Cumberland hits the road for the first time in 2017, taking on the University of the Cumberlands in Williamsburg, Ky. The Patriots lead the all-time series, 12-9. Cumberland won seven of the first nine meetings between the two clubs, but the Patriots have claimed 10 of the last 12. Huntley starts slow but finishes well in win

Redshirt junior Dezmon Huntley started shaky in last week's season-opener against Bluefield College, fumbling a pair of shotgun snaps, air-mailing a couple of passes and starting the game 0-for-5 passing in the first quarter. The Mableton, Ga., native settled down over the final three periods, accounting for 212 yards of total offense and two touchdowns in the 24-17 victory. Huntley hit Denarius Toliver for an eight-yard TD pass in the second quarter, tying the game at seven, and his six-yard TD run in the third period gave CU a 21-7 advantage. He finished 12-of-27 passing for 149 yards, one TD and two interceptions and added 63 yards rushing on 15 carries with one TD. He was also 6-for-11 passing for 62 yards and one TD on third down. Huntley missed four games and parts of two others in an injury-plagued 2016

Despite the time missed, he led the Phoenix in rushing last year with 745 yards on 111 attempts, 6.7 yards per carry, with six touchdowns, while passing for 855 yards on 61-of-104 with three TDs and two interceptions. He ranked seventh in the Mid-South Conference in total offense with 1,600 yards and eighth in rushing yards. He rushed for over 100 yards in five of his seven outings.

O-line a strength for CU

Cumberland ranked 11th nationally in rushing offense per game last season, averaging 232.4 yards per contest with 32 rushing touchdowns. The Phoenix return four starters on the offensive line who have a combined 81 career starts heading into the 2017 campaign. Senior Nick Bodden has played in 28 games with 25 starts while Chandler Peebles has played in 28 outings with 27 starts. Senior Jason Smith transferred from Eastern Kentucky two years ago and has started 20 of the 22 contests the last two seasons and junior Jeff Benson saw action in all 11 games last year with nine starts.

Parker, Rucker a solid 1-2 punch

Redshirt sophomores Kris Parker and Telvin Rucker combined for 149 rushing yards on 25 carries in last week's season-opener against Bluefield College, averaging 5.96 yards per attempt. Parker led the team with 76 yards on 14 rushes. The Hoover, Ala., native led the Phoenix with eight rushing touchdowns in 2016, carrying 64 times for 341 yards overall, including 92 yards with one TD against Reinhardt University and 65 yards with another score versus Campbellsville University. Rucker played mostly special teams last season but got a late-season audition because of injuries at Bethel University, rushing four times for 26 yards. The Memphis, Tenn., native produced 73 yards on 11 attempts against Bluefield.

Phoenix trying to get Johnson more touches

Kendall Johnson burst onto the scene in the 2016 season opener against Lindsey Wilson, scoring the team's first two touchdowns in the game, and put together his best all-around game of the season against Campbellsville University. The Nashville, Tenn., native rushed 18 times for 104 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter versus the Tigers. He also caught five passes for 46 yards and returned a pair of kickoffs for 60 yards, amassing 210 all-purpose yards in the

Defensive scores are the norm for CU

Under head coach and defensive coordinator Donnie Suber, Cumberland has registered 29 defensive touchdowns in nine-plus seasons, which includes interceptions, fumble returns and blocked punts, as well as forcing six safeties. The Phoenix registered three defensive scores in 2015, with Nathan Anderson blocking a punt out of the end zone for a safety at West Alabama and Anthony Knight picking up a blocked extra point and returning it 85 yards for two points at Valdosta State. At the University of Pikeville, Anderson blocked his second punt of the season and returned it six yards for the TD. Shedrick Kirk picked up a fumble and returned it 90 yards for a TD at Faulkner University, the only defensive score for the Phoenix in 2016. The chart above has a complete listing of all defensive scores under Suber.

Defense needs more turnovers

Cumberland's defense forced only 13 turnovers in 11 games in 2016 – seven interceptions and six fumble recoveries. The unit forced only 12 turnovers in 2015 – six fumbles and six interceptions – after registering 27 takeaways in 2014 and between 25 and 32 takeaways every season but one from 2009-14. The lack of turnovers did not provide short fields to a struggling offense and also contributed to the defense staying on the field for long stretches of the game. The unit was on the field for 34-plus minutes on four occasions and Cumberland lost the time of possession battle in seven of the team's 11 contests in 2015. Last year the Phoenix posted a season-high three takeaways versus Campbellsville University with two fumbles and one interception and added a pair of interceptions at Kentucky Christian and East Tennessee State. Shedrick Kirk provided the only defensive touchdown of 2016, returning a fumble 90 yards for a TD at Faulkner University, the first defensive score for the Phoenix since October 3, 2015 at the University of Pikeville. The unit posted one turnover in last week's season-opener versus Bluefield College, a fourth-quarter interception by David Emanuel.

