WEEK 10 PREVIEW

JACKSONVILLE, the 2008 PFL champion, and BUTLER, a 2009 PFL co-champion, will square off in Indianapolis. Jacksonville has won all five previous meetings in the series, including last season's contest in Jacksonville which prevented Butler from winning the title outright. The Dolphins have scored more than 50 points in each of their last three outings while the Bulldogs 48-point total in Week 9 was a season-high. Jacksonville's Josh McGregor threw for a PFL-record tying seven touchdowns last week and has 29 touchdown passes this season. Butler quarterback Andrew Huck has completed 60 percent of his passes this season and has 10 touchdown tosses 🏈 The week's other key contest will pit league co-leader and defending co-champion DAYTON against second-place DRAKE in Dayton. The Flyers, who have won eight straight PFL games, have quietly kept pace with the high-flying Dolphins in search of their 11 PFL title. They will have to get past a Bulldogs squad that has averaged 40 points in its last two games and brings a three-game win streak into Saturday's meeting. Dayton quarterback Steve Valentino leads all PFL quarterbacks in rushing, averaging 62.1 yards per game. Drake's Pat Cashmore (seven TDs) and Steve Platek (six TDs) are both ranked among the league's top 10 in touchdowns scored 🏈 DAVIDSON will make its first trip to MARIST in a battle of 2-4 squads. The Wildcats have lost their last two contests after getting to 2-2, scoring just 23 total points in those losses. The Red Foxes won at Campbell in Week 9, scoring 42 points, but both of their PFL wins have come against team's behind them in the standings. Davidson quarterback Jonathan Carkhuff followed a 56-pass outing in Week 8 with 39 passes in Week 9 and is averaging 30.8 pass attempts per game. Marist wideout James LaMacchia leads the league with 7.1 receptions per game and caught 11 passes for 151 yards last week 🏈 VALPARAISO and CAMPBELL will square off in a series that has seen the visiting team win each of the two meetings. The Camels have not won at Barker-Lane Stadium this season while the Crusaders have not won on the road in the current campaign. Campbell boasts one of the league's more prolific rushing attacks, averaging 181.1 yards per game and leading the league with 349 rushing attempts. Valparaiso has attempted more passes (313) than rushes (290) this season, quarterback Nate Goergen completing 55.2 percent of his attempts 🏈 MOREHEAD STATE will make the trip westward where SAN DIEGO will host its final home contest in 2010. Both squads are coming off Week 9 losses to one of the league's top three teams. Morehead State quarterback Zach Lewis has throw 14 touchdown passes and is averaging 266.8 yards per game in his sophomore campaign. San Diego signal-caller Mason Mills has 12 touchdown passes and is averaging 186.7 yards per game in his sophomore effort.
