Next Up in Valpo Baseball: After matching its regular season Missouri Valley Conference win total from a year ago despite playing in a conference that entered the final weekend of the regular season ranked sixth nationally in RPI, the Valparaiso University baseball team will look to make some noise in the Valley tournament much like it did a year ago. Valpo finished seventh in the regular season standings, creating a matchup with sixth-seeded Missouri State, the defending conference champion, in a single-elimination first-round game on Tuesday.

Last Time Out: Valpo will open the tournament against the same team it played to close out the regular season. Valpo dropped all three games at Hammons Field despite leading in Games 1 and 3. The Bears garnered a one-run, 5-4 win in the series opener thanks to a four-run fifth. Valpo dropped the middle game 11-4, then took a 6-4 lead into the eighth inning of the series finale but gave up two in the eighth and two in the ninth to fall 8-6. Chase Dawson and Blake Billinger, the team's top two hitters for the season, tied for the team lead in batting average in the series by both going 4-for-12 (.333) in the three games in Springfield. Including a midweek game against Chicago State, freshman catcher Jake Kapers led the team in batting average last week by hitting .357 over four games.

Familiar Foe: Valpo faced a similar situation in the 2014 Horizon League Tournament in Mequon, Wis. After sweeping Youngstown State to close out the regular season, Valpo opened the Horizon League Tournament against the Penguins and lost 7-3. Valpo has hopes of being on the other end of that in 2019 by reversing its fortunes from a sweep at the paws of the Bears this past weekend.

On the Air: Every game of the tournament will air on ESPN+. Scott Warmann (play-by-play), Art Hains (play-by-play), R.C. McBride (color commentary) and Shane Dennis (color commentary) will serve as the on-air talent throughout the tournament. Live stats will also be available, as will in-game updates by following @ValpoBaseball on Twitter.

Tournament History: In only its second season in The Valley in 2019, Valpo made an immediate splash in the MVC Tournament a year ago by upsetting DBU 13-10 in the tournament opener. The Patriots were the MVC regular season runners-up and went on to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. After falling to Bradley 11-9 in a game that ended at 1:32 a.m., Valpo had DBU on the ropes with a 5-0 lead only to fall to the Patriots 7-5 in an elimination game. Before joining the Valley, Valpo won the league tournament or finished as the runner-up in four of its final seven seasons in the Horizon League. Valpo's most recent NCAA Regional berth was in 2013, when it won the Horizon League's automatic berth for the second straight season.

Series Notes – Missouri State: Valpo will look to pick up its first win over Missouri State on Tuesday as the Bears lead 8-0 in a matchup that began in 1985 but had been on hold since 1987 until a three-game series at Emory G. Bauer Field last year. The 1985 meeting was part of the Association of Mid-Continent Universities Tournament in Charleston, Ill., while the 1987 matchup was part of the same event in Chicago. This past weekend, Valpo made its first ever trip to Springfield. The Bears are the only team in the conference that Valpo has never beaten.

Series Notes – The Field

- vs. DBU: 3-9 (L4) – won 13-10 in 2018 MVC Tournament opener after also winning a 2018 regular season meeting
- vs. Southern Illinois: 6-3 (W3) – swept the regular season series, Valpo’s first sweep of a three-game series since 2016
- vs. Indiana State: 30-46-1 (L11) – Valpo’s last win was March 31, 2007
- vs. Illinois State: 9-23-1 (W1) – Valpo has at least one win over the Redbirds in four straight seasons
- vs. Evansville: 38-21 (L1) – Valpo won two of three at Evansville in 2018 for the program’s first Missouri Valley Conference series win
- vs. Bradley: 13-18 (L1) – First MVC win came on a walk-off home run by Zack Leone against the Braves in 2018, the first Valpo walk-off homer in over 15 years.

Tieman Time: For the second straight season, right-hander Jon Tieman gets the ball from head coach Brian Schmack for the tournament opener. The junior received no decision in his first MVC Tournament start, an eventual 13-10 win over DBU. He allowed six runs on eight hits and four walks in four innings. However, a return to Duffy Bass Field brings back fonder memories as this was the site of Tieman’s 132-pitch complete game on May 11, 2018, when he yielded just one run on eight hits and two walks to lift his team to a 2-1 victory. Valpo centerfielder Jayden Eggimann made a diving catch for the final out in the bottom of the ninth. Tuesday’s game against Missouri State is expected to be a rematch of the series opener this past Thursday in Springfield. Logan Wiley got the win for the Bears by limiting Valpo to three runs on four hits and one walk while striking out eight in 5 2/3 innings. Tieman was saddled with the defeat after allowing five runs on four hits and four walks in 4 2/3 innings.

