Rushin posts 300-yard passing day in relief

Redshirt sophomore Joseph Rushin passed for over 300 yards in a little less than two quarters two weeks ago at Georgetown College, coming on in relief of an injured Dezmon Huntley. The McDonough, Ga., native completed 14-of-25 for 304 yards and two touchdowns, both to Denarius Toliver, for 81 and 67 yards in the fourth quarter. He also had a 51-yard completion to Toliver and ran for a one-yard TD in the first quarter. It marked the first 300-yard passing day for a CU quarterback since Justin Snyder threw for 301 on October 22, 2016, versus Campbellsville University. Rushin remains tied with Huntley for second in the Mid-South Conference with eight rushing touchdowns this season, seven of those from one yard out. He carried six times for 35 yards with a six-yard TD run in the season opener against Bluefield College and posted a crazy stat line at the University of the Cumberlands, rushing eight times for four yards and four touchdowns with four one-yard TD runs. This season he has rushed 75 times for 268 yards and completed 28-of-53 passes for 468 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions.

O-line a strength for CU

Cumberland ranked 11th nationally in rushing offense per game last season, averaging 232.4 yards per contest with 32 rushing touchdowns. This season the club currently ranks seventh in total rushing offense (1,567 yards) and 14th in rushing offense per game (223.9) through seven games with 23 rushing touchdowns. The unit has also allowed just five sacks through seven contests as well.

Toliver takes advantage of chances

Sophomore Denarius Toliver has seen plenty of action for Cumberland over the last two seasons but his impact in the contest at Georgetown College two weeks ago was easily the biggest of his career. The Chattanooga, Tenn., native caught five passes for 213 yards and two touchdowns, including TD grabs of 81 and 67 yards in the fourth quarter. The 6-foot-3 receiver also made a 51-yard grab in the contest. Toliver has 12 receptions for 341 yards (28.4 yards-

Huntley racks up yards in air, on ground

Redshirt junior Dezmon Huntley ranks fifth in the Mid-South Conference in total offense (1,247 yards), third in rushing yards (445) and 11th in passing yards (802) despite missing all but one series in the last six quarters. He also ranks second in the league and is tied for 12th nationally with eight rushing touchdowns. The Mableton, Ga., continued his impressive work on the ground at Presbyterian College, carrying 10 times for 102 yards and two touchdowns, his second 100-yard rushing game this season and seventh in 13 career contests at CU. Huntley enjoyed the best all-around performance of his career at the University of the Cumberlands on Sept. 2, passing for a career-high 291 yards and rushing for 101 yards and two touchdowns. He accounted for five pass plays of 35 yards or more, including three of 42-plus. He finished 12-of-27 passing for 149 yards and one touchdown and added 63 yards rushing with another TD in the season opener against Bluefield College. He accounted for 150 yards of offense and three touchdowns in one quarter of action versus Webber International and passed for 158 yards and one score and rushed for 39 yards and another TD at Edward Waters. Huntley leads the Phoenix with 445 rushing yards on 64 carries, 7.0 yards-per-attempt, and has passed for 802 yards on 59-of-123 with three TDs and five interceptions.

Parker, Rucker a solid 1-2 punch

Redshirt sophomores Kris Parker and Telvin Rucker combined for 149 rushing yards on 25 carries in the season-opener against Bluefield College, averaging 5.96 yards per attempt. Parker led the team with 76 yards on 14 rushes. The Hoover, Ala., native paced the Phoenix with eight rushing touchdowns in 2016, carrying 64 times for 341 yards overall. The duo combined for 28 rushes for 138 yards at Presbyterian College this season, including a career-best 100 yards on 18 attempts by Parker, who has 314 yards on 67 carries (4.7 yards-per-carry) with two TDs this season. Rucker played mostly special teams last season but burst onto the scene at Edward Waters. The Memphis, Tenn., native rushed 20 times for 140 yards and one touchdown. He carried four times for 35 yards on a TD drive early in the second period and then got all of the carries on a four-play, 63-yard drive, recording gains of five, 16, 11 and 31 yards, the last one for his first career touchdown. He led the Phoenix with 92 yards on just five carries with a 61-yard TD scamper last week versus Cincinnati Christian. For the season he ranks second on the club with 410 yards on 58 attempts, 7.1 yards-per-carry, with two touchdowns.

