vs.

VANDERBILT (27-6, 10-2 SEC)

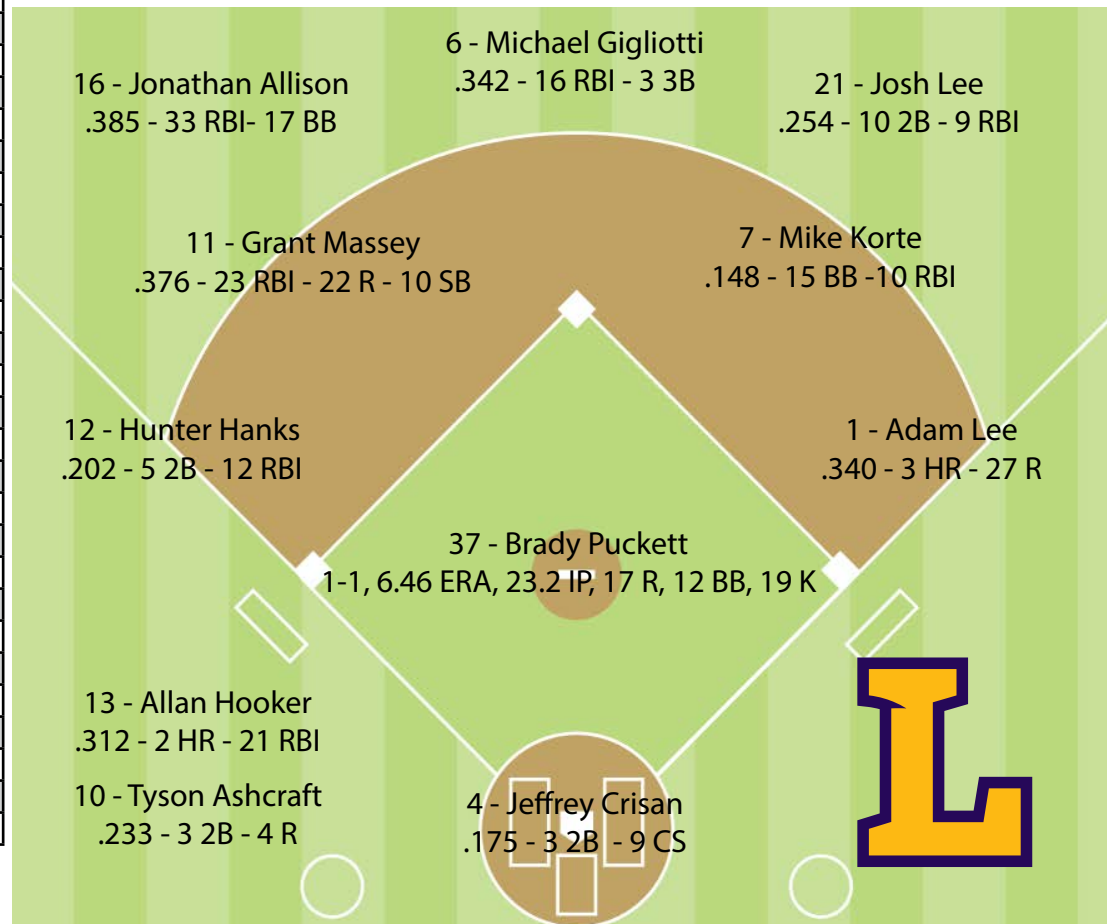

Game 30
Hawkins Field

Around the horn...

- The two teams have met 19 times in the NCAA era for the Bisons. Vanderbilt owns a 17-2 advantage in the all-time series. The Bisons are 1-10 all-time at Hawkins Field with the lone win coming in 2006.
- Grant Massey enters the contest riding a conference-leading 17-game hitting streak. The senior shortstop has also reached base in 19 straight.
- The Bisons possess some of the top speed in the country on the base paths. They are second in the conference and 36th in the nation having swiped 46 stolen bases.
- Puckett will be making his third-career start against the Doers. The Murfreesboro native was outstanding in a complete-game effort over Middle Tennessee two weeks ago. He allowed one run on six hits while striking out four. Puckett sat down 16-consecutive Blue Raiders during the game.
- Lipscomb is second in the A-Sun and 25th nationally with a .976 fielding percentage.

PROBABLE STARTING LINEUP

With over 300 collegiate wins under his belt, Jeff Forehand was named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007.

Under his direction, the Bisons reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history in 2008 behind an Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament Championship. A major underdog, Lipscomb traveled to Athens, Ga., taking out host Georgia in the opening round before falling to Georgia Tech in round two. That setup a rematch with the Bulldogs and Georgia prevailed in round two ending the Bison first NCAA Regional.