Friendly Confines: Valpo finished the season with an 8-6 record in games played at Emory G. Bauer Field, posting a winning home mark for the fourth time in the last five years. Since 2006, Valpo has finished with a losing record at home just twice in 14 seasons. Valpo has a 146-82 (.640) record at home since Brian Schmack joined the coaching staff in 2007.

200-Hit Club: Valpo second baseman Chase Dawson enters the MVC Tournament needing just one more hit to become the first Valpo player to join the 200-hit club since one more to become the first Valpo player since Spencer Mahoney (2012-2015), who finished with 216. Dawson is also six hits away from moving into a tie for 10th in program history.

Billinger Receives Recognition: Valpo senior Blake Billinger was recognized for his success on the field and in the classroom by earning a place on the 2019 Google Cloud Academic All-District Team selected by CoSIDA. Billinger holds a 3.49 grade point average in psychology with a minor in business analytics. He was one of 11 honorees on the Academic All-District Team among student-athletes from Division-I baseball programs in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio. He became the first Valpo player to receive Academic All-District recognition since Nolan Lodden in 2016.

Chasing the Record Book: Seniors Chase Dawson and Sam Shaikin rank among Valpo’s career leaders in several statistical categories.

- Dawson ranks third in program history in career assists with 456. He trails only John Giusti (2005-2008, 488) and Spencer Mahoney (2012-2015, 559). Shaikin is also among the program’s leaders in career assists with 391, which ranks fifth. Rick O’Connor is fourth at 424.
- Dawson has 199 career hits and needs one more to become the first Valpo player since Spencer Mahoney (2012-2015) to enter the 200-hit club. He can crack the Top 10 in program history if he gets to 205, a mark currently held by J.J. Swiatkowski (1997-2000).

- Blake Billinger (36) needs two more doubles to move into the Top 10 in program history in that area.

- Dawson is up to 145 career runs scored, sixth in program history with Spencer Mahoney (2012-2015) fifth at 147.

- Dawson has 13 career triples and is tied with Robert Skaltsas (1974-1977) for second. Rod Hadrick is the all-time leader with 15.

- Shaikin has 21 career home runs and needs one more to join four others in a tie for fifth in program history. He is currently tied for ninth in program history in career home runs after entering the all-time Top 10 on May 8 at Michigan State.

- Shaikin has 104 walks, which ranks third in program history. Marc White (1989-1992) is second at 137, while Spencer Mahoney (2012-2015) holds the record with 138.

Senior Spotlight: This year's senior class features four players who are four-year members of the program, two junior college transfers and one graduate transfer. Nick Leaverton, Patrick Donohue, Sam Shaikin and Chase Dawson have spent their entire careers at Valpo, Brent Jones has been with the program the last three seasons, Blake Billinger is in his second season on campus and this marks Mike Kornacker's lone year at Valpo after graduating from Purdue. Shaikin and Dawson have been cornerstones of the program over the last four seasons, serving as four-year starters and comprising Valpo's middle infield combination. Several Valpo players have plans in place for what they'll be doing after graduation.

- Nick Leaverton, a finance major with a minor in business analytics, plans to become an officer in the air force.

- Mike Kornacker, a grad transfer with an undergraduate degree in organizational leadership from Purdue, will finish his master's in sports administration from Valpo in December 2019. He will complete an internship this summer at Lewis University before interning at St. Laurence High School in the fall. He hopes to work in high school or collegiate athletics after graduation.

- Brent Jones, a physical education major, has future plans of becoming a P.E. teacher.

- Patrick Donohue, a finance major, has future plans of being a financial representative or planner.

Bonus Baseball: Valpo's 5-4 win over Southern Illinois on May 10 was the team's second extra-inning game of the season and first since Feb. 24, a 7-6 loss at Arkansas State. The four-hour, 14-inning funfest was Valpo's longest game in terms of innings since April 17, 2012, a 2-1 defeat at Indiana State that required 16 frames. The game against the Salukis was Valpo's longest in terms of time since the team enjoyed a four-hour, 29-minute mid-week marathon in an 8-7 win over Western Michigan on May 5, 2015. The series opener against Southern Illinois tied for Valpo's longest home game on record in terms of innings, matching a 4-3 win over Chicago State on May 14, 2016 and a 2-1 loss to Indiana Central on April 15, 1978.

