WEEK 9 PREVIEW

The PFL's two newest members will meet for the second time when MARIST makes its first-ever trip to meet CAMPBELL. The Red Foxes downed the Camels for their first PFL victory in last season's meeting. Campbell has yet to win at Barker-Lane Stadium this season with its last three home losses coming by less than three points each. Marist will be playing its final PFL road contest this season and its lone PFL win came at Valparaiso in Week 6. Marist owns the league's third-ranked passing offense (236.9 ypg) with quarterback Tommy Reilly (199.1 ypg) manning the helm. Campbell boasts the league's second-ranked rushing attack (179.4 ypg) with three rushers among the league's top 10 🏈 DAYTON takes its seven-game PFL win streak on the road where it will face DAVIDSON, which has not won a home game in 2010. The Flyers are ranked second in both total offense (382.2 ypg) and total defense (319.6 ypg) as the offensive line has allowed the fewest sacks (seven) while the defensive unit has posted the most sacks (25). Davidson has turned to freshman quarterback Jonathan Carkhuff this season and he broke a 37-year old school record with 41 completions (56 attempts) in last week's loss 🏈 JACKSONVILLE will put its eight-game PFL win streak on the line with a trip to MOREHEAD STATE. The Dolphins have won the last four meetings in the series, but the Eagles won the four meetings prior to that streak. Jacksonville has been a team on a mission the last six weeks, averaging 549.7 yards per game, and it has taken over the FCS lead in scoring (43.5 ppg) and offensive yardage (506.0 ypg). Morehead State is ranked third among PFL teams in total offense (338.9 ypg). The game will feature the league's top two quarterbacks in total offense, the Dolphins' Josh McGregor leading the way with 286.2 yards per game followed by the Eagles' Zach Lewis who is averaging 275.0 yards per game 🏈 BUTLER and VALPARAISO will renew the battle for the Hoosier Helmet, which has been contested since the 2006 campaign. The Bulldogs have won the Helmet in three of the four campaigns it has been available. Butler is ranked fourth in total offense, averaging 330.1 yards per game, but has been unable to translate the yardage into points as it ranks eighth in scoring with 16.4 points per game. Valparaiso reached double-digits in scoring for the third time this season with 10 points in last week's loss 🏈 PFL fourth-place SAN DIEGO will host third-place DRAKE in what promises to be league's best game according to relative position in the standings. The Toreros hold the advantage in offense (318.2-297.0) but the Bulldogs own the advantage in defense (322.2-334.9). Defensively, San Diego defensive end Mario Kern leads the PFL in tackles for loss (1.94 pg) and sacks (1.31 pg) while Drake's Dain Taylor is second in tackles for loss (1.88 pg) and third in sacks (1.00 pg).

CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

◀ Jordan Dewhirst, Jacksonville

Sophomore, Defensive Back, Fort White, Fla.

Dewhirst tied the NCAA Division I record with a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown in Jacksonville's 56-14 PFL victory against Marist, Saturday. The interception came in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter and killed a Marist drive that had reached the 14-yard line. It is the second interception returned 100 yards in the FCS this season. He also recorded a pair of tackles and a pass breakup in the contest. It was Dewhirst's third interception this season.

James Vercammen, Dayton ▶

Senior, Flyer, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

Vercammen forced two critical fourth-quarter fumbles to help Dayton down Campbell, 41-23, in PFL action, Saturday. His tackle of C.J. Oates led to a fumble that Dayton recovered at the Campbell 34-yard line and set up the Flyers second score of the quarter. Vercammen's second fumble came on the Camels ensuing drive, his sack of quarterback Daniel Polk stopping the drive at the Dayton 44-yard line and setting up the Flyers third scoring drive of the frame. Vercammen finished with a PFL season-best tying 17 tackles (eight solo) and 1½ tackles for loss, including the quarterback sack.