Emanuel making big plays in secondary

Junior defensive back David Emanuel posted three tackles, one pass breakup and returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown in the victory over Webber International earlier this season. The INT return gave Cumberland a 31-0 lead less than three minutes into the second quarter. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native has two interceptions and a fumble recovery in seven games this season. It marked the first interception return for a TD by a Cumberland player since November 15, 2014, versus Alder-

Defensive scores are the norm for CU

Under head coach and defensive coordinator Donnie Suber, Cumberland has registered 33 defensive touchdowns in nine-plus seasons, which includes interceptions, fumble returns and blocked punts, as well as forcing six safeties. Shedrick Kirk picked up a fumble and returned it 90 yards for a TD at Faulkner University, the only defensive score in 2016. David Emanuel added to the total with a 29-yard interception return for a TD versus Webber International, the first INT return for a TD by a CU player since November 15, 2014, versus Alderson Broaddus. JarVis Ruff forced a fumble near the goal line and Tyler Tate fell on the ball in the end zone for a TD at Edward Waters. Last week versus Cincinnati Christian, Tate returned a fumble 29 yards for a score and Prentiss Sumerall returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown as well. tions. Quarterbacks Dezmon Huntley and Joseph Rushin continue to spread the wealth and hit big plays with everyone. Sophomore Kendall Johnson leads the club with 19 receptions but for just 173 yards with a 36-yarder versus Webber International. Junior Ladarius Rodgers has 16 catches for 184 yards (in five games) with a 44-yard reception at the University of the Cumberland. Sophomore Lorel Morton has posted 10 catches for 168 yards and two TDs, including a 43-yarder at the Cumberland, and junior Marcus Bryson has 13 receptions for 213 yards with a 42-yarder at the Cumberland. Sophomore Denarius Toliver ranks first on the club with 341 yards receiving and three TDs, most of that coming at Georgetown College two weeks ago.

Offense needs to cut down on miscues

After some major struggles with turnovers to end the 2015 campaign, Cumberland's offense kept miscues to a minimum last season, committing only 11 turnovers in 11 games. The Phoenix have not been so lucky so far in 2017, committing 13 turnovers – five fumbles and eight interceptions. CU posted three miscues against Bluefield College and two each versus the University of the Cumberland and Webber International. Cumberland fumbled once at Edward Waters and at Presbyterian College but threw two interceptions at Georgetown College and versus Cincinnati Christian. Bluefield got three points and the Cumberland had 10 off the CU turnovers while Webber International, Edward Waters and Presbyterian did not score after a Phoenix miscue. Georgetown netted seven points off the two CU miscues and Cincinnati Christian also failed to score. In 2015 Cumberland took care of the ball very well in the first five games, committing just six total turnovers, but miscues over the last six contests led directly to five straight defeats. The Phoenix committed 19 turnovers during those last six outings, including four at Campbellsville University and five versus Bethel University. Cumberland opponents feasted on the offense's 25 miscues in 2015, turning those into 115 points, including 24 by Campbellsville and 21 apiece from Bethel and Lindsey Wilson.

