Next Up in Crusader Baseball: After hosting preseason MVC favorite DBU last weekend, the Valparaiso University baseball team continues its challenging slate by welcoming another high-level conference foe to Emory G. Bauer Field. This week, it's 10-2 Missouri State making its way to Valpo. The Bears were one of two MVC teams to compete in the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

Last Time Out: After knocking off Top 50 RPI opponent DBU by a score of 9-2 on Sunday, the Crusaders suffered a 10-7 midweek setback at the paws of the Northern Illinois Huskies on Tuesday afternoon in DeKalb. The Crusaders faced a 10-0 deficit with six outs left to work with, but then dipped into their bag of comeback tricks with a seven-run eighth to heighten the game's drama. However, the Crusaders lost despite scoring seven runs in a frame for the second time this season as the unexpected rally fell shy. Blake Billinger had two hits including his 20th double of the season, while Jarrett Hammel, Luke VanLanen and Alex Dirienzo were bright spots out of the bullpen.

On the Air: All three games in the series will air on 95.1 FM Valparaiso, WVUR. Ben Ariano will be joined by Spencer Krock (Friday and Sunday) and Danny Dalenberg (Saturday) on the radio call. The broadcast is also available online via the TuneIn Radio app. Follow @ValpoBaseball for in-game updates. Links to live audio and stats (Stat-Broadcast) will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Series Notes: The Crusaders and Bears haven't faced off on the baseball diamond since the 1987 season, when the second of two all-time meetings between the two teams took place. The Bears, then known as Southwest Missouri State, won 4-2 in the first game of the Association of Mid-Continent Universities Tournament, which was held in Chicago. The two teams had met two years prior, when Valpo fell 2-1 in that same tournament. Missouri State will make its first ever trip to Valparaiso this weekend.

Billinger Bashing Baseballs: Valpo left fielder Blake Billinger has been a force to be reckoned with at the plate this season. He owns a .451 batting average in Missouri Valley Conference play to lead all Crusaders. In addition, Billinger belted his league-leading 20th double of the season on Tuesday at Northern Illinois, becoming the seventh player in program history and the first since 2010 with 20 doubles in a campaign. There's still 12 games remaining in the regular season, and Billinger is four doubles away from breaking the single-season program record of 23 set by Kyle Muhlsteff in 2010.

Going the Distance: Wes Gordon threw Valpo's fourth complete-game of the season on Sunday against DBU and became the third different Crusader pitcher to hurl a complete game this year. Weekend starters Jon Tieman, Trey Ferketic and Gordon have all gone the distance, with Ferketic doing so twice. This marks the first season Valpo has had three different pitchers toss a complete game since 2012, a year the team reached the NCAA Regional.

Quality Wins: Valpo added to its growing list of quality wins on Sunday against DBU. The Patriots entered the weekend ranked 46th nationally in RPI, while Valpo also has wins over Illinois, ranked 25th nationally by Baseball America at the time of the game, and Oklahoma, ranked 28th nationally by the USA Today at the time of the Valpo victory.

Exceeding Expectations: As a Missouri Valley Conference newcomer that was picked last in the preseason poll, Valpo has exceeded outside expectations thus far this season. The Crusaders have won at least one game in all four conference series and sit in the middle of the pack in the MVC standings. They own five wins in Valley play plus a pair of one-run losses that could easily have the team at 7-5 instead of 5-7.

Providing an Assist: The Crusaders had the rare circumstance of garnering two outfield assists in the same inning on Tuesday at Northern Illinois. Both Blake Billinger and Jayden Eggmann cut down runners trying to score. The Crusaders most recently had two outfield assists in the same inning on May 1, 2016 against UIC. On Tuesday, Billinger's outfield assist was his team-leading fifth of the year.

Almost Only Counts in Horseshoes & Hand Grenades: The Crusaders incurred their 10th one-run loss of the season on April 25 at Notre Dame. Nine of the 10 setbacks have come on the road for a team that has played the bulk of its schedule away from Emory G. Bauer Field. The Crusaders are just 1-10 in one-run decisions with the lone win coming 7-6 over Michigan State in the second game of a doubleheader on April 13.

Six is The Magic Number: Valpo is just 1-20 this season when scoring five runs or fewer. When the Crusaders score six runs or more, they own a 14-4 mark. The only time Valpo came away with a win without reaching the six-run plateau was on March 30 vs. Bradley, a 5-2, 10-inning win. Furthermore, Valpo is 0-13 when scoring fewer than five runs.

