- Cumberland plays its first home game since January 5, taking on Life University at Dallas Floyd Phoenix Arena. The Phoenix own a 5-2 all-time record against the Running Eagles, winning the last four meetings in the series, all since Life restarted its women's basketball program. Cumberland has won the four contests by an average of 22.3 points per game. Ant'Treasia Patton scored 17 of her 19 points in the first half and Kyra Tucker added 22 points in a 77-57 home win last season for CU. Patton netted six 3-pointers Janisha Lindsey scored a season-high 15 points with four rebounds and seven assists in a 71-53 road victory over the Running Eagles.

- The Phoenix have played just four home games this season, posting a 2-2 mark. Cumberland defeated Oakwood University and Fisk University and lost to Talladega College (now ranked 15th nationally) and 18th-ranked Lindsey Wilson. CU did not play a home game from November 20 until a January 2 contest with Fisk but five of the last eight games of the year are home contests.

- With 11 new players on the roster at one time or another this season and no starters returning from last year's 20-12 squad, the Phoenix have played a daunting schedule with 14-of-18 games (including exhibitions) away from home as well as four games with ranked opponents with at least four more of those remaining in conference play. Cumberland opponents currently own a 206-81 (.718) combined record with eight teams who are 10 games or more over .500, including Campbellsville University (19-2), Talladega College (19-3) and College of the Ozarks (19-3) along with Marian University (18-4), Bethel University (17-3) and Georgetown College (17-3).

Codner-Pinto leading Phoenix in scoring

Senior Carli Codner-Pinto leads Cumberland with 13.0 points per game, including eight double-figure outings, while shooting 33 percent (34-for-104) from 3-point range. The Columbus, Ohio, native has registered four contests with 20-plus points, posting 26 at Talladega College, 21 at Oakwood University and 27 versus Fisk University and at the University of Pikeville. She struggled to begin Mid-South Conference play, missing all eight shots versus Lindsey Wilson, hitting just 1-of-5 at Campbellsville University and starting the game 0-for-9 at Georgetown College before hitting three straight 3-pointers in the final three minutes, helping CU to the one-point victory. Codner-Pinto netted 19 of her 27 points at Pikeville in the first half, connecting on 6-of-10 field goals and 4-for-6 from behind the arc.

Watson scoring more consistently

After posting just three games with double-digit scoring in her first two seasons at Cumberland, junior Kerrice Watson has found the range in the scoring column, averaging 8.3 points with six double-figure scoring outings. The Bartlett, Tenn., native has netted double digits in four of the last six outings, including 17 points versus Fisk University and 16 at the University of Pikeville. She added 12 points at Huntington University and 10 at Georgetown College, including the game-winning layup as the buzzer expired. Watson is also posting 3.3 rebounds and a team-leading 2.4 assists per contest and has connected on 36-of-43 (.837) at the free throw line this season.

Griffith becoming force in the paint

Junior Katherine Griffith has doubled her playing time this season and nearly tripled her scoring output per game. The Knoxville, Tenn., also grabbed 10 rebounds at Oakwood University and 12 at Georgetown College. She is also shooting 71 percent (20-for-28) at the foul line.

St. Louis an important pickup for Phoenix

Graduate transfer Dominique St. Louis heads into Thursday's game versus Life University posting 6.4 points and 6.2 rebounds per game. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native recorded four double-figure scoring outings in the first eight contests, posting 13 points at Bethel University and 11 along with 10 rebounds at Oakwood University. She has struggled over the last month, though, averaging just 5.4 points in the last eight contests while shooting .342 (13-for-38) from the field. Nearly one-third of her points (16-of-43) over the last eight outings have come from the foul line (16-for-22). St. Louis has continued to rebound through her offensive struggles though, grabbing 6.3 during the eight-game stretch.

Key players missing since December for CU

Two key players have been absent for Cumberland since early-to-mid December for two different reasons. Freshman Devon Burns broke her right (shooting hand) over Christmas break and has not played since December 15 at Huntington University. She was averaging 8.6 points per game with five double-figure scoring outings, including 17 points at Huntington University and 13 versus Martin Methodist and College of the Ozarks. Junior De'Naizha Elder was academically ineligible after the fall semester and is no longer with the program. She was averaging 11.0 points with four double-digit scoring contests. Elder netted 28 points versus Mid-America Christian and added 18 at Martin Methodist.

News and Notes

Cumberland's primary ball-handlers, Jemilah Leonard, has not scored in eight of the 15 games in which she has played this season and has netted more than two points just twice. She is shooting 19 percent from the field overall as well as 3-point range ... The Phoenix average 20.3 turnovers per game this season with 10 games of 20-plus and 30 at Talladega College. In the four Mid-South Conference games CU has committed 92 miscues, 23.0 per contest. Opponents have scored 321 points off the team's turnovers this season, 20.1 per game.

CU picked sixth in MSC Coaches' Poll

Cumberland was selected sixth in the Mid-South Conference Coaches' Preseason Poll. First-year head coach Scott Blum returns only four letterwinners and no starters from last year's club that finished 20-12 overall. Senior Carli Codner-Pinto and juniors Kerrice Watson and Katherine Griffith are the only returners with experience. Blum added nine newcomers for 2018-19, including graduate transfers Dominique St. Louis from Morehead State and Jemilah Leonard from Tennessee State

Head Coach Scott Blum

Scott Blum was hired as the women's basketball head coach for the Phoenix on April 12, 2018, after spending the previous 14 years as head coach at his alma mater, Grace College in Indiana.

The Lancers posted a pair of 20-win seasons during Blum's tenure at his alma mater, including 20-15 in 2011-12, the program's first winning season since 1991-92 and the first 20-win campaign in school history. Grace finished 20-16 in 2017-18. The program averaged 17.0 wins over his last eight seasons, including an 18-17 mark in 2014-15 and 19-17 in 2012-13. He compiled 209 career victories at Grace.

Blum brings a wealth of coaching experience, serving as men's basketball head coach at Indiana Wesleyan in Marion, Ind., from 1995-97, leading the program to the NCCAA national championship in 1995, and head men's coach at Trinity International in Deerfield, Ill., from 1998-01.

He spent one year as the boys basketball coach at Lakewood Park Christian School in Auburn, Ind., and two seasons as an assistant men's coach at Grace before becoming the women's head coach for the 2004-05 campaign.

As a starting guard in the early 1990s, Blum garnered NAIA All-America honors twice and was a major component in the men's basketball team's national championship in 1992 at Grace. He also earned the Pete Maravich Award as the NCCAA Player of the Year in 1992.

Blum scored 1,576 career points at Oregon-Davis High School in Hamlet, Ind., and became the only player to have his number retired in school history. He then played two years at Valparaiso University before transferring to Grace for his final two seasons, helping the Lancers to a 59-11 record over that span.

Blum earned his bachelor's in Physical Education from Grace in 1993 and received a master's in Physical Education from Ball State in 2002. He is married to the former Michelle Hanna and the couple has three boys – Tanner, Connor and Asher.