Defense needs more turnovers

Cumberland's defense has forced 15 turnovers (11 fumbles, four interceptions) this season, a far better pace than in the previous two campaigns. The unit forced only 13 turnovers in 11 games in 2016 (7 interceptions, 6 fumbles) and had only 12 turnovers in 2015 (6 fumbles, 6 interceptions) after registering between 25 and 32 takeaways every season but one from 2009-14. The unit was on the field for 34-plus minutes on four occasions and Cumberland lost the time of possession battle in seven of the team's 11 contests in 2015. Last year the Phoenix posted a season-high three takeaways versus Campbellsville University and added a pair of interceptions at Kentucky Christian and East Tennessee State. This season the unit posted one turnover in the the season-opener versus Bluefield College, a fourth-quarter interception by David Emanuel, who also recovered a fumble on a kickoff at the University of the Cumberland. Cody Carr fell on a fumble and Emanuel added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown versus Webber International and the Phoenix recovered two fumbles in three straight contests – at Edward Waters, at Presbyterian College and at Georgetown College, turning those four miscues into 35 points. Last week Cumberland had three fumble recoveries and two interceptions, scoring 21 points on those turnovers.

Patrick named MSC Defensive POW

Cumberland's DeAnthony Patrick was named the Mid-South Conference Football Defensive Player of the Week on September 25 after registering a career-best 14 tackles in CU's 27-20 loss at NCAA Division I FCS Presbyterian College. The Nashville, Tenn., native was all over the field, making 13 stops over the final three quarters, including one tackle for loss. The senior safety posted one more stop than his previous career-best of 13 tackles at UT Martin on Sept. 11, 2014, and it marked his third career double-digit tackle performance. Patrick collected nine stops at the University of the Cumberland and seven at Edward Waters earlier this season.

Travecedo garners Mid-South Conference Player of the Week accolades

Cumberland's Pablo Dongarra Travecedo was voted Mid-South Conference Bluegrass Division Special Teams Player of the Week on August 28 after hitting three extra points and one field goal in CU's 24-17 victory over Bluefield

College. The Guayaquil, Ecuador, native connected on three extra points and booted a 37-yard field goal in his Cumberland debut. The wind knocked down his last kickoff of the game and the ball bounced away from the return men, a fumble the Phoenix recovered that led to his field goal late in the third quarter. Cumberland was just 2-of-7 in field goal tries last season and 3-for-13 over the last two years before Travecedo's 37-yarder versus Bluefield.

Cumberland sweeps weekly MSC awards

Cumberland's Dezmon Huntley, David Emanuel and Pablo Dongarra Travecedo swept the Mid-South Conference Bluegrass Division Player of the Week awards on September 11 after their performances in a 38-24 victory over Webber International. Huntley passed for a touchdown and ran for two TDs in less than a quarter of action, accounting for 150 yards of total offense. He tossed a 24-yard TD to Lorel Morton for the team's first touchdown of the game and rushed 13 yards for a score on the next possession. He then scampered 55 yards for a TD, pushing the CU lead to 24-0 with 3:29 left in the opening period. Emanuel posted three tackles, one pass breakup and returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown. The INT return gave CU a 31-0 lead less than three minutes into the second quarter. It was the fourth interception of Emanuel's Phoenix career. Travecedo made a 22-yard field goal for CU's first points of the contest and added five extra points in the victory.

Campagne named TSWA Player of the Week

Cumberland's Alex Campagne was named the Tennessee Sports Writers Association Defensive Player of the Week on August 31, collecting 11 tackles and one tackle for loss in CU's 24-17 victory against Bluefield College. It marked the first double-digit tackle performance of Campagne's career. He posted nine stops twice last season – versus Campbellsville University and at Bethel University. He collected four solo tackles in the contest. Cumberland limited Bluefield to just 322 yards of total offense, including 208 in the final three quarters.

Phoenix look to continue winning ways

Cumberland has compiled a 44-32 mark over the previous seven seasons, the best seven-year run in program history. The Phoenix posted 8-3 records in 2010 and 2012 and a 7-3 mark in 2011, playing for the division championship in all three campaigns. The squad was 7-4 overall in 2013, winning seven of its final nine outings, and finished 6-5 in 2014. CU ranks fourth in total victories among the 18 football-playing schools in the state of Tennessee since the start of the 2010 season heading into this week's game. Carson-Newman (55-31) and Chattanooga (53-38) sit atop the standings, followed by Tennessee (51-42) and Cumberland (49-34). The football-playing schools in the state include Austin Peay, Carson-Newman, Chattanooga, Cumberland, East Tennessee State (since 2015), Lane College, Rhodes College, Maryville College, Memphis, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech, Tusculum College, University of the South, UT Martin and Vanderbilt.

