Thursday, May 24 – TBD
Friday, May 25 – TBD
Saturday, May 26, 7 p.m. – Championship

Next Up in Crusader Baseball: The Valparaiso University baseball team will spend the week in the Lone Star State as Dallas Baptist University hosts the 2018 Missouri Valley Conference Baseball Tournament. The eight-team, double-elimination event will commence on Wednesday and conclude on Saturday with the winner earning an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. The seventh-seeded Crusaders will face an immediate test in their tournament opener as they clash with host DBU, the No. 2 seed, under the Horner Ballpark lights to conclude the first day of MVC Tournament play.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders will look to rebound after dropping all three games against Indiana State this past weekend. The Sycamores captured a 6-3 win in a competitive series opener behind a five-run sixth inning. From there, Indiana State cruised to a 16-0 win on Friday and an 8-2 triumph on Valpo's senior day on Saturday.

On the Air: Every game of the tournament will air on ESPN+. Scott Warmann (play-by-play) and Shane Dennis (color commentary) will be on the call for Wednesday's game between the Crusaders and Patriots. Valley fans can take advantage of a free trial offer to watch the 2018 MVC Baseball Tournament from Dallas, Texas, on ESPN+. Proceed to <https://plus.espn.com> and click on the Start My 7-Day Free Trial tile. The free trial timeframe is for new ESPN+ subscribers only. Patrons will be auto-billed unless they cancel before the end of their free trial period. The subscription will automatically renew unless canceled and is subject to the ESPN+ Subscriber Agreement. Links to live video and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Tournament History: In four of its last seven years in the Horizon League, Valpo won the league tournament or finished as the runner-up. The Crusaders are hoping to secure their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2013, when they won the Horizon League Tournament for the second straight season.

Series Notes – DBU: All four all-time meetings between the two teams prior to this season occurred in 2016, when host DBU took three of four at Horner Ballpark. Dallas Baptist entered that series ranked 25th nationally. The Crusaders won 6-1 in the third game of that series, a game that two current Crusaders participated in – Scott Kapers (2-for-4, 2 RBIs) and Chase Dawson (1-for-4). Valpo also picked up a win over DBU earlier this season when Valpo snatched the series finale 9-2 last month at Emory G. Bauer Field. Blake Billinger had three of Valpo's seven hits, while Wes Gordon hurled a complete game and picked up the win, allowing two runs on just five hits. DBU owns a 5-2 lead in the all-time series.

Providing Relief: Several members of the Valpo relief corps have thrived late in the season. Perhaps the most noteworthy success story out of the pen of late has been sophomore lefty Jarrett Hammel, who transferred in after Division II Saint Joseph's College (Rensselaer, Ind.) closed its doors. Over his last six outings, Hammel has not allowed a run – a span of 13 straight scoreless frames. Also ending the season on a high note was right-hander Luke VanLanen, who allowed two runs on just four hits in seven innings over three games in the final week of the regular season.

Doubling His Way Into the Record Book: Valpo's Blake Billinger has etched his name atop the program's all-time doubles list. He smoked his 23rd double of the season this past weekend against Indiana State, matching Kyle Muhlsteff's single-season program record of 23 established in 2010. His next two-bagger will allow him to move into sole possession of the program record.

Other Record Book Threats: Sam Shaikin has scored 49 runs this season, five away from moving to the Top 5 in program history... Chase Dawson needs one more triple to enter the Top 5 in program history... As a team, Valpo has 103 doubles and has moved into the Top 5 in program history for doubles in a season. The 2000 and 1998 seasons were previously tied for fifth in program history, as the Crusaders had registered 102 doubles in each of those campaigns. The 2016 season is fourth at 109... The Crusaders have 37 home runs and are just three away from moving into the Top 5 in program history for home runs in a single season... After shattering a program record for fielding percentage that had stood since 1998 last season, the Crusaders hold a .971 fielding percentage this year, a mark that would match last year for the program record.

Saluting the Seniors

- After waving goodbye to just five seniors a year ago, Valpo honored 10 players at its Senior Day this past weekend. Four of them spent their entire careers with the Valpo program, two were graduate transfers this season, one joined the program as a sophomore and three came in last season as junior college transfers. Seven walked across the stage during Valpo's undergraduate graduation on Sunday, one will receive his MBA in August, one is on track to complete his undergraduate studies in December and one is on track to finish his master's degree in December.

