Game 4

Charles Hawkins Field

Around the horn...

- Wednesday afternoon's contest marks the first of only eight nonconference road contests for the Bisons in 2013-14.
- The two teams have met 18 times in the NCAA era for the Bisons. Vanderbilt owns a 16-2 advantage in the all-time series. The Bisons are 1-9 all-time at Hawkins Field with the lone win coming in 2006.
- The 2013 contest between the Bisons and Dores saw Vandy come out on top 4-1 in a game that saw the execution of the rare triple steal.
- RS-Junior Josh Lee returns to face his former team on Wednesday. Lee signed with Vandy and played for the Dores in 2012 before transferring to Central Arizona College.
- The Bisons return home this weekend hosting part of the 2014 "Mule Mix Classic" in conjunction with Belmont and Middle Tennessee. The event opens with a Friday afternoon contest against Indiana State before a matinee game against Dayton on Saturday. The event concludes with a tilt against Miami (Ohio) on Sunday.

With over 300 collegiate wins under his belt, Jeff Forehand was named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007.

Under his direction, the Bison reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history in 2008 behind an Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament Championship. A major underdog, Lipscomb traveled to Athens, Ga., taking out host Georgia in the opening round before falling to Georgia Tech in round two. That setup a rematch with the Bulldogs and Georgia prevailed in round two ending the Bison first NCAA Regional.

Forehand's 2009 club came within one win of back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament falling in the A-Sun championship game. That season would see another milestone for Forehand's program as pitcher Rex Brothers would become the second Lipscomb player drafted in the top round of the Major League Baseball draft. Taken as the 34th overall pick in the draft by the Colorado Rockies, the hard-throwing lefty made a quick rise to the majors making his MLB debut June 6th, 2011 with a 96 mph fastball against the San Diego Padres.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand however, as a number of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day. Casey Bond, who plays in the Hollywood feature film Moneyball and John King got the trend started in Forehand's first season in 2007 as both were selected by the San Francisco Giants. A right-handed pitcher, King was a 17th-round selection, while Bond got the call in the 25th round. Also among the Lipscomb standouts who have been drafted under Forehand are catcher Caleb Joesph, who was drafted in the seventh round by the Baltimore Orioles in 2008, and righty hurler Josh Smith, who was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 21st round in 2010.

With Forehand's leadership, the Bison have had seven selections on the A-Sun All-Conference team and over 80 honorees on the league's All-Academic Team. The Bison have also placed eight players on the A-Sun All-Freshmen team including Brothers, who was A-Sun Freshman of the Year in 2007.

Prior to taking over the Lipscomb program in 07, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene where he led the Trojans to a 211-142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NAIA Region XI Coach of the year and was twice named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom as the team grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004) and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each were selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School where in seven seasons he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Prior to taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand served as an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City", the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1999. Forehand also holds a Masters of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.

400 for Forehand

Jeff Forehand returns for his eighth season as skipper for the Bisons. The Nashville native is just eight wins away from his 400th career collegiate victory (392-370-1) heading into 2014. He is 173-224 in seven campaigns with Lipscomb.

Bisons picked seventh in A-Sun Preseason poll

The Bisons were tabbed to finish seventh in the Atlantic Sun Conference standings by the league's coaches. Mercer was picked to repeat as league champions with seven first-place votes. The Bears were followed by North Florida and FGCU to round out the top three.

5-yr-old Russell latest Bison added to roster...

On national signing day, the Bisons added a 5-star recruit to the squad as cancer survivor Brooks Russell signed his National Letter of Intent in front of a packed room of Lipscomb supporters. Russell inked his name on the NLI and then took time to chat with the throng of media and sign some autographs for his adoring fans. The youngest member of the Bisons team was also on hand for opening day to throw out the first pitch. Russell was partnered with Lipscomb baseball through the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation that partners cancer patients and survivors with collegiate sports teams.

2015 class ranked in top-100...

The Bisons 2015 class signed last fall became the first group to rank in the top-100 rankings by Perfect Game. Lipscomb finished ranked 81st trailing only Vanderbilt and Tennessee inside the state lines.