Head Coach Donnie Suber

Fifth Season as HC/10th Season as Defensive Coordinator/
Defensive Backs Coach

Donnie Suber was named head coach at Cumberland University on January 28, 2013, the fifth head coach of the program since it was revived in 1990. He begins his fifth year as head coach and 10th season in his third stint at Cumberland, serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. He has worked as an assistant or head coach at the collegiate level for the past 24 years, 13 of those at CU.

Suber has compiled a 21-23 mark over four seasons as head coach with the Phoenix, including a combined 13-9 in his first two campaigns. Cumberland rebounded from a disappointing 3-8 year in 2015 with a 5-6 mark last season that included four losses by a combined 15 points. During his tenure as head coach, CU has earned 27 First or Second Team All-Mid-South Conference honors while collecting a pair of MSC Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

In addition 78 players have been named Academic All-Mid-South and 37 have garnered Daktronics-NAIA Scholar-Athlete recognition.

The Phoenix continued their recent winning ways in Suber's first year at the helm of the program, winning four straight games in the middle of the year and seven of the final nine outings to finish 7-4, the club's fourth consecutive winning season. Nathan Jernigan was voted the Mid-South Conference West Division Freshman of the Year. Cumberland also led the Mid-South Conference with 28 Academic All-MSC selections and ranked No. 1 in the nation for the second straight year with 16 Daktronics-NAIA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2014 the Phoenix ended the year 6-5 overall, losing its last three games thanks to a slew of injuries. Six players garnered All-Mid-South Conference recognition, including defenders Grant Jones, Justus Daus-cha and Jernigan on the First Team.

Cumberland stood 3-3 midway through the 2015 campaign after a pair of victories and two early-season defeats to NCAA Division II institutions. Injuries and a sluggish offense led to a five-game losing streak to end the year. Eight players earned All-MSC honors, including defenders Cayman Russell and Jernigan on the First Team and Dauscha on the Second Team. Jernigan was voted MSC West Co-Defensive Player of the Year and First Team Academic All-America as well.

Cumberland's defense allowed 61.1 less rushing yards per game in 2016, helping the unit improve from 59th to 22nd in rushing yards allowed per game (140.4) and give up 12.0 fewer points per game, going from 72nd to 45th nationally. The unit also posted 28 sacks, ranking 21st in the country.

CU lost 33-29 in the season opener to Lindsey Wilson and dropped a 27-26 decision on the road at D-II Mississippi College on a last-second field goal. The club was on the wrong end of a 31-28 decision at Faulkner University and lost the season finale, 23-16, at East Tennessee State.

Four Cumberland players received All-MSC accolades, including defenders Dauscha and Jernigan, with Jernigan earning his second straight MSC West Defensive Player of the Year honor.

Suber earned his bachelor's in Recreation and Hotel Management from Georgia Southern in 1990 and played on NCAA Division I-AA national championship teams as a defensive back in 1986, 1989 and 1990.

His first coaching position was at Cumberland University as the defensive backs and strength coach as a graduate assistant. Suber earned his master's from Cumberland in Organizational Behavior in 1993.

He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as the restricted earnings coach in charge of defensive backs before coming back to Cumberland for two years in 1995-96 as defensive backs coach and men's and women's golf coach. The Columbia, S.C., native then spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator, defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Newberry College.

In 2001 he held the same positions at Benedict College before serving as the linebackers coach in 2002 and then the receivers coach from 2003-06 at Presbyterian College.