- This senior class is diverse geographically as Arizona, Pennsylvania, Indiana, California, Illinois, Michigan, New York and Wisconsin are all represented.

Pitching Profiles – Weekend Rotation

- Jon Tieman: Freshman All-American last season... Started his freshman year as Valpo's closer before moving into the weekend rotation by season's end... Became the first Valpo underclassman to get the Opening Day start for the Crusaders since Bryce Shafer in 2009. Six of Valpo's last seven Opening Day starters had been seniors before Tieman got the ball at Alabama this season... Got the win on March 16 at Arkansas Pine Bluff after throwing eight innings and allowing seven runs (five earned) on 10 hits. The most impressive aspect of his start was that he struck out seven and issued no walks. The Crusaders didn't allow any walks in that game, the first time they'd done that since April 23 of last season... One of his strongest starts of the season was when he pitched Valpo to a 9-2 win over the school's in-state rival Butler on March 23. He yielded two runs on seven hits and one walk while striking out four in 7 1/3 innings. Tieman did not allow a run over the first seven innings and both runs charged to him scored after he had left the game. He sent down 11 straight batters from the third to the sixth. Tieman's outing came against Big East foe Butler, a team that entered that game with a 16-3 record... In the conference opener vs. Bradley, he left in position for the win but wound up with Went six strong innings and yielded just one run on seven hits on April 22 at Evansville. Graduated with a degree in sociology and has plans of becoming a state trooper.

Quality Wins: Valpo added to its growing list of quality wins on April 29 against DBU. The Patriots entered the weekend ranked 46th nationally in RPI, while Valpo also has wins over Illinois, ranked 25th nationally by Baseball America at the time of the game, and Oklahoma, ranked 28th nationally by the USA Today at the time of the Valpo victory.

Six is The Magic Number: Valpo is just 3-28 this season when scoring five runs or fewer. When the Crusaders score six runs or more, they own a 15-4 mark. Valpo's first win of the season when scoring five runs or fewer was on May 11, a 2-1 victory over Illinois State. They followed that with their second win of the year in such games on May 15, beating Chicago State 3-2.

Cardiac Crusaders: The Crusaders were down to their final strike with nobody on base down by a run on May 15 against Chicago State, but a pinch hit single by Riley Dent started the game-winning rally as the Crusaders eventually pulled out a 3-2 win over Chicago State. That marked the first time since March 26, 2016 Valpo has won when trailing after eight innings. The Crusaders had dropped 62 straight games when behind after eight. While one long streak ended, another one continued, as the Crusaders garnered their 22nd straight win in the head-to-head series with the Cougars.

Billinger Bomb After Billinger Bomb: Blake Billinger homered in three consecutive plate appearances on May 8 at Western Michigan, becoming the first Valpo player to launch three home runs in a game since Andrew Quinnette in 2008. Earlier this season, Billinger also became the first Valpo player with a three-double game since Quinnette in 2008. He was the first player in The Valley with a three-homer game this year and the 23rd nationally. Billinger became the first Valpo player since Quinnette in 2008 with 12 total bases in a single game in that contest.

5-for-5: Scott Kapers became the third Valpo player with a five-hit game this season on May 8 at Western Michigan, joining Chase Dawson and Blake Billinger. Before this year, Valpo hadn't had more than one player post a five-hit game in any of the previous seven seasons. Kapers joined Billinger as the second Valpo player to go a perfect 5-for-5 this year after previously that feat had not been accomplished by a Crusader since 2010.

More Western Michigan Tidbits: Valpo and Western Michigan combined for 64 total bases, the most in a Valpo game since Valpo and Butler combined for 73 on April 26, 2008. Valpo totaled 35 bases, the most by the Crusaders since they had 40 on April 3, 2010 against Chicago State. Valpo had six hit batters in the game, the team's most since at least 2005. The Crusaders also set 2018 game highs in home runs with four and matched two other games (against Milwaukee and Grand Canyon) for the season high for hits with 18.

Two-Bagger, Three Times: Zack Leone enjoyed a three-double game on April 25 at Notre Dame, becoming the second Valpo player with three doubles in one game this season, joining Blake Billinger (March 2 vs. CSUN). Only three players in the entire Missouri Valley Conference have had three-double games this season, and two of them play for the Crusaders. No Valpo player had posted a three-double game since Andrew Quinnette on April 26, 2008 against Butler prior to this season.