Forehand's 2009 club came within one win of back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament falling in the A-Sun championship game. That season would see another milestone for Forehand's program as pitcher Rex Brothers would become the second Lipscomb player drafted in the top round of the Major League Baseball draft. Taken as the 34th overall pick in the draft by the Colorado Rockies, the hard-throwing lefty made a quick rise to the majors making his MLB debut June 6th, 2011 with a 96 mph fastball against the San Diego Padres.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand however, as a number of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day. Casey Bond, who plays in the Hollywood feature film Moneyball and John King got the trend started in Forehand's first season in 2007 as both were selected by the San Francisco Giants. A right-handed pitcher, King was a 17th-round selection, while Bond got the call in the 25th round. Also among the Lipscomb standouts who have been drafted under Forehand are catcher Caleb Joesph, who was drafted in the seventh round by the Baltimore Orioles in 2008, and righty hurler Josh Smith, who was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 21st round in 2010.

With Forehand's leadership, the Bisons have had nine selections on the A-Sun All-Conference team and over 80 honorees on the league's All-Academic Team. The Bison have also placed nine players on the A-Sun All-Freshmen team including Brothers, who was A-Sun Freshman of the Year in 2007.

Prior to taking over the Lipscomb program in 07, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene where he led the Trojans to a 211-

142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NAIA Region XI Coach of the year and was twice named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom as the team grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004) and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each were selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School where in seven seasons he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Prior to taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand served as an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City", the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1999. Forehand also holds a Masters of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.

Johnny Baseball...

Jonathan Allison has been a consistent offensive threat for the Bisons at the plate. The senior outfielder is raking .385 (53rd) with 33 RBI (27th), 10 doubles (99th). He ranks second in the A-Sun and 85th in the country with a .469 on-base percentage, while his .606 slugging percentage ranks third and 86th.

Award Status...

Allison was named A-Sun co-Player of the Week last Monday after helping lead Lipscomb to a 4-1 week with wins over Belmont, Middle Tennessee and Georgetown. The lefty finished the stretch 10-for-19 (.526) with nine RBI, a double and a home run. He also scored six runs, drew four walks and swiped four bags.

Pitching Strength...

Lipscomb's pitching staff carries a 4.22 ERA, but leads the A-Sun in hits allowed (251), runs allowed (146) and is second in opposing batting average (.265).

Coming Home...

RS-Senior Josh Lee returns to face his former team on Tuesday. Lee signed with Vandy and played for the Dores in 2012 before transferring to Central Arizona College.

Extra Special...

The Bisons have swung the bat well this year when it comes to extra-base hits. Their 12 triples rank 22nd in the country, while their 58 doubles stand 49th.

Freshman Phenom...

Centerfielder Michael Gigliotti is 12-for-19 on bunt attempts this season.

300 Club...

Five Bisons are batting over .300 (Allison-.385, Massey - .376, Gigliotti - .342, A. Lee - .340, Hooker-.312)

Golden Arm...

Freshman Jeffrey Crisan leads the A-Sun having thrown out nine attempted base stealers – that total is three more than any other player. Tyler Bethune led Lipscomb last season with 11.

Hot Start...

The 18-11 start to the season ties the best start through 29 games in the school's NCAA era. Lipscomb also started 18-11 last season.

Bisons picked third in A-Sun Preseason Poll...

Lipscomb was picked to finish third in the conference by the league's coaches. Kennesaw State and Florida Gulf Coast were tabbed first and second.

400 and counting for Forehand

Jeff Forehand returns for his ninth season as skipper for the Bisons. The Nashville native won his 400th career collegiate victory last season against Oakland on March 8. Forehand has compiled a (443-309-1) overall coaching record. He is 224-263 with Lipscomb.

5-yr-old Russell latest Bison added to roster...

On national signing day last season, the Bisons added a 5-star recruit to the squad as cancer survivor Brooks Russell signed his National Letter of Intent in front of a packed room of Lipscomb supporters. Russell inked his name on the NLI and then took time to chat with the throng of media and sign some autographs for his adoring fans. The youngest member of the Bisons team was also on hand for opening day in 2014 to throw out the first pitch. Russell was partnered with Lipscomb baseball through the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation that partners cancer patients and survivors with collegiate sports teams.

2015 class ranked in top-100...

For the second consecutive season the Lipscomb baseball team is soaring to new heights with a back-to-back top-100 signing class as head coach Jeff Forehand has added 10 players to the 2016 roster in the early signing period. PerfectGame.org ranks the Bisons' 2015 signing class at 61st in the nation, making it the highest ranked class in school history and moving 20 spots higher than last season's 81st. Lipscomb comes in third in the state only behind Vanderbilt (#1) and Tennessee (#13).