Bringing Out The Brooms: Valpo's three wins over Southern Illinois from May 10-12 allowed the team to string together three straight victories for the first time this season and record its first ever sweep in Missouri Valley Conference play. It marked Valpo's second series win (2018 at Evansville) since joining The Valley prior to the start of the 2018 season and first at Emory G. Bauer Field. In addition, it was Valpo's first series win since March 16-17 at Northern Illinois and the team's second series win of the season. The victories allowed Valpo to lift its Valley win total to six, matching its conference win total from a year ago. That marked Valpo's first three-game series sweep since May 19-21, 2016 vs. Youngstown State. Valpo tacked on its fourth straight win on May 14 vs. Chicago State to make it the team's longest winning streak since securing six straight victories late in 2016.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack, the 17th head coach in Valparaiso University history, is in his sixth season in charge of the program. He led Valparaiso to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. The former big leaguer followed that up with a 22-win season in 2015, then guided the team to its first winning record since 2013 in 2016. In 2017, Schmack continued his success despite managing a youthful roster that featured 11 freshmen and 15 total newcomers. He led his team to 24 wins, including a strong finish to the regular season that saw them win eight of their last 11. The 2018 season saw Valpo transition to the Missouri Valley Conference. The Brown & Gold made an immediate splash in the highly-respected baseball league, putting together a strong showing in the MVC Tournament, including a 13-10 victory over host Dallas Baptist, a team that went on to receive an at-large NCAA Regional berth. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.

game. The other Top 50 wins came against Oklahoma and Illinois. Valpo beat the No. 25 Fighting Illini 11-7, tying with Nebraska for the most runs scored all season against Illinois, a Big Ten team that went 33-20.

- Valpo ranked in the Top 5 in program history in doubles, home runs and walks last season. The home run total was Valpo's highest since 2002, while the team had a .404 slugging percentage, its best since 2010.

- After besting a single-season fielding percentage mark that had stood since 1998 in 2017, Valpo again rewrote that record by posting a fielding percentage of .973 in 2018.

- Valpo had a pair of 20+ run outputs in single games in 2018 after the team hadn't scored 20 or more runs in a game since 2010. The first time was against defending Patriot League champion Holy Cross on Feb. 24 (20-6), the second against Milwaukee on April 11 (23-5).

- DBU, an at-large NCAA Regional team, played 63 games in 2018. Two teams scored 13 or more runs against them – Oklahoma (15, March 6) and Valpo (13, May 23).

- Valpo's first ever MVC win won't soon be forgotten, as Zack Leone launched a walk-off homer in the bottom of the 10th to lift his team over Bradley 5-2 on March 30 at Emory G. Bauer Field. That was Valpo's first walk-off blast in over 15 years.

- Blake Billinger had the program's first three-homer game in 10 years on May 8, helping Valpo to an 18-13 win over Western Michigan.

- Following the season, junior catcher Scott Kapers was selected in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Texas Rangers. He became the eighth Valpo player in the last nine years to be drafted and was the program's highest selection since 2011.

The Grandest of Slams: A grand slam is even more grand when it comes with two outs in the bottom of the eighth inning down by two runs. An inning that started modestly – with two outs and nobody on base – finished with Sam Shaikin hitting a go-ahead grand slam to lift Valpo over UNCW 10-8 on March 3. The grand slam was Valpo's first of the season, but the second time in the last three years that the team used a go-ahead, eighth-inning grand slam to win a game in dramatic fashion. The first came on April 13, 2017, when James Stea's slam helped Valpo beat Oakland 7-6 at Emory G. Bauer Field.

A Challenging Slate: Under Brian Schmack, the Valpo baseball team has not shied away from scheduling high-level nonconference opponents. With the move to the Missouri Valley Conference, the overall schedule has gotten even more challenging. Here are a few notes on the quality of Valpo's schedule this year:

- Seven opponents played in an NCAA Regional in 2018 – UNC Wilmington, South Carolina, Tennessee Tech, Purdue, DBU, North Carolina A&T and Missouri State.

- Six of those teams all had 37 wins or more last season and averaged 41.5 wins, while the other had 32 wins.

- Those teams combined for 13 NCAA Regional wins last season and Tennessee Tech and South Carolina both advanced to Super Regionals.