In The Other Dugout – Missouri State: The Bears will attempt to rebound from a 9-4 defeat to Kansas on Wednesday night. They took two of three from Bradley last weekend, suffering just their second league loss in the middle game of the series. Drew Milas leads the team in batting average at .340 and RBIs with 47, while Jeremy Eierman and Ben Whetstone have each slugged seven home runs to share the team lead in that area. Eierman ranks third in The Valley with 19 stolen bases and has been caught just three times. Missouri State is under the direction of head coach Keith Guttin, who has held that post since 1983. The Bears have racked up 11 different 40-win seasons during his tenure. Missouri State had its second NCAA Super Regional appearance in the last three seasons a year ago.

Pitching Profiles – Weekend Rotation

- Jon Tieman: Freshman All-American last season... Started his freshman year as Valpo's closer before moving into the weekend rotation by season's end... Became the first Valpo underclassman to get the Opening Day start for the Crusaders since Bryce Shafer in 2009. Six of Valpo's last seven Opening Day starters had been seniors before Tieman got the ball at Alabama this season... Got the win on March 16 at Arkansas Pine Bluff after throwing eight innings and allowing seven runs (five earned) on 10 hits. The most impressive aspect of his start was that he struck out seven and issued no walks. The Crusaders didn't allow any walks in that game, the first time they'd done that since April 23 of last season... One of his strongest starts of the season was when he pitched Valpo to a 9-2 win over the school's in-state rival Butler on March 23. He yielded two runs on seven hits and one walk while striking out four in 7 1/3 innings. Tieman did not allow a run over the first seven innings and both runs charged to him scored after he had left the game. He sent down 11 straight batters from the third to the sixth. Tieman's outing came against Big East foe Butler, a team that entered that game with a 16-3 record... In the conference opener vs. Bradley, he left in position for the win but wound up with no decision after allowing three runs (two earned) on eight hits and two walks in seven innings... Took the loss after allowing six runs (three earned) in 7 1/3 innings on April 6 at Southern Illinois... Got no decision despite eight strong innings at Michigan State

Was lifted after 5 2/3 innings on April 21 at Evansville and got no decision in an eventual 9-8 defeat... Took the loss on April 28 after allowing four runs on seven hits in four innings against DBU.

- Wes Gordon: Pitched in nine games, all starts, in his first year as a Crusader last season after transferring from Lake County (JUCO), but didn't appear after April 14 due to an injury... Left in position for the win in his first conference start, scattering seven hits and yielding two runs (one earned) while walking none in seven innings on April 1 against Bradley, but eventually received no decision... Worked four scoreless innings but was charged with five runs in the fifth in his most recent outing April 8 at Southern Illinois... Had a strong outing in his last start, going six strong innings and yielding just one run on seven hits on April 22 at Evansville. Picked up his first victory since April 8, 2017 against Northern Kentucky and limited the opposition to fewer than two runs for the first time since March 24 of last season at UIC... Had 15 RBIs in 52 games last season after having 17 in 49 games as a freshman. Hit a grand slam against Arkansas Pine Bluff on March 16... Is the first Valpo player with five triples since Kyle Gaedele had eight in 2010... Leads The Valley in triples... Has been successful with each of his last seven stolen-base attempts. Was cut down trying to steal in each of the first two games of the season, but has been perfect in stolen-base attempts since.

- Sam Shaikin, SS: Was the only Crusader to start all 53 games last season. Has started every game this year... Led Valpo in batting average at .317 a year ago... Started at third base for the first 12 games of the season, but has started at shortstop every game since... Has batted second for Valpo in every game this season... Named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List by College Baseball Foundation for an award that goes to the top shortstop in the nation... Is the only Crusader to have earned MVC Player of the Week Honors as he did so in the second week of the year, hitting a robust .700 in three games against Oklahoma and Holy Cross... Leads the team with seven home runs and has 11 in his Crusader career.

- Blake Billinger, LF: Was a unanimous first team all-conference selection in both seasons he played at Mission College (JUCO)... Has batted third in every game this season... Hit a home run against Alabama in his first at-bat as a Crusader... Had a three-double game on March 2 vs. CSUN, becoming the first Valpo player with three doubles in a game since Andrew Quinnette on April 26, 2008 against Butler... Became the first Valpo player since 2010 and seventh in program history with 20 doubles in a season on May 1 vs. Northern Illinois... Leads the MVC in two-baggers.

