● Cumberland travels to Portsmouth, Ohio, for the first of two meetings over the next 10 days with Shawnee State. The Bears own a 9-5 all-time mark against CU, all since the Phoenix rejoined the Mid-South Conference in 2012-13. Cumberland won five of the first nine contests between the two teams but SSU has posted five consecutive wins in the series. Eight of the 14 games have been decided by seven points or less, including all three outings in 2012-13 and three of the last four overall.

● The Phoenix have played just seven home games this season, posting a 2-5 mark. Cumberland defeated Oakwood University and Fisk University and lost to Talladega College, then 18th-ranked Lindsey Wilson, Life University, fourth-ranked Campbellsville University and Georgetown College. CU did not play a home game from November 20 until January 2 against Fisk.

● With 11 new players on the roster at one time or another this season and no starters returning from last year's 20-12 squad, the Phoenix have played a daunting schedule with 15-of-22 games (including exhibitions) away from home as well as five games with ranked opponents with at least three more league contests versus ranked foes. Entering play on Thursday, CU opponents have posted a 271-123 (.690) combined record with eight teams that are 10 games or more over .500, including Campbellsville University (23-2), Talladega College (23-3) and College of the Ozarks (22-3) along with Marian University (21-5), Bethel University (22-3) and Georgetown College (19-5).

Griffith becoming force in the paint

Junior Katherine Griffith has doubled her playing time this season and nearly tripled her scoring output per game. The Knoxville, Tenn., native is registering 10.4 points along with 5.9 rebounds per contest, up from 3.6 and 2.4 in only 10.9 minutes per outing in 2017-18. She has scored in double figures in eight of the last 10 games, including 13 points at Campbellsville University and 13 at Georgetown College. She tied her career-high with 18 points at the University of the Cumberland, connecting on 8-for-10 from the field, and followed that with a career-best 19 points along with 10 rebounds at home versus Campbellsville, her second double-double in the last three games. Griffith has become more efficient around the basket this season, shooting 55 percent from the floor, and has connected on 77 percent (43-for-56) at the free throw line, well above her 43 percent last season. She registered 10 points and a career-best 13 rebounds versus Life University as well.

Watson scoring more consistently

After posting just three games with double-digit scoring in her first two seasons at Cumberland, junior Kerrice Watson has found the range in the scoring column, averaging 8.4 points with seven double-figure scoring outings. The Bartlett, Tenn., native has netted double digits in five of the last 10 outings, posting 17 points versus Fisk University and 16 at the University of Pikeville. She added 12 points at Huntington University and 10 at Georgetown College, including the game-winning layup as the buzzer sounded. Watson scored a career-best 18 points at the University of the Cumberland, hitting 6-of-8 from the field and 3-for-3 from 3-point range. She has improved her 3-point shooting from .204 (11-for-54) combined in her first two in the final three minutes, helping CU to the one-point victory. Codner-Pinto netted 19 of her 27 points at Pikeville in the first half, connecting on 6-of-10 field goals and 4-for-6 from behind the arc, and added 19 points versus Life University, though she made just 5-of-16 shots overall versus the Running Eagles. She registered 17 points at the University of the Cumberlands with three more 3-pointers.

Miller makes most of chances

Freshman Britany Miller averages 6.3 points and a team-leading 6.9 rebounds per game this season. The Nashville, Tenn., native gets only 5.2 shots per contest but has made the most of her opportunities, posting seven or more points on 10 occasions. She recorded 10 points at Huntington University and grabbed 10 rebounds at Oakwood University and 12 at Georgetown College. She registered team-highs of 16 points and 14 boards against Life University, hitting 8-of-13 at the foul line, and added 11 points and nine rebounds at the University of the Cumberlands. Miller has recorded double-figure rebounds in four contests this season, including 10 versus Campbellsville University. She shoots 73 percent (35-for-48) at the free throw line for the season and over the last six games has connected on 19-of-25 at the charity stripe.

Key players missing since December for CU

Two key players have been absent for Cumberland since early-to-mid December for two different reasons. Freshman Devon Burns broke her right (shooting hand) over Christmas break and has not played since December 15 at Huntington University. She was averaging 8.6 points per game with five double-figure scoring outings, including 17 points at Huntington University and 13 versus Martin Methodist and College of the Ozarks. Junior De'Naizha Elder was academically ineligible after the fall semester and is no longer with the program. She was averaging 11.0 points with four double-digit scoring contests. Elder netted 28 points versus Mid-America Christian and added 18 at Martin Methodist.

