WEEK 6 PREVIEW

DAVIDSON returns to action following an off week when it hosts BUTLER, which hits the road following its first back-to-back losses since the 2008 campaign. The Bulldogs have not won in three previous visits to Richardson Stadium. The last three meetings in the series have been decided by 12 points or less. Davidson has relied on running back Kenny Mantuo this season and he has 71 carries for 339 yards and three touchdowns in four games. Butler linebacker Jordan Ridley leads the Bulldogs defense with a league-best 58 tackles in five games 🏈 DRAKE and JACKSONVILLE square off in a battle of two of the league's remaining three unbeaten teams. Drake won last season's meeting in Des Moines, 45-38, but Jacksonville won the last time the two teams played in Florida, 41-9, in 2008. Jacksonville has rolled up three consecutive games of 500 or more yards and leads the PFL with 464.6 yards per game. Drake just held Marist to 77 yards and is the league's top-rated defense, holding opponents to 294.4 yards per game 🏈 MARIST will make its second trip westward when it visits VALPARAISO, as both teams seek their season's first PFL victory. The game could be a pass-heavy affair as the Crusaders rank ninth in rushing (41.0 ypg) followed by the Red Foxes in 10th (31.8 ypg). Marist linebacker Tyler Ramsey is second among PFL tacklers with 9.5 tackles per game in four outings. Linebacker Matt Heinen leads Valparaiso with 7.2 tackles per game (8th in PFL) 🏈 DAYTON makes the big trip out west with a visit to SAN DIEGO, which returns home after a coast-to-coast trip to Jacksonville in Week 4. San Diego's offense has emerged in recent weeks, scoring more than 24 points in each of its last three games, but the Toreros are just 1-2 in those games. Dayton's boasts the league's top-ranked scoring offense (37.2 ppg) and the league's top-ranked scoring defense (20.8 ppg) after five weeks. Kicker Nick Glavin leads Dayton in scoring and is second among all PFL scorers, averaging 7.2 points per game with 24 PATs and four field goals. The Toreros have turned to Mason Mills who has made the last three starts at quarterback and has completed 63.5 percent of his passes and throw four touchdowns.