- Giovanni Garbella, RF: Entered April 9 of last season hitting .213 with no home runs and eight RBIs in 26 games and was a career .204 hitter over three years. He hit .380 the rest of the way with five home runs and 24 RBIs over the final 25 games of the season... Drove in a season-high four runs and launched his fourth homer of the season in Valpo's 6-2 win on April 7 at SIU... Followed that with a home run on April 13 at Michigan State, ripping three extra-base hits and recording the go-ahead RBI in a 7-6 win over the Spartans in the second game of a doubleheader... Had a career-high four hits on April 17 at Illinois... Had a season-high five RBIs, all in his first two plate appearances, in a win over Evansville on April 20. That included his sixth home run of the season and the 13th of his career... Won the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week honor on April 25.

- Zack Leone, 1B: Transferred to Valpo this season after having tremendous success from 2014-2017 at Susquehanna, where he was named an All-American by D3Baseball.com and the ABCA... Racked up 178 hits (fourth all-time), a .405 average (second all-time), 112 RBIs (second all-time), 49 doubles (program record), 18 home runs (second all-time), a .470 career OBP and a .641 career slugging percentage in his time at the Division III level... Extended his on-base streak to 16 games on April 25 at Notre Dame, matching Billinger for the longest by a Crusader this season... Had three doubles in the April 25 defeat to the Fighting Irish, becoming the second Valpo player this season with a three-double game and just the third player in the entire MVC with three doubles in a contest this year... Leads the team and is tied for third in the conference in hitting at .367.

- Chad Jacob, 3B: Before March 9 at Loyola Marymount, hadn't started a game at third base since his freshman year in 2015, but has started at third every game since, switching positions with SS Sam Shaikin... Has played in every game this season after dealing with various injuries through his first three collegiate campaigns... Leader on Valpo's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee... Had the best offensive weekend of any Crusader against DBU (April 27-29), posting a .455 average (5-for-11) against the Patriots.

- Scott Kapers, C: Threw out 41.5 percent of would-be base stealers last... Batted a team-best .378 over the final 14 games of 2017 and started this season with a .317 average over the first 18 games. Has made tremendous offensive strides since batting .196 as a freshman... Brother Jake, also a catcher, has signed his NLI to play at Valpo starting next season... On the Johnny Bench Award Watch List for an award given annually to the nation's top catcher.

- Jayden Eggimann, CF: Has 33 RBIs after having 13 all of last season... Ranks third on the team in RBIs despite batting ninth in the order... Drilled a three-run homer in the ninth inning of an 11-7 victory over Grand Canyon on March 4. The homer was extra special for Eggimann, who started his collegiate career at Grand Canyon and is a native of the Phoenix area... Racked up seven RBIs on April 11 vs. Milwaukee, finishing a double shy of the cycle. Only four players in The Valley have seven RBI games this season, and two of them play for the Crusaders. Also launched a first-inning grand slam in the win over the Panthers.

Two-Bagger, Three Times: Zack Leone enjoyed a three-double game on April 25 at Notre Dame, becoming the second Valpo player with three doubles in one game this season, joining Blake Billinger (March 2 vs. CSUN). Only three players in the entire Missouri Valley Conference have had three-double games this season, and two of them play for the Crusaders. No Valpo player had posted a three-double game since Andrew Quinnette on April 26, 2008 against Butler prior to this season.

Garbella Gains MVC Recognition: Valpo outfielder Giovanni Garbella was selected as a Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Week, presented by Enterprise Bank and Trust Company, on April 25 for his performance in both the classroom and on the playing field. Garbella, a finance major, had seven hits in 15 at-bats (.467) while ripping a double and a homer as Valpo took three of four during the week. He drove in six runs in four games and played a key role as Valpo knocked off No. 25 Illinois and then won its first Missouri Valley Conference series since joining the league over the weekend at Evansville. Garbella became the first Valpo male athlete in any sport to capture MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week honors. He joins a pair of Crusaders who won the MVC Female Scholar-Athlete of the Week award during the winter season – women's basketball players Dani Franklin and Meredith Hamlet.

Welcome to the Watch List: Valpo shortstop Sam Shaikin was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List, which was announced by the College Baseball Foundation on April 19. The honor puts Shaikin in elite company, a group of 53 of the most talented athletes in Division I college baseball. The award honors the nation's top shortstop and will be presented this summer. The award is named after former Texas Tech shortstop Brooks Wallace, who played for the Red Raiders from 1977-1980. Wallace died of leukemia at the age of 27. Shaikin is one of five MVC shortstops on the list, joining Missouri State's Jeremy Eierman, DBU's Jimmy Glowenke, Southern Illinois' Connor Kopach and Illinois State's Owen Miller. The Missouri Valley Conference trails only the ACC (9) and the SEC (8) in number of players on the watch list.