- The Gamecocks have reached the College World Series 11 times and won national championships in 2010 and 2011. They finished last season ranked 16th nationally.

- Tennessee Tech finished second in the nation in wins with 53 behind only Oregon and finished the season ranked 15th in RPI.

- Six of those teams finished in the Top 60 in RPI last season and five in the Top 40.

- In addition to South Carolina (SEC) and Purdue (Big Ten), Valpo had two other Power 5 opponents – Notre Dame (ACC) and Michigan State (Big Ten). Big East foe Butler was also on the slate after the team finished 34-20 last season.

Inside the Assistants: Although Brian Schmack has become a veteran of the head coaching role, Valpo's staff has a new look in 2019.

- After spending the last three seasons as a volunteer assistant, Kory Winter has been hired as Schmack's top assistant and hitting coach for the 2019 campaign. Winter played collegiately at Wittenberg and has completed coaching stints at Muskingum University and Shippensburg University. He is also Valpo's outfield instructor and coaches third base.

- Casey Fletcher has joined the staff as an assistant coach. He spent the last two seasons at Illinois, where he was a volunteer assistant. Prior to joining the Fighting Illini staff, Fletcher played professionally for two seasons with the Joliet Slammers of the Frontier League. He enjoyed a prosperous collegiate playing career that featured two seasons as an All-Big Ten honoree at Illinois (2014-2015) and helped Illinois to the NCAA Super Regional for the first time in program history by hitting .326 with 48 runs, three homers and 33 RBIs as a senior. Fletcher was an outfielder in college before moving to catcher in the professional ranks. His father Darrin played in the big leagues from 1989-2002 with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Philadelphia Phillies, Montreal Expos and Toronto Blue Jays. His grandfather Tom also reached the big leagues with the Detroit Tigers in 1962 and his great grandfather Glenn spent 10 seasons in the minor leagues.

- Valpo has also welcomed first-year volunteer assistant Dylan DeBrouwer to the coaching staff. DeBrouwer serves as the team's infield instructor and oversees strength and conditioning while also coaching first base. He spent the last two seasons as a graduate assistant at Greenville University, where he served as the recruiting coordinator, hitting coach, infield coach and strength and conditioning coach. He also served as the head coach of the Chesterfield Vipers in the Mid Atlantic Collegiate League, recruiting and building a summer league team that won a championship in 2018. He received his undergraduate degree from Whittier College, where he was a captain on the baseball team.

Preseason Poll: Valpo was picked to finish seventh of eight in the MVC Preseason Poll. Blake Billinger represented Valpo on the Preseason All-MVC squad.

Who's Next: The Valpo baseball program announced seven newcomers for the 2020 season in November.

- DJ Calvert – an infielder who is transferring from Northern Oklahoma College (JUCO). Was an all-conference shortstop at the junior college level in 2018. During his prep tenure at Edmond Memorial in Oklahoma, Calvert was a 2016 6A state champion and a second-team all-conference performer.

- Ryan Klainos – A senior pitcher at Libertyville High School in Illinois. Is part of a prep team that has won conference and regional championships during his time with the program. Joined forces with two other Division I commits to form the conference pitching rotation during his junior season.

- Jake Miller – A left-handed pitcher from Don Bosco Prep. The Monroe, N.Y. native was a 2018 Rawlings-Perfect Game Preseason All-American. He will become just the second Valpo player to hail from New York since 2005, joining Zack Leone.

- Jacob Rosenkranz – A senior right-handed pitcher from Stevenson

High School in Illinois who boasts a no-hitter among his prep accomplishments.

- Kyle Schmack – A local infielder who is currently a senior at South Central High School, where he was an all-area performer last season and was named the area's hitter of the year. He is the son of Valpo head coach Brian Schmack.

- Nolan Tucker – A local signee who is an infielder at Hanover Central. Batted .517 as a sophomore, is a two-time all-conference performer and gained 30 pounds in the offseason between his sophomore and junior year.

- Trent Turzenski – A RHP from Burlington, Wis. who has twice earned Perfect Game All-American Honorable Mention (2016, 2018) in addition to being named Southern Lakes All-Conference honorable mention (2018), Racine All-County Second Team (2018) and to the Perfect Game Kernels Foundation All-Tournament Team (2018). He was ranked No. 14 in the state of Wisconsin for the 2019 recruiting class.
