Cumberland returns to action at home

Cumberland plays for the first time in 10 days on Thursday against St. Catharine College. The Bulldogs lost 66-64 in their last outing on November 24 to Martin Methodist. St. Catharine leads the series between the two clubs, 5-4, since 2008, including both games last year. Cumberland fell into an early deficit and was never able to mount a substantial comeback, as the clear size advantage for St. Catharine led the way to 23 offensive rebounds, 44 overall boards and an 83-60 victory in Lebanon in early January. The Patriots shot 67 percent in the second half en route to a 99-82 win over the Bulldogs at St. Catharine later in the month. St. Catharine has won three straight in the series after Cumberland posted wins in four of the first six meetings.

Josh Wilkerson hitting three-balls

Senior Josh Wilkerson is shooting 40 percent from behind the arc through nine games this season and is the only Bulldog player with more than 10 3-pointers made this year. The Memphis, Tenn., native hit just 19 trifectas as a junior but has connected on 14-of-35 attempts so far in 2014-15. He currently leads the Bulldogs with 12.7 points per game, scoring in double figures in seven of the nine contests with nine points in another game. Wilkerson made three 3-pointers in the season opener against Indiana-Southeast and has three in each of the last two games as well – at Shawnee State and versus Martin Methodist. He netted 19 points against Freed-Hardeman, posted 20 at Shawnee State and added 18 versus Martin Methodist, all in an eight-day stretch.

Hickerson struggling to find shot

Sophomore Marquel Hickerson led the Bulldogs in scoring last season, netting 12.4 points per game with 13 double-figure scoring outings and eight contests with 19 or more points. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native did not practice much during the preseason because of a lingering knee injury and missed the first three games of the season with the ailment. The injury plus the missed time have greatly contributed to his lack of scoring for Hickerson, who is hitting just 23 percent from the field and is just 1-for-11 from 3-point range in five games this season. He made 37 percent from behind the arc in 2013-14 with 12 contests of two or more 3-pointers. Hickerson had his best performance of the season in the team's last game, versus Martin Methodist, posting eight points and five rebounds in 22 minutes, all season-highs. He is averaging 4.6 points and 2.2 assists per game this season.

Telvin Wilkerson is up-and-down

Junior Telvin Wilkerson has scored in double figures three times this season and has eight or more points in six of the team's nine outings, but the Memphis, Tenn., native has struggled with his midrange jumpers thus far. He is shooting just 37 percent from the field despite taking a large amount of good shots, driving to the basket but fading away on the 15-to-18 footers. Wilkerson has played more consistent over the last three outings, hitting 15-of-35 (.429) while averaging 12.7 points per game. He netted 10 points with a pair of 3-pointers at Georgetown College and collected nine points at Shawnee State. Wilkerson posted a season-best 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting with two more trifectas versus Martin Methodist. For the season he is averaging 8.8 points and 3.3 rebounds per contest.

Owens shows flashes

Junior guard Tylor Owens has shown flashes of his play-making ability, handing out four assists at Oakwood University and three apiece versus Life University and at Georgetown College. The Carbon Hill, Ala., native also scored 11 points at home against Oakwood and 12 versus Freed-Hardeman, hitting three 3-pointers against FHU. He added four steals versus Life as well, but Owens' biggest problem has been a propensity for turnovers this season. He has 21 turnovers in nine games, including eight against Life and three each at Fisk University and Shawnee State and against Freed-Hardeman. He is averaging 4.2 points and 1.7 assists per game this season.

Bulldogs plagued by turnovers

Cumberland ranks 64th out of 96 schools nationally in turnover margin through nine games this season, with CU committing 18.7 miscues per contest. Opponents have scored 161 points in eight outings (data not available for game at Oakwood), and average of 20.1 per contest. Life University scored 31 points on 25 Bulldog turnovers and four other teams netted more than 20 points off Cumberland miscues. CU's M-O this season has been a good first half and a few good minutes in the second half before the opponent takes advantage of a string of turnovers and missed shots to take control of the game. Four of the club's five losses have followed that pattern and the Bulldogs led by four at the break before being outscored, 46-22, in the second half at Georgetown College. Cumberland has done a much better job with turnovers in the last two outings, committing 12 in a victory at Shawnee State and 14 in a two-point loss to Martin Methodist.

team with 10.8 points and leads the Bulldogs with 7.3 rebounds per game this season. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native netted double figures in five of the team's first seven contests, shooting 75 percent (39-of-52) from the field during those outings. He collected 12 points and 12 rebounds in the season opener against Indiana-Southeast and registered 12 at Fisk University before recording 15 points with 11 boards at Oakwood University. Frazier netted a career-high 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting versus Life University and was 8-for-11 from the field for 18 points at Georgetown College. He also hit a desperation 3-pointer just before the buzzer at Shawnee State for the game-winning points in a 60-58 victory. He has scored just seven combined points in the last two games but pulled down nine rebounds against Martin Methodist.

CU missing Gaston's versatility

Senior Jerrod Gaston played all three guard spots in the first six games of the season, starting three contests and scoring 10.0 points per game. The Murphysboro, Ill., native netted double figures in the first three contests of the year, scoring 15 points against Indiana-Southeast, 16 at Fisk University and 13 at Oakwood University. He added eight points at home versus Oakwood and recorded 10 points against Freed-Hardeman. Gaston also grabbed six rebounds at Fisk and at Georgetown College but has missed the last two games after injuring his ankle in the second half at Georgetown. His injury has changed the guard rotation for the club and put more of the scoring burden on Josh and Telvin Wilkerson.

Bulldogs looking for consistent post play

Head coach Lonnie Thompson has few options on the frontline this season and needs consistent play from sophomore Uros Benacek and senior Moritz Dern for the club to be successful. Benacek started quickly, netting 11 points in the season-opener versus Indiana-Southeast and posting 14 points and 10 rebounds at Fisk University, but has averaged just 4.6 points in the last seven outings. The Maribor, Slovenia, native is shooting 62 percent from the field and 55 percent from 3-point range but has had few chances to score of late. Dern's play was almost nonexistent in the early going this season but has improved of late, with the Marburg, Germany, native posting eight points and four rebounds at Shawnee State. He has netted 17 points on 8-of-12 shooting with 10 rebounds over the last three games. Benacek and Dern are combining for 9.5 points and 6.3 rebounds in 32.2 minutes per outing.

Flagler's play erratic to this point

Junior Alex Flagler has been erratic at best on the court to this point in the season, committing almost twice as many turnovers as assists (14 assists, 25 turnovers) and missing a pair of games, one to suspension. The Atlanta, Ga., native scored 17 points with four assists but also five turnovers in the season opener versus

Indiana-Southeast and posted nine points at Fisk University, but again with four turnovers. He has produced more turnovers than assists in six of his seven contests, but is the club's best ball handler. # Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 13th season with the Bulldogs and his 17th as a head coach. The Bulldogs posted a 14-13 mark last season with a roster that included 10 newcomers.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history. Five years ago the Bulldogs made their second consecutive trip to Kansas City, becoming the first squad from CU with back-to-back national tournament appearances.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 204-166 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 280-209 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State and was the unanimous selection for 2004 TranSouth Coach of the Year in just his second season in the conference.

That season, he led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. The 2004 season also saw Thompson capture his 100th career victory as a head coach en route to leading the Bulldogs to the first TranSouth Conference Championship in school history. The program also made the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