Top 25 Win: On the exact 55-year anniversary of Valpo's most recent win over Illinois, the Crusaders beat the No. 25 Fighting Illini 11-7 on Tuesday, April 17 in Champagne. It marked just the second time all season Illinois had lost a game by more than three runs. The Crusaders also beat a Top 25 team in 2016, topping No. 25 Dallas Baptist 6-1. Illinois entered the game ranked 25th by Baseball America, 27th in the RPI and 17th by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. Illinois had won five straight and 22 of its previous 27. The 11 runs are the most Illinois had given up in a loss all year.

Beating Big Ten Competition: After dropping the first game of a doubleheader at Michigan State in 12 innings on Friday, April 13, Valpo picked up a 7-6 win in the nightcap. This marks the third straight season Valpo has beaten a team from the Big Ten Conference, as the Crusaders knocked off in-state foe Purdue each of the last two years. The Crusaders followed that with the 11-7 win over the Fighting Illini, the fourth Big Ten win Valpo has notched in the last three years and the second in a row.

A Weekend To Remember: The Crusaders picked up several signature wins in the same day on Feb. 24 in Norman, Okla. Valpo upended host Oklahoma, a team ranked 28th nationally, 11-4 in the first game of the day, before routing Holy Cross 20-6. Both Oklahoma and Holy Cross reached the NCAA Tournament last season. The 20 runs in a game were Valpo's most since April 2, 2010 (26 against Chicago State) – a mark that has since been topped with a 23-run outpouring on April 11 vs. Milwaukee. The final game of the weekend in Norman saw the Crusaders take the Sooners to extra innings, but Oklahoma prevailed 3-2.

Ninth Inning Magic: On March 2 against CSUN – a neutral site game at GCU Ballpark in Phoenix – Valpo scored nine times in the top of the ninth to create a 13-13 tie. Chase Dawson capped the miraculous rally with a two-run homer, but CSUN walked off with a run in the bottom of the ninth for a 14-13 victory.

Walk-Off Winner: Valpo reversed the ghosts of years past on March 30 when Zack Leone crushed a three-run, walk-off home run, Valpo's first game-ending long ball in over 15 years. The swing that sent Valpo to a 5-2, 10 inning victory over Bradley for its first Missouri Valley Conference triumph also allowed the team to lay to rest the ghosts of the program's recent past. Three of the Crusaders' first five losses this season came in walk-off fashion, while Valpo has been hurt by walk-off home runs in the past as well – most recently last year's season opener at Western Kentucky and most notably a 2013 NCAA Tournament game against Indiana.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack, the 17th head coach in Valparaiso University history, is in his fifth season at the helm of the Crusaders. He led Valparaiso to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. The former big leaguer followed that up with a 22-win season in 2015, then guided the team to its first winning record since 2013 in 2016. In 2017, Schmack continued his success despite guiding a youthful roster that featured 11 freshmen and 15 total newcomers. He led the Crusaders to 24 wins, including a strong finish to the regular season that saw them win eight of their last 11. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.

Looking Back: Valpo finished 2017 with a 24-29 record and a 13-15 mark in the Horizon League. Three Crusaders earned all-league freshman team honors, the first time Valpo had three players on the all-freshman team since 2013 and the seventh straight year the Crusaders had multiple players on the all-freshman squad. After posting a 4-1 record, 2.93 ERA and seven saves, right-handed pitcher Jon Tieman was named a Freshman All-American, becoming the first Crusader to earn that high honor since shortstop Spencer Mahoney in 2012. The 2017 season also saw the Crusaders set the program record for team fielding percentage, as they put together a .971 fielding percentage that bested the previous mark of .968, which had stood since 1998. The Valpo offense has enjoyed a significant statistical uptick over the last three seasons. The Crusaders held a combined average of .279, slugging percentage of .387 and on-base percentage of .372 from 2015-2017, all improvements from a .265/.351/.337 slash line from 2012-2014.

Preseason Poll: The Crusaders were picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll in their first season in The Valley. Dallas Baptist is the preseason favorite to win the league and is ranked 18th nationally by D1Baseball.com, 20th by the NCBWA and 17th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Missouri State, picked second in The Valley, is ranked 35th nationally by the NCBWA and received 35 votes in the USA Today Preseason Coaches Poll.
