● Cumberland plays its penultimate home game of the season Saturday, hosting Shawnee State. The Bears lead the all-time series, 10-5, since 2012-13. Cumberland won five of the first nine contests between the two teams but SSU has posted six consecutive wins, including a 79-57 victory in Portsmouth just nine days ago. Eight of the 15 games have been decided by seven points or less, including all three outings in 2012-13 and three of the last five overall.

● The Phoenix have played just eight home games this season, posting a 2-6 mark. Cumberland defeated Oakwood University and Fisk University and lost to Talladega College, 18th-ranked Lindsey Wilson, Life University, fourth-ranked Campbellsville University, Georgetown College and the University of Pikeville. CU did not play a home game from November 20 until January 2 against Fisk.

● With 11 new players on the roster at one time or another this season and no starters returning from last year's 20-12 squad, the Phoenix have played a daunting schedule with 16-of-24 games (including exhibitions) away from home as well as six games with ranked opponents with at least two more league contests versus ranked foes. Entering play on Thursday, CU opponents have posted a 292-135 (.684) combined record with nine teams that are 10 games or more over .500, including Campbellsville University (25-2), Talladega College (23-4) and College of the Ozarks (24-3) along with Marian University (23-5), Bethel University (23-3) and Georgetown College (20-6).

The Columbus, Ohio, native has registered four contests with 20-plus points, posting 26 at Talladega College, 21 at Oakwood University and 27 versus Fisk University and at the University of Pikeville. She struggled to begin Mid-South Conference play, missing all eight shots versus Lindsey Wilson, hitting just 1-of-5 at Campbellsville University and starting the game 0-for-9 at Georgetown before hitting three straight 3-pointers in the final three minutes, helping CU to the one-point victory. Codner-Pinto netted 19 of her 27 points at the Pikeville in the first half, connecting on 6-of-10 field goals and 4-for-6 from behind the arc, and added 19 points versus Life University. She registered 17 points at the University of the Cumberlands with three more 3-pointers.

Miller makes most of chances

Freshman Britany Miller averages 6.6 points and a team-leading 7.0 rebounds per game this season. The Nashville, Tenn., native gets only 5.1 shots per contest but has made the most of her opportunities, posting seven or more points on 12 occasions. She recorded 10 points at Huntington University and grabbed 10 rebounds at Oakwood University and 12 at Georgetown College. She registered team-highs of 16 points and 14 boards against Life University, hitting 8-of-13 at the foul line, and added 11 points and nine rebounds at the University of the Cumberlands. Miller came off the bench to score 12 points and add seven rebounds last Saturday versus the University of Pikeville. She has recorded double-figure rebounds in four contests this season, including 10 versus Campbellsville University. She shoots 72 percent (39-for-54) at the free throw line for the season.

Key players missing since December for CU

Two keys players have been absent for Cumberland since early-to-mid December for two different reasons. Freshman Devon Burns broke her right (shooting hand) over Christmas break and has not played since December 15 at Huntington University. She was averaging 8.6 points per game with five double-figure scoring outings, including 17 points at Huntington University and 13 versus Martin Methodist and College of the Ozarks. Junior De'Naizha Elder was academically ineligible after the fall semester and is no longer with the program. She was averaging 11.0 points with four double-digit scoring contests. Elder netted 28 points versus Mid-America Christian and added 18 at Martin Methodist.

News and Notes

Cumberland's primary ball-handler, Jemilah Leonard, has not scored in nine of the 22 games in which she has played this season and has netted more than two points just three times. She is shooting 21 percent from the field overall (16-for-78) and 17 percent (6-of-36) from 3-point range ... The Phoenix average 20.5 turnovers per game this season with 14 games

She finally came out of her scoring doldrums last Saturday against the University of Pikeville, netting 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting, her first double-figure scoring outing since December 1. St. Louis has continued to rebound through her offensive struggles, grabbing 7.0 boards during the 14-game stretch.

CU picked sixth in MSC Coaches' Poll

Scott Blum was hired as the women's basketball head coach for the Phoenix on April 12, 2018, after spending the previous 14 years as head coach at his alma mater, Grace College in Indiana.

The Lancers posted a pair of 20-win seasons during Blum's tenure at his alma mater, including 20-15 in 2011-12, the program's first winning season since 1991-92 and the first 20-win campaign in school history. Grace finished 20-16 in 2017-18. The program averaged 17.0 wins over his last eight seasons, including an 18-17 mark in 2014-15 and 19-17 in 2012-13. He compiled 209 career victories at Grace.

Blum brings a wealth of coaching experience, serving as men's basketball head coach at Indiana Wesleyan in Marion, Ind., from 1995-97, leading the program to the NCCAA national championship in 1995, and head men's coach at Trinity International in Deerfield, Ill., from 1998-01.

He spent one year as the boys basketball coach at Lakewood Park Christian School in Auburn, Ind., and two seasons as an assistant men's coach at Grace before becoming the women's head coach for the 2004-05 campaign.

As a starting guard in the early 1990s, Blum garnered NAIA All-America honors twice and was a major component in the men's basketball team's national championship in 1992 at Grace. He also earned the Pete Maravich Award as the NCCAA Player of the Year in 1992.

Blum scored 1,576 career points at Oregon-Davis High School in Hamlet, Ind., and became the only player to have his number retired in school history. He then played two years at Valparaiso University before transferring to Grace for his final two seasons, helping the Lancers to a 59-11 record over that span.

Blum earned his bachelor's in Physical Education from Grace in 1993 and received a master's in Physical Education from Ball State in 2002. He is married to the former Michelle Hanna and the couple has three boys – Tanner, Connor and Asher.