Offense keeps turnovers to a minimum

After some major struggles with turnovers to end the 2015 campaign, Cumberland's offense kept miscues to a minimum last season, committing only 11 turnovers in 11 games. The Phoenix fumbled twice against the University of Pikeville and had two miscues versus Campbellsville University, leading to a pair of Tiger touchdowns. CU did not commit a turnover in four outings last year. In 2015 Cumberland took care of the ball very well in the first five games, committing just six total turnovers, but miscues over the last six contests led directly to five straight defeats. The Phoenix committed 19 turnovers during those last six outings, including four at Campbellsville and five versus Bethel University. Cumberland opponents feasted on the offense's 25 miscues in 2015, turning those into 115 points, including 24 by Campbellsville and 21 apiece from Bethel and Lindsey Wilson. Cumberland committed three miscues in last week's season-opener versus Bluefield College, two interceptions and a fumble, but they turned into just three points for the Rams.

Phoenix look to continue winning ways

Cumberland has compiled a 44-32 mark over the previous seven seasons, the best seven-

Head Coach Donnie Suber

Fifth Season as HC/10th Season as Defensive Coordinator/
Defensive Backs Coach

Donnie Suber was named head coach at Cumberland University on January 28, 2013, the fifth head coach of the program since it was revived in 1990. He begins his fifth year as head coach and 10th season in his third stint at Cumberland, serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. He has worked as an assistant or head coach at the collegiate level for the past 24 years, 13 of those at CU.

Suber has compiled a 21-23 mark over four seasons as head coach with the Phoenix, including a combined 13-9 in his first two campaigns. Cumberland rebounded from a disappointing 3-8 year in 2015 with a 5-6 mark last season that included four losses by a combined 15 points. During his tenure as head coach, CU has earned 27 First or Second Team All-Mid-South Conference honors while collecting a pair of MSC Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

In addition 78 players have been named Academic All-Mid-South and 37 have garnered Daktronics-NAIA Scholar-Athlete recognition.

The Phoenix continued their recent winning ways in Suber's first year at the helm of the program, winning four straight games in the middle of the year and seven of the final nine outings to finish 7-4, the club's fourth consecutive winning season. Nathan Jernigan was voted the Mid-South Conference West Division Freshman of the Year. Cumberland also led the Mid-South Conference with 28 Academic All-MSC selections and ranked No. 1 in the nation for the second straight year with 16 Daktronics-NAIA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2014 the Phoenix ended the year 6-5 overall, losing its last three games thanks to a slew of injuries. Six players garnered All-Mid-South Conference recognition, including defenders Grant Jones, Justus Daus-cha and Jernigan on the First Team.

Cumberland stood 3-3 midway through the 2015 campaign after a pair of victories and two early-season defeats to NCAA Division II institutions. Injuries and a sluggish offense led to a five-game losing streak to end the year. Eight players earned All-MSC honors, including defenders Cayman Russell and Jernigan on the First Team and Dauscha on the Second Team. Jernigan was voted MSC West Co-Defensive Player of the Year and First Team Academic All-America as well.

Cumberland's defense allowed 61.1 less rushing yards per game in 2016, helping the unit improve from 59th to 22nd in rushing yards allowed per game (140.4) and give up 12.0 fewer points per game, going from 72nd to 45th nationally. The unit also posted 28 sacks, ranking 21st in the country.

CU lost 33-29 in the season opener to Lindsey Wilson and dropped a 27-26 decision on the road at D-II Mississippi College on a last-second field goal. The club was on the wrong end of a 31-28 decision at Faulkner University and lost the season finale, 23-16, at East Tennessee State.

Four Cumberland players received All-MSC accolades, including defenders Dauscha and Jernigan, with Jernigan earning his second straight MSC West Defensive Player of the Year honor.

Suber earned his bachelor's in Recreation and Hotel Management from Georgia Southern in 1990 and played on NCAA Division I-AA national championship teams as a defensive back in 1986, 1989 and 1990.

His first coaching position was at Cumberland University as the defensive backs and strength coach as a graduate assistant. Suber earned his master's from Cumberland in Organizational Behavior in 1993.

He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as the restricted earnings coach in charge of defensive backs before coming back to Cumberland for two years in 1995-96 as defensive backs coach and men's and women's golf coach. The Columbia, S.C., native then spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator, defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Newberry College.

In 2001 he held the same positions at Benedict College before serving as the linebackers coach in 2002 and then the receivers coach from 2003-06 at Presbyterian College.
