field goals and 4-for-6 from behind the arc, and added 19 points versus Life University, though she connected on just 5-of-16 shots overall versus the Running Eagles. She registered 17 points at the University of the Cumberland with three more 3-pointers.

Watson scoring more consistently

After posting just three games with double-digit scoring in her first two seasons at Cumberland, junior Kerrice Watson has found the range in the scoring column, averaging 8.9 points with seven double-figure scoring outings. The Bartlett, Tenn., native has netted double digits in five of the last eight outings, posting 17 points versus Fisk University and 16 at the University of Pikeville. She added 12 points at Huntington University and 10 at Georgetown College, including the game-winning layup as the buzzer expired. Watson scored a career-best 18 points on Saturday at the University of the Cumberland, hitting 6-of-8 from the field and 3-for-3 from 3-point range. She has improved her become more efficient around the basket this season, shooting 56 percent from the floor, and has connected on 79 percent (33-for-42) at the free throw line, well above her 43 percent last season. She registered 10 points and a career-best 13 rebounds versus Life University as well.

Miller makes most of chances

Freshman Britany Miller averages 6.5 points and a team-leading 6.8 rebounds per game this season. The Nashville, Tenn., native gets only 5.0 shots per contest but has made the most of her opportunities, posting seven or more points on 10 occasions. She recorded 10 points at Huntington University and grabbed 10 rebounds at Oakwood University and 12 at Georgetown College. She registered team-highs of 16 points and 14 boards against Life University, hitting 8-of-13 at the foul line, and added 11 points and nine rebounds last Saturday at the University of the Cumberlands. She shoots 72 percent (33-for-46) at the free throw line for the season and over the last four games has connected on 17-of-23 at the charity stripe.

Key players missing since December for CU

Two keys players have been absent for Cumberland since early-to-mid December for two different reasons. Freshman Devon Burns broke her right (shooting hand) over Christmas break and has not played since December 15 at Huntington University. She was averaging 8.6 points per game with five double-figure scoring outings, including 17 points at Huntington University and 13 versus Martin Methodist and College of the Ozarks. Junior De'Naizha Elder was academically ineligible after the fall semester and is no longer with the program. She was averaging 11.0 points with four double-digit scoring contests. Elder netted 28 points versus Mid-America Christian and added 18 at Martin Methodist.

News and Notes

Cumberland's primary ball-handler, Jemilah Leonard, has not scored in eight of the 17 games in which she has played this season and has netted more than two points just three times. She is shooting 20 percent from the field overall (11-for-54) and 17 percent (5-of-29) from 3-point range ... The Phoenix average 20.7 turnovers per game this season with 11 games of 20-plus and 30 at Talladega College. In the six Mid-South Conference games CU has committed 139 miscues, 23.2 per contest. Opponents have scored 371 points off the team's turnovers this season, 20.6 per game.

St. Louis an important pickup for Phoenix

Graduate transfer Dominique St. Louis enters Saturday's game at the University of the Cumberlands posting 6.4 points and 6.4 rebounds per game. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native recorded four double-figure scoring outings in the first eight contests, posting 13 points at Bethel University and 11 along with 10 rebounds at Oakwood University. She has struggled over the last five weeks, averaging just 5.1 points in the last 10 contests (since December 14) while shooting .348 (16-for-46) from the field. Nearly one-third of her points (18-of-51) during that stretch have come from the foul line (18-for-29). St. Louis has continued to rebound through her offensive struggles, grabbing 6.4 boards during the 10-game stretch.

CU picked sixth in MSC Coaches' Poll

Cumberland was selected sixth in the Mid-South Conference Coaches' Preseason Poll in October. First-year head coach Scott Blum returns only four letterwinners and no starters from last year's club that finished 20-12 overall. Senior Carli Codner-Pinto started 11 contests last season, scoring 4.5 points with 1.5 assists per game with four double-figure scoring outings, while junior Kerrice Watson netted 3.5 points and 2.2 rebounds per outing in 16.5 minutes per contest. Junior Katherine Griffith recorded 3.6 points and 2.4 boards in 10.9 minutes per contest. Blum added nine newcomers for 2018-19, including graduate transfers Dominique St. Louis from Morehead State and Jemilah Leonard from Tennessee State. Five freshman will also vie for playing time for the Phoenix. Shawnee State earned five first-place votes and 47 total points for first place in the poll, with the Campbellsville University picking up the other three first-place votes and 45 points. Lindsey Wilson was third with 37 points, followed by the University of Pikeville (24) and Georgetown College (23). Cumberland was sixth with 19 points, just ahead of the University of the Cumberlands (18), with Life University in eighth (11).

Head Coach Scott Blum

Scott Blum was hired as the women's basketball head coach for the Phoenix on April 12, 2018, after spending the previous 14 years as head coach at his alma mater, Grace College in Indiana.

The Lancers posted a pair of 20-win seasons during Blum's tenure at his alma mater, including 20-15 in 2011-12, the program's first winning season since 1991-92 and the first 20-win campaign in school history. Grace finished 20-16 in 2017-18. The program averaged 17.0 wins over his last eight seasons, including an 18-17 mark in 2014-15 and 19-17 in 2012-13. He compiled 209 career victories at Grace.

Blum brings a wealth of coaching experience, serving as men's basketball head coach at Indiana Wesleyan in Marion, Ind., from 1995-97, leading the program to the NCCAA national championship in 1995, and head men's coach at Trinity International in Deerfield, Ill., from 1998-01.

He spent one year as the boys basketball coach at Lakewood Park Christian School in Auburn, Ind., and two seasons as an assistant men's coach at Grace before becoming the women's head coach for the 2004-05 campaign.

As a starting guard in the early 1990s, Blum garnered NAIA All-America honors twice and was a major component in the men's basketball team's national championship in 1992 at Grace. He also earned the Pete Maravich Award as the NCCAA Player of the Year in 1992.

Blum scored 1,576 career points at Oregon-Davis High School in Hamlet, Ind., and became the only player to have his number retired in school history. He then played two years at Valparaiso University before transferring to Grace for his final two seasons, helping the Lancers to a 59-11 record over that span.

Blum earned his bachelor's in Physical Education from Grace in 1993 and received a master's in Physical Education from Ball State in 2002. He is married to the former Michelle Hanna and the couple has three boys – Tanner, Connor and Asher.