Top 25 Win: On the exact 55-year anniversary of Valpo's most recent win over Illinois, the Crusaders beat the No. 25 Fighting Illini 11-7 on Tuesday, April 17 in Champagne. It marked just the second time all season Illinois had lost a game by more than three runs. The Crusaders also beat a Top 25 team in 2016, topping No. 25 Dallas Baptist 6-1. Illinois entered the game ranked 25th by Baseball America, 27th in the RPI and 17th by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. Illinois had won five straight and 22 of its previous 27. The 11 runs are the most Illinois had given up in a loss all year.

Beating Big Ten Competition: After dropping the first game of a doubleheader at Michigan State in 12 innings on Friday, April 13, Valpo picked up a 7-6 win in the nightcap. This marks the third straight season Valpo has beaten a team from the Big Ten Conference, as the Crusaders knocked off in-state foe Purdue each of the last two years. The Crusaders followed that with the 11-7 win over the Fighting Illini, the fourth Big Ten win Valpo has notched in the last three years and the second in a row.

A Weekend To Remember: The Crusaders picked up several signature wins in the same day on Feb. 24 in Norman, Okla. Valpo upended host Oklahoma, a team ranked 28th nationally, 11-4 in the first game of the day, before routing Holy Cross 20-6. Both Oklahoma and Holy Cross reached the NCAA Tournament last season. The 20 runs in a game were Valpo's most since April 2, 2010 (26 against Chicago State) – a marked that has since been topped with a 23-run outpouring on April 11 vs. Milwaukee. The final game of the weekend in Norman saw the Crusaders take the Sooners to extra innings, but Oklahoma prevailed 3-2.

Ninth Inning Magic: On March 2 against CSUN – a neutral site game at GCU Ballpark in Phoenix – Valpo scored nine times in the top of the ninth to create a 13-13 tie. Chase Dawson capped the miraculous rally with a two-run homer, but CSUN walked off with a run in the bottom of the ninth for a 14-13 victory.

Walk-Off Winner: Valpo reversed the ghosts of years past on March 30 when Zack Leone crushed a three-run, walk-off home run, Valpo's first game-ending long ball in over 15 years. The swing that sent Valpo to a 5-2, 10 inning victory over Bradley for its first Missouri Valley Conference triumph also allowed the team to lay to rest the ghosts of the program's recent past. Three of the Crusaders' first five losses this season came in walk-off fashion, while Valpo has been hurt by walk-off home runs in the past as well – most recently last year's season opener at Western Kentucky and most notably a 2013 NCAA Tournament game against Indiana.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack, the 17th head coach in Valparaiso University history, is in his fifth season at the helm of the Crusaders. He led Valparaiso to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. The former big leaguer followed that up with a 22-win season in 2015, then guided the team to its first winning record since 2013 in 2016. In 2017, Schmack continued his success despite guiding a youthful roster that featured 11 freshmen and 15 total newcomers. He led the Crusaders to 24 wins, including a strong finish to the regular season that saw them win eight of their last 11. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.

Looking Back: Valpo finished 2017 with a 24-29 record and a 13-15 mark in the Horizon League. Three Crusaders earned all-league freshman team honors, the first time Valpo had three players on the all-freshman team since 2013 and the seventh straight year the Crusaders had multiple players on the all-freshman squad. After posting a 4-1 record, 2.93 ERA and seven saves, right-handed pitcher Jon Tieman was named a Freshman All-American, becoming the first Crusader to earn that high honor since shortstop Spencer Mahoney in 2012. The 2017 season also saw the Crusaders set the program record for team fielding percentage, as they put together a .971 fielding percentage that bested the previous mark of .968, which had stood since 1998. The Valpo offense has enjoyed a significant statistical uptick over the last three seasons. The Crusaders held a combined average of .279, slugging percentage of .387 and on-base percentage of .372 from 2015-2017, all improvements from a .265/.351/.337 slash line from 2012-2014.

Preseason Poll: The Crusaders were picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll in their first season in The Valley. Dallas Baptist is the preseason favorite to win the league and is ranked 18th nationally by D1Baseball.com, 20th by the NCBWA and 17th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Missouri State, picked second in The Valley, is ranked 35th nationally by the NCBWA and received 35 votes in the USA Today Preseason Coaches Poll.
