WEEK 8 PREVIEW

The second full week of PFL action this season puts all three of the league's unbeaten on the road. Butler travels to Campbell for the second straight season, Drake completes a 5,586-mile, two-week road trip when it travels to Davidson and Dayton heads north to Valparaiso. Meanwhile, Marist and Morehead State meet for the first time and Jacksonville literally goes coast-to-coast to meet San Diego.

Butler remained one of five overall unbeaten FCS squads with its win last week and will travel to North Carolina to face Campbell, whose lone win this season came at Barker-Lane Stadium. The Bulldogs are 6-0 for the first time since 1991 after they eked out a victory against Valparaiso in Week 7. Meanwhile, the Camels have lost five straight since its season-opening home victory, but showed promise against in a loss to Old Dominion last week.

Drake, another of the three PFL unbeaten, makes its own trek to North Carolina to meet Davidson. The Bulldogs traveled to San Diego in Week 7 and came out with a victory and now head to the nation's other coast to complete a two-week road trip of 5,586 miles. Davidson returns home after suffering a shutout loss at Dayton. The last two games in this series have been close, with a margin of three points each time – Davidson winning 24-21 at home in 2007 and Drake returning the favor with a 20-17 home win in 2008.

Following an off week, Marist returns to PFL action when it travels to Morehead State. The Red Foxes won their last two contests, leveling its PFL record at .500, before reaching their off week. Morehead State returns home looking to stop its four-game losing streak. Eagles head coach Matt Ballard will coach Saturday's affair in his bare feet in support of Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization whose goal is to provide shoes to impoverished children around the world.

Dayton, one of the three PFL's 3-0 squads, travels to Valparaiso. The Flyers have won five straight since senior Steve Valentino moved under center, including a shutout win of Davidson in Week 7. The Crusaders saw their upset bid turned aside at Butler last week and face their second-straight unbeaten PFL squad while still seeking their first PFL victory.

Jacksonville is still looking to remain within sight of the league leaders and will travel to San Diego in a coast-to-coast excursion. The Dolphins suffered their only loss in Week 6 but rebounded with a shutout home win last week and are one game behind the leaders. The Toreros stay home after suffering a late-game loss to unbeaten Drake in Torero Stadium last week.