News and Notes

Cumberland's primary ball-handler, Jemilah Leonard, has not scored in nine of the 19 games in which she has played this season and has netted more than two points just three times. She is shooting 19 percent from the field overall (12-for-63) and 16 percent (5-of-31) from 3-point range ... The Phoenix average 21.0 turnovers per game this season with 13 games of 20-plus and 30 at Talladega College. In the eight Mid-South Conference games CU has committed 187 miscues, 23.4 per contest. Opponents have scored 401 points off the team's turnovers this season, 20.1 per game.

5.8 points and 6.7 rebounds per game. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native recorded four double-figure scoring outings in the first eight contests, posting 13 points at Bethel University and 11 along with 10 rebounds at Oakwood University. She has struggled over the last six weeks, averaging just 4.5 points in the last 11 contests (since December 14) while shooting .300 (15-for-50) from the field. Nearly one-third of her points (19-of-48) during that stretch have come from the foul line (19-for-31). St. Louis has continued to rebound through her offensive struggles, grabbing 7.1 boards during the 11-game stretch.

CU picked sixth in MSC Coaches' Poll

Cumberland was selected sixth in the Mid-South Conference Coaches' Preseason Poll in October. First-year head coach Scott Blum returns only four letterwinners and no starters from last year's club that finished 20-12 overall. Senior Carli Codner-Pinto started 11 contests last season, scoring 4.5 points with 1.5 assists per game with four double-figure scoring outings, while junior Kerrice Watson netted 3.5 points and 2.2 rebounds per outing in 16.5 minutes per contest. Junior Katherine Griffith recorded 3.6 points and 2.4 boards in 10.9 minutes per contest. Blum added nine newcomers for 2018-19, including graduate transfers Dominique St. Louis from Morehead State and Jemilah Leonard from Tennessee State. Five freshman will also vie for playing time for the Phoenix. Shawnee State earned five first-place votes and 47 total points for first place in the poll, with the Campbellsville University picking up the other three first-place votes and 45 points. Lindsey Wilson was third with 37 points, followed by the University of Pikeville (24) and Georgetown College (23). Cumberland was sixth with 19 points, just ahead of the University of the Cumberlands (18), with Life University in eighth (11).

Head Coach Scott Blum

Scott Blum was hired as the women's basketball head coach for the Phoenix on April 12, 2018, after spending the previous 14 years as head coach at his alma mater, Grace College in Indiana.

The Lancers posted a pair of 20-win seasons during Blum's tenure at his alma mater, including 20-15 in 2011-12, the program's first winning season since 1991-92 and the first 20-win campaign in school history. Grace finished 20-16 in 2017-18. The program averaged 17.0 wins over his last eight seasons, including an 18-17 mark in 2014-15 and 19-17 in 2012-13. He compiled 209 career victories at Grace.

Blum brings a wealth of coaching experience, serving as men's basketball head coach at Indiana Wesleyan in Marion, Ind., from 1995-97, leading the program to the NCCAA national championship in 1995, and head men's coach at Trinity International in Deerfield, Ill., from 1998-01.

He spent one year as the boys basketball coach at Lakewood Park Christian School in Auburn, Ind., and two seasons as an assistant men's coach at Grace before becoming the women's head coach for the 2004-05 campaign.

As a starting guard in the early 1990s, Blum garnered NAIA All-America honors twice and was a major component in the men's basketball team's national championship in 1992 at Grace. He also earned the Pete Maravich Award as the NCCAA Player of the Year in 1992.

Blum scored 1,576 career points at Oregon-Davis High School in Hamlet, Ind., and became the only player to have his number retired in school history. He then played two years at Valparaiso University before transferring to Grace for his final two seasons, helping the Lancers to a 59-11 record over that span.

Blum earned his bachelor's in Physical Education from Grace in 1993 and received a master's in Physical Education from Ball State in 2002. He is married to the former Michelle Hanna and the couple has three boys – Tanner, Connor and Asher.
