WEEK 2 PREVIEW

DAYTON will meet its second-straight Northeast Conference opponent when it travels to Duquesne. The Flyers grabbed the series lead with last season's 24-17 victory. Senior quarterback Steve Valentino earned the PFL's first weekly offensive honor after surpassing both the 200-yard passing and 100-yard rushing marks against Robert Morris. CAMPBELL returns home after a successful season-opener on the road to face Old Dominion, which lost to Jacksonville in week one. The Camels saw senior quarterback Daniel Polk record two rushing touchdowns and 224 yards total offense in their opener. MOREHEAD STATE will seek redemption against St. Francis, which won last season's meeting for its first win in the series. Sophomore quarterback Zach Lewis will seek to rebound from an 85-yard passing effort at nationally-ranked James Madison. VALPARAISO seeks to end its 10-game losing streak when it travels to face Franklin. It will not be easy for the Crusaders who trail the series and lost the last three meetings. Valparaiso sophomore punter Greg Wood was called on to punt nine times in his first collegiate appearance and handled the duties admirably, downing three inside the 20-yard line. DRAKE will look to rebound from its home-opening loss when it travels to Missouri S&T, an opponent it has not lost to in four previous meetings. The Bulldogs must avoid looking ahead to next week's showdown at nationally-ranked Montana. JACKSONVILLE may have the toughest task of any PFL member in week two, traveling to nationally-ranked Appalachian State. The Dolphins will take a four-game win streak into Boone, N.C., its longest such streak since a seven-game stretch in 2008 which led to the PFL title. Senior running back Rudell Small ran for 118 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Dolphins week one victory. BUTLER will face its only scholarship opponent this season when it travels to Youngstown State. The Bulldogs won their season-opener and have won 12 of their last 13 outings dating back to last season. Junior quarterback Andrew Huck passed for 222 yards and three touchdowns in week one. MARIST continues its season-opening three-game homestand when it hosts Bucknell. Games between the Red Foxes and Bison have been nail biters with five points separating the two teams in the last two meetings, but Marist remains winless in the series. DAVIDSON opens its road slate with a visit to Lenoir-Rhyne, a close series the Bears won last season's meeting by an uncharacteristic 42-0 score. Wildcat running back Kenny Mantuo needs 72 yards to break into the program's top-10 on the career rushing chart. SAN DIEGO will face the first of two consecutive Great West Conference opponents when it travels to Southern Utah. Last year's meeting was particularly memorable for sophomore quarterback Bo Stompro, who earned that week's PFL offensive honor after tossing five touchdowns in the 37-32 loss.
